GREAT BATTLE AMONG GIANTS

Foot-Ball Heroes Fight Hard For Gridiron Honors

ROOTERS CAME FROM ALL SIDES TO SHOUT

University and A. and M. Have Strong Backers and Ideal Day Sees Thousands to the Grounds—Many Women in Glorious Colors.

Neither side scored in the first half of foot-ball game this afternoon between the University of North Carolina and the A. and M. The fighting was hard from the first, and the ball was all over the ground, but it was not shoved beyond the line.

It was an ideal day for the game. The weather could not have been better; just cold enough to put life and glister into the rooster without being uncomfortable. Many foot-ball enthusiasts came in last night and the hotel corridors were all agog with talk of the game. The college men, dressed in big trousers and hats of advertisement picture shape, were in great evidence, and among this crowd of boys could be seen occasionally a man of mature age who, by his look and attitude, could be recognized at once as an alumnus. He was telling the boys of the games of other years, and how the team of 18—went to victory and what a glorious victory it was. These tales of the "old boys" were listened to attentively and respectfully, but always the talk came back to the game of to-day.

This morning the first train to arrive was from Goldsboro, and one seeing the great crowd getting off might have thought it was fair week again. All of the trains coming into Raleigh from every direction brought men, young and old, wearing their favorite colors and loudly predicting victory for their choice.

From Wake Forest there came 200 students to see the great battle, the like they are not allowed to engage in, but it could be easily seen from their excited demeanor that the reason Wake Forest don't play foot-ball is that the faculty and trustees forbid, for a manlier and stronger set of young men never went to college. Their sympathies were mainly with Carolina, because, perhaps, of their patriotism in thinking that this game would in some way affect the great battle between the University of North Carolina and the University of Virginia on Thanksgiving Day. But as for that, when these two great universities meet there is not a student in any college in North Carolina but who would almost give his right arm to see the Orange and Blue go down in defeat. Thus it is that foot-ball, the many sport, engenders and encourages patriotism and love for the men who battle for the honor and supremacy of the Old North State.

At 10:30 Carolina's team arrived over the Southern, accompanied by fully five hundred of the students, all wearing the colors—white and blue—and feeling confident and willing to bet, perhaps, their next month's allowance on the result. The A. and M. team and the students have looked upon this game as the game of their lives. On its result rested the championship in foot-ball for the State, and the people of Raleigh, feeling a great and intimate interest in the farmer boys, have been giving every encouragement possible. Last night at the college a great mass meeting was held, in which the student body, the faculty and many of the alumni participated. Speeches were made and every word of encouragement was given the team which is to battle for the honor of the institution.

The line-up of the two teams was as follows:

A. and M.	University.
Lykes, center.	Parker.
Perkins, right guard.	Seigle.
Sykes, left guard.	Snipes.
Beebes, right tackle.	Story.
Tull, left tackle.	Thompson.
Gregory (c.), right end.	Brown.
Stevenson, left end.	Townsend.
Steele, quarter back.	Robinson (c.).
Wilson, right half.	Reynolds.
Hardie, left half.	Winborne.
Shaw, full back.	Abernathy.

Weight About Even. The average weight of the two teams was about even. Carolina weighed 175 and A. and M. 165. The following regular men for Carolina did not play: Gardner, Seiler, Whitaker, Snipes and Meadows. These were considering Carolina's strongest men, and are the lungs of the team in the game with Virginia on Thanksgiving Day.

Gardner and Snipes did not play because they were A. and M. boys, and did not feel like playing against their comrades in past battles. Abernathy was the only man who had formerly played with the A. and M. team who played to-day for Carolina, and his work showed that he would do his best wherever he played. Whitaker also did not play because of his intimate association with the boys of the A. and M. for the past several years during his stay in Raleigh, but these men will be Carolina's stronghold on Thanksgiving Day, when the greatest contest of the season is made.

FOOT-BALL GAMES TO-DAY.

Many Big Contests On the Gridiron In the East and West.

College students and foot-ball enthusiasts in general are interested in to-day's calendar of foot-ball games. Important contests are on between several of the big universities. Harvard and Pennsylvania will try conclusions on Franklin field, at Philadelphia; Columbia University and the Carlisle Indians fight it out on the American League Park field, New York; Cornell and Princeton are matched for a scrimmage at Princeton, and there are important contests on between minor colleges throughout the country. There are about only two weeks more for the foot-ball season, but several inviting contests are yet to be pulled off.

Northern games of note to-day are as follows:

- Yale and Brown, in New Haven.
- Army and Carlisle, in West Point.
- Pennsylvania and Harvard, in Philadelphia.
- Princeton and Cornell, in Princeton.
- Navy and Bucknell, in Annapolis.
- Amherst and Dartmouth, in Amherst.
- Lehigh and Dickinson, in Carlisle.
- Michigan and Ohio State, in Ann Arbor.

TELEPHONE DEAL BLOCKED.

High Point Proposition Delayed By Refusal to Vote.

(Special to The Evening Times.)

High Point, N. C., Nov. 11.—There was another meeting of the stockholders of the North Carolina State Telephone Company this morning to again entertain the proposition of the Bell Telephone Company. No definite action was taken on account of refusal of J. F. Hayden, the manager of the North State Company and owner of half the capital stock, to vote either way. The proposition is to enter into a sublicense contract with the Bell people on a percentage business.

The picker house of the Randleman Manufacturing Company was destroyed by fire last night. It was fully covered by insurance and the fire will not necessitate a shut-down but a day or so.

BIG REVIVAL ENDS.

Services at Edenton Street Methodist Closed Last Night.

The series of meetings which were commenced at Edenton Street Methodist church about two weeks ago came to a close last night. There was a large congregation present to hear Rev. Harry M. North preach his closing sermon, and listen to the sweet songs of Rev. A. B. Hunter. The interest seemed to be unabated as ten or eleven presented themselves at the altar for prayer. There has been over eighty professions of faith and reclamations during the meetings, and the membership of the church have been greatly blessed and their hearts made to rejoice. "My Mother's Prayer" was very tenderly sung as one of the solos of the evening by Mr. Hunter, and immediately before Mr. North pronounced the benediction the large congregation present sang with the spirit "God be with you 'till we meet again."

Mr. North is an earnest, attractive speaker and has great influence with the young people. Mr. Hunter has impressively preached to our people both morning and night in tender songs which have added so much to the interest of the meetings. Both of these young pastors have drawn to themselves many friends during their brief stay in our city. Both left last night on the midnight train—one going east and the other west—and expect to be with their own congregations Sunday morning. Mr. Bumpas gave notice that he would open the doors of his church Sunday morning for the reception of members.

THIRD NEGRO TO BE HANGED

Scott Is Convicted Along With Adams and Sawyer

EXECUTION FIXED BY COURT FOR JAN. 26

Jury Returned Verdict and Judge Passed Sentence This Afternoon. Only Hope Now is With President Roosevelt.

(Special to the Evening Times.)
Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 11.—At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon Henry Scott, the third negro charged with killing officers and members of the crew of the schooner Harry A. Berwind, on October 19th last, was pronounced guilty in the United States Court and sentenced to die on January 26th. Sawyer and Arthur Adams, previously convicted, were sentenced to be hanged on the same day, and the triple execution will take place somewhere in the Eastern district of North Carolina. Very probably it will occur here in Wilmington.

The trial, which has been unusual in view of the horror of the crime, attracted widespread attention throughout the country and especially in shipping circles. Desperate efforts were made by Adams and Sawyer to change the murder to Scott alone, but the attempt was a failure and all three will die, a verdict which seems to meet the approval of honest critics who heard and read the testimony.

The only hope for the condemned trio is in executive clemency on the part of President Roosevelt, a condition which is altogether improbable. There may be a stay of execution, but the indications point overwhelmingly to the enforcement of the law. At times the negroes do not seem to understand the meaning of the sentence, but friends will doubtless appear to help save them.

HEARST STILL MAKING FIGHT

Tammany Leaders to Be Arrested For Election Fraud

SAID NOW THAT SIXTY ARRESTS WILL BE MADE

Managers for Municipal Ownership Candidate Claim That Correct Returns Indicate Big Majority for Mr. Hearst.

(By the Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 11.—Managers of the contest which William Randolph Hearst is making for the mayoralty of New York, claimed to-day that returns from election district captains of the Municipal Ownership League show in every instance a gain for Mr. Hearst over the figures reported by the Election Board's poll clerks.

It is expected that one of the Tammany district leaders will be arrested within a short time on charge of violating the election laws. Mr. Hearst's counsel announced this afternoon that they would be prepared to secure the arrest of sixty men for various violations of the election laws.

Personally, Mr. Hearst has not lost hope, and his newspapers continue to assert that he has been put into office by the vote of the people. Opinion naturally is divided and this is reflected in the trading in Wall street, where 1 to 2 is offered that Mr. Hearst will be seated by the courts. Mayor McClellan, who will in no way be involved in the charge of scandal, was busy to-day with his lawyers, among whom is former Judge Alton B. Parker. The mayor contends that he has been honestly elected and that so far as he is in his power the will of the people shall not be thwarted. There is much public interest in the identity of district leaders who will likely be arrested.

J. P. CALDWELL IS VERY LOW

Late News from Charlotte Shows That He is in a Desperate Condition, Being Ill With Pneumonia.

He was attacked several days ago, and while it was safe then that he was not considered very ill, the later intelligence is more alarming. Mr. Caldwell is one of the foremost editors of the South, and he is deservedly esteemed in all parts of North Carolina, where his good work is known.

Boycotting English Goods.

Bombay, Nov. 11.—The Prince of Wales to-day received a deputation of Indian merchants who have instituted a boycott against English goods, just as the Americans had their manufactures boycotted by the Chinese. The committee on memorial exercises are now arranging the musical program for that occasion, which will be under the direction of Mr. H. T. Hudson, Jr., of the local lodge. These memorial exercises will be held on December 3 by each one of the thousand and eleven lodges in the United States.

NEW SCANDAL UP TO WILSON

Secretary Cheatham Calls Cotton Estimate Spite Work

GREATER SENSATIONS WILL REACH CONGRESS

Idea of November Condition Being Sent Out is Ridiculous, Cheatham Says, and It Only Help the Bears On the Market.

(By the Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 11.—Secretary Cheatham, of the Southern Cotton Association, is quoted by The Herald as having severely criticized yesterday's cotton report.

Secretary Cheatham said "The most absurd bunch of spite work ever attempted was the issuing of a crop report Friday by James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture. In this report he announces the 'condition' at 68.8."

"Now there is no sane man who ever saw a cotton stalk who does not know that on November 1st and November 10th it is not only far beyond the fruitage or bearing stage, but in nearly every case is entirely void of foliage of every kind. It has passed far beyond the increasing stage. Its condition, so far as conditions are recognized by the year's reports, is the same as October 1st previously. For Mr. Wilson to make a report on 'condition' of November 1st is to assist in the operations of the bear speculators to hammer down the price of cotton."

"I say to Mr. Wilson, 'Shame, shame, shame' on him and the men who assisted him in this attempt at spite work against the cotton producers of the South. It is the final effort to 'get even' and the attempt will result in sure discomfiture for the Department of Agriculture before the next session of Congress is far advanced. That there will be an investigation of this department by Congress and the uncovering of matters now concealed, before which all previous disclosures will pale into insignificance, I do not for an instant doubt."

The Southern Cotton Association in its bulletin of the crop issued on October 31st, estimated the crop for 1905, at 9,444,314 bales, a smaller production than yesterday's estimate of 68.8 would promise.

In Liverpool cotton statistics sent out last night the quantity afloat, of all kinds, should read, 380,000 bales, and the quantity afloat, American 327,000 bales.
