HURT BY EXPLOSION Premature Blast on Angler's Road

Wagner Terribly Burned in the Accident Near Morrisville. Brought Here for Treatment—Two Were Injured

Hillard Beckwith, one of two men who were dangerously injured in a premature explosion of a blast on Angler's railroad near Morrisville Monday, was brought to St.
Agnes' Hospital here for treatment to-day.

Beckwith's face, and in fact nearly his whole body, is terribly burned.
He was unconscious for a long while after the explosion and the physicians had no idea that he would ever regain consciousness. However, the indications now are that he will recover.

The other negro injured was Thomas Beckwith. His injuries are very painful, but not as serious as Hillard's. The two had drilled for a blast in a rock through which the road-bed was being cut and were putting in the blasting powder when one of the caps was set off accidentally. The wonder is that both men were not killed outright.

GATTIS' CHARACTER BEFORE CONFERENCE

(Special to The Evening Times.) Wilson, N. C., Nov. 29.—The North Carolina Conference met in its sixty-ninth annual session this morning at 9:30, Bishop Wilson presiding. The Lord's Supper was administered before the business began.
W. L. Cunningham was re-elected secretary. The reports of the nine presiding elders were made, and their characters passed. The undergraduates also passed, and their reports were submitted. The superannuated teachers passed the examination of character.

The most interesting feature of to-day's session was the passage of the character of T. J. Gattis. This was done after a statement made by his presiding elder.

FLOOD DAMAGE ON THE OHIO.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 29.—Heavy damage from floods and rain is reported by Times-Star specials from Ohio river points to-day.

WATER VERSUS WINE How Shall Battleship N. C. Be Christened?

Governor Glenn Will Decide the Question Promptly—This Incident Probably Results a New England Story.

Shall the battleship North Carolina, which is under construction at Newport News, Va., be christened with water or with wine when it is launched next year?

This question is raised by the Washington correspondence of the Christian-Industrial News and the correspondent proceeds to remark that the Governor of Kentucky and Kansas had the battleship named for those States christened with water instead of champagne.
Governor Glenn will probably, according to The News correspondent, have the responsibility of deciding whether the "power" of the North Carolina shall be dashed with sparkling wine or pure water.

Governor Glenn favored the Washington story when he was in his office, his morning and the christening a broad-smile. The Governor appeared to be feeling an unusual interest in the question, and he was heard to say he would receive a letter from the author of the story, and he did not even let it go.

While this incident is not an index to the Governor's character, the question recalls a good story. His Excellency brought back to his New England trip. It was told by the Governor Bell, of Vermont. Now Governor Bell is an extreme prohibitionist of the strictest sort. When the battleship Vermont was to be christened Governor Bell's daughter was chosen to christen it, and she declined to use a bottle of wine. One good thing, a life-long teetotaler, wrote the Governor a vigorous protest; she was surprised that he would allow his daughter to break a bottle of intoxicating liquor on the bow of that proud boat. The Governor replied that he was pained to know that there was a single prohibitionist in Vermont who would prevent the distinction of a boat of mine so that it could do no damage and would instead preserve it for some years to drink and thus contribute to the ruin of that unfortunate.

Was Sandbagged.
San Bernardino, Cal., Nov. 29.—Carl Axel Fred, a tourist from Concord, N.
H., died yesterday at the county hospital, after lying unconscious for four days. The county physician states emphatically that every indication points to Fred having been sandbagged.

TWO PARDONS ASKED President Studies Selma Post- master's Case

Colored Harris May Get Pardon for Corbett, But J. B. Powell Must Serve Out His Term.

Col. J. C. L. Harris returned this morning from Washington where he made application to the President for a pardon for J. T. Corbett, former postmaster of Selma, who is serving a four year sentence in the Federal prison for mail robbery. The pardon is recommended by both Judge Pearson and District Attorney Blair. Corbett is asked on two grounds. In the first place if the commutation act had been passed prior to Corbett's conviction his sentence would now have ended. In the second place, an anonymous letter to Dr. R. J. Noble at Selma says that the main witness against Corbett and was also been killed on the railroad, commit the robbery himself. The President promised Colonel Harris to take the matter up.

An application was also made by Colonel Harris for a pardon for J. B.
Powell, of Norfolk, convicted here of using the mails for fraudulent purposes, on account of his physical condition. This application was refused and the department will not take the matter up.

KILLED FRIEND AND HIMSELF.

(By the Associated Press.) Columbia, Tenn., Nov. 29.—A tragedy, in which two close friends lost their lives, occurred near Rally Hill, in Maury county, yesterday.
The dead men are Fred Early and Henry Coleburn. Early killed his friend and then himself. Both men were theological students. Early's mind is thought to have become deranged by hard study.

TO MY FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC.

Having opened a grocery store on Main street, No. 111, just opposite Baptist Grove, with a full line of fresh selected of all kinds of groceries, vegetables, all kinds of fowl, fresh meats, fresh eggs, all time on hand; and as my expenses are not much, my customers, I shall give them the benefit.
Call and see me and be convinced in quality, quantity and price.
Thanking kind friends for the very liberal patronage I have been favored with for the first week I have been in business.
Very respectfully,
ISAAC W. ROGERS.
