Mechanics' Dime Saving Bank

One Hundred monthly payments for rent of residence means the permit to live in a landlord's house for 100 months and to hold possession of 100 rent receipts.

If the One Hundred monthly payments of an amount about equal to the rent had been paid to the Mechanics' and Investors' Union

The party would have lived in his own house during the time, and at end of 100 months he would have received in cash an amount equal to the cost of his lot and owned his house and lot free of encumbrance.

THE REPUBLICAN SENATE CAUCUS

Those Named to Fill Committee Vacancies

STEERING COMMITTEE

Clark, of Wyoming, Chairman of Judiciary Committee; Chapman, of Minnesota, Indian Affairs; Warren, of Wyoming, Military Affairs; Scott, of West Virginia, Public Buildings and Grounds.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 1.—The caucus of the Republican senators, which will be held immediately after the adjournment of the Senate to-day, has its work already defined. Its most important function will be to authorize the appointment of a steering committee, and following the usual custom the present members are almost certain to be re-elected. The committee now consists of Senators Allison (chairman), Hale, Aldrich, Culham, Lodge, Perkins, Clark of Wyoming, Kilgus, Spooner, Keam and Beveridge.

The caucus also will direct the appointment of a committee to fill vacancies. The principal chairmanships vacant are judiciary, which will be filled by the advancement of Clark, of Wyoming, Indian affairs, by Chapman, of Minnesota, military affairs, by Warren, of Wyoming; public buildings and grounds, by Scott, of West Virginia, claims, by Fulton, of Oregon, and education and labor, by Dolliver, of Iowa. There are vacancies to be filled on finance, which probably will be given to Hale, of Maine, on foreign relations, which is likely to go to Beveridge, of Indiana; three on judiciary, which will probably be filled by Knox, of Pennsylvania; Foraker, of Ohio, and Carter, of Montana; Warner, of Missouri, will get one of the vacancies on military affairs.

There are also a number of important Democratic vacancies on committees, which will be filled by the minority steering committee.

RALEIGH MEN WERE HONORED

Of the four clerical and four lay delegates to the General Conference elected at the North Carolina Conference in Wilson, two of the clerical and two of the lay delegates have resided, or reside now, in Raleigh.

Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D., is editor of The Raleigh Christian Advocate and is thoroughly identified with the Church interests of this city. Rev. J. N. Cole is a former pastor of Edenton Street Methodist church and as pastor of that church endeared himself not only to his own membership, but to many others in the city, irrespective of denomination. Mr. Joseph G. Brown, president of the Citizens' National Bank, leads the lay delegation, and the vote he received was a most flattering one. Ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis, who stands high in the estimation of Raleigh and the entire State, is the second of the lay delegates. The entire delegation is as follows: Clerical—J. C. Kilgo, T. N. Ivey, J. D. Pegram and J. N. Cole. Lay—J. G. Brown, T. J. Jarvis, Henry Page and J. F. Bruton.

CHILD'S SECOND TERM IN THE PEN.

A child sixteen-years-old entered the penitentiary to-day to serve her second term. She is Etta Brandon, colored, of Rowan county, and was brought here by Sheriff Julian to-day to serve one year for larceny. When only fourteen years old she was a convict for twelve months for the same crime.
