SOME BAYSHORE POINTS SETTLED

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 12.-Federal Judge Waddill today took up the complicated litigation over the Bayshore Raliroad receivership properties and settled several questions.

Burr, Brown & Lloyd and Edward B. Smith & Company, both of Philadelphia, appeared in court as competitive interests seeking to secure the railroad. The Burr interest withdrew its objection to the property of $210,000 in receiver's certificates held by Wright & Snyder of Philadelphia, but contested the matter of making prior to bonds of the road $80,000 in receiver's debts made after the expenditure of receipts from the receiver a certia-

Judge Waddill said he would consider the question, but later announced that all receiver's debts would be paid. The Burr interests declared an appeal would be taken. This may prevent an early sale of the road.

Smith & Company agreed to take up which Burr, Brown & Lloyd held $85,-000, and this was accepted by the court. If interest is allowed to Burr holdings it will make $115,000, but it is now declared that the court can in the end refuse to allow all interest in this matter.

Fire in West Virginia Charleston, W.
