All But Two Were Hurt More or Less-A Broken Fish Plate on a Steep Curve Sent Two Passenger Cars and a Box Car Down Steep Embankment and Across Ditch.

(Special to The Evening Times.) High Point, N. C., March 5. - This morning a few minutes past nine o'clock, a serious wreck occurred on the Asheboro division of the Southern at the eight mile post from High Point and one mile this side of Glenola. The wreck was caused by a broken fish plate, which broke a rail, and it occurred in a steep curve. Two passenger coaches with some twenty passengers and one box car went down the high embankment and fell across a ditch. The seriously
