POWELL WINS IN PHOSPHATE CASE

Supreme Court Holds He Exercised Precaution

A NEW TRIAL ORDERED

Court Holds That His Statement In Defense Should Have Been Considered.—Not Required To Have "Soft Drink" Analyzed.—Power of Mayors Pro Tem Upheld In Monroe Case.—List Of Opinions.

In a batch of opinions in ten cases delivered by the supreme court last evening the one of most public interest was State vs. Powell from Robeson county, in which the defendant was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine for selling intoxicating liquors at Lumberton. The opinion is by Associate Justice Connor, and orders a new trial in the case. Powell sold a "phosphate" which it was charged and was shown to be intoxicating. Powell's plea was that he bought the liquor on a guarantee that it was not an intoxicant, a statement from the revenue department to that effect being shown him; that as soon as it was evident that it was an intoxicant, less than a day after it was placed on sale, he stopped selling it and returned the whole lot to the manufacturer. This evidence in defense the trial judge refused to admit, ordering a special verdict of guilty on the testimony of the witness who swore to having bought the "phosphate" and became intoxicated from it, and imposed the fine.

Powers of Mayors Pro Tem.
In State vs. Henry Thomas from Monroe the court, Associate Justice Walker writing the opinion, holds that mayors pro tem have full power to perform all the functions of mayor in the absence of that officer or his inability to discharge the duty. At Monroe, Davis Armfield, as mayor pro tem, had issued a warrant for Henry Davis for resisting an officer. In the defense the validity of a warrant by a mayor pro tem was brought in question on the ground that these officials in North Carolina towns could only "preside over meetings" and were not clothed with the judicial or magisterial function conferred by the legislature on mayors. The trial judge held with the defense and the state appealed with the result the supreme court reverses the finding of the lower court, holding that mayors pro tem have the judicial and all other powers exercised by the mayors whom they represent.

A Novel Issue Settled.
In State vs. Richard Perkins from Union county no error was found in the trial below in which Perkins was convicted and sentenced for selling liquor and keeping liquor for sale. A novel feature of this case was that the offense was committed during 1904 and the indictment issued at the July term, 1905, whereas a new and more drastic law by the 1905 legislature for Union county went into effect July 1. The defense set up the plea that the law for the violation of which he was indicted, had been superseded by the law becoming effective July 1. Therefore, his counsel moved to quash the bill and arrest judgment.

In the opinion just delivered the supreme court held that the act of 1905 was not repealed by the act of 1905; that the 1905 law was only more drastic and severe than the 1902 law and the legislature could not have intended to extend pardon to violators of the same class as those for whom in future they were preparing more severe punishment but who had not yet been brought to justice.

The full list of opinions delivered follows:

Cameron vs. Hicks from Wayne, new trial; State vs. Powell from Robeson, new trial; Davis vs. Kerr, Bladen, affirmed; State vs. Perkins, Union, no error; State vs. McWhorter, Union, new trial; State vs. Thomas, Union, new trial; Miller vs. Railroad, Anson, no error; Main vs. Griffin Moore, new trial; Buchanan vs. Harrington, Moore, new trial; State vs. Melton, Anson, per curiam, no error.

DIZZY?

Are you dizzy? Does your head swim? Do your eyes blur? Is your stomach sick? In women, these symptoms are often signs of disordered nervous system, or of liver or heart trouble, brought on by carelessness in regulating the menstrual functions. These functions are even more important to women than the bowel functions to either sex. Even if there is no stoppage, still, a gentle, cleansing, menstrual draught should be taken now and then—every doctor will tell you so. Otherwise the menstrual blood will decay inside you, and will be absorbed into your system, causing such pain and suffering as will make you lose all interest in life.

To cure yourself, take woman's best and safest remedy, menstrual cleanser, tonic and pain reliever, is the old, reliable, time-tested medicine, which, for over 70 years, has been a household word in America, viz:

Wadesboro News.
(Special to The Evening Times.)
Wadesboro, N. C., April 4.—Early yesterday morning the boarding house and furniture of Maj. T. A. Ingram was entirely destroyed by fire. The occupants escaped very thinly clad. The building, being one of the oldest in the place, burned rapidly which made it impossible to save anything. Maj. Ingram is advanced in years, and in feeble health, therefore, it is a great loss to him, as there was only a small amount of insurance.

The fire company did noble work to save the Martini drug store and Dr. J. M. Covington's office.

Mr. Wilson P. Covington has returned from Johns Hopkins Hospital, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Allen, Miss Louis Covington and his brother, Dr. F. P. Covington of Florence, S. C. Mr. Covington's friends are numbered by the score and all are deeply grieved to know of his serious state of health.

Little Walter Leak Richardson, aged fifteen months, is beyond all hope of recovery with tubercular meningitis. The father died about one month ago with consumption. Mrs. Richardson has the sympathy of the community in her great affliction.
