tion Dispensary Scandals for Whole Year Beginning to Be Opened Up To View--Baltimore Whiskey Man Told Lewis Parker That He Had Paid Member of Roard $1,500 and Still Could Get No Business as the Member's other House.

(Special to the Evening Times.) Columbia, S. C., June 7.--The greatest sensation of all in dispensary matters was spring after the dispensary investigating committee adjourned today when Governor Heyward authorized the attorney general to prosecute former members of the board for malfeasance in office. The parties meant are H. H. Evans, L. W. Boykin and J. B. Towill, This is evidence that the people of the state are aroused by the revelations, Governor Heyward tells Attorney General Youmans that law must be vindicated.
