SUMMER SCHOOL GREAT SUCCESS

67 Counties of the State Represented

ENROLLMENT WAS 753

It is Now a Permanent Institution—Financially It Paid Expenses, With a Small Balance Over—Success Due For Most Part to President Joyner and Secretary Parker.

The North Carolina summer school of 1906 closed yesterday after a session that was universally admitted to be the most successful ever held in the state. Although the attendance in numbers was not so large as it has been, the management, courses of study and interest were all far better than ever before.

The total enrollment was 753, including 127 visitors and 626 teachers, not including students in the special music, art and elocution departments.

No less than sixty-seven counties were represented, which is far more than at any previous summer school. One county furnishing ten or more teachers enrolled were Edgecombe 11, Gates 16, Halifax 15, Beaufort 16, Craven 18, Pitt 22, Rockingham 11, Vance 12, Wake 142, Warren 10, Lenoir 10, Alamance 10, Franklin 10, Granville 10.

An interesting and significant fact in this connection is that it may be noticed that as a rule these counties having many local tax districts and longer school terms had also more teachers anxious to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the summer school for the attainment of greater efficiency in their work.

Three states outside of North Carolina were represented also—Virginia with 9, South Carolina with 3, Georgia with 1.

As to the business end of the undertaking the summer school paid all expenses and obligations, and there is a small balance in the hands of President J. G. Brown of the Citizens National Bank as treasurer of the permanent summer school organization, to be applied to the expenses of the next school held, for it is a permanent institution. That much at least is settled. The marked success of this year's school insures its future existence.

To its president, State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, and its secretary and general manager, Charles J. Parker, belongs the credit of that success. The work was well planned and as well executed. Superintendent Joyner was personally on the grounds practically all of his time, looking after the work carefully and in detail, that is, the professional side of it, for which he assumed the entire responsibility, while Mr. Parker gave his attention to the business and financial side of the work, in which his executive ability and experience were never better demonstrated.

For the first time at the summer school there was some definite system of discipline on the grounds. A set of reasonable and sensible rules were promulgated and maintained, and that they were not unpopular is shown by the fact that the teachers in meeting drew up and adopted a set of resolutions expressing their appreciation of the management and conduct of the school throughout.

One of the managers of the school stated to a reporter of The Evening Times today that a false report had been circulated, either ignorantly or maliciously, he did not know which, to the effect that visitors to the grounds were required to pay for a visitor's ticket. As a matter of fact, young men or anyone else could secure permission to call upon teachers stopping at the college by simply filing their names with the chaperone in charge of the building and securing a visitor's ticket from the secretary registrar, which cost nothing whatever. The only purpose of the management in establishing these rules and prosecuting offenders was to establish the right to enforce such necessary and reasonable rules for the control of the grounds and premises as were demanded for the protection of the hundreds of young women who were at the summer school.

Music Festival Last Night.

The climax last night of the North Carolina Music Festival in the Academy of Music enthused a big audience and marked an epoch in the musical history of the state and emphasized the service rendered by Mr. Wade R. Brown in popularizing a love and appreciation of true music in the capital city.

Mr. Brown, who conceived and organized the music festival, was very ably assisted last night by Mr. W. A. White of the Syracuse University and Miss Elizabeth D. Burt of the Baptist University for Women.

The program was a long one, beginning with an overture by the orchestra, Don Juan, by Mozart. Here the work of Mr. White as a director was fully demonstrated.

Mr. George C. Carrie followed in an aria, Cujus Animam (Stabat Mater) by Rossini. Mr. Carrie went up to the high D flat, a remarkably high note for any voice. He fascinated the audience.

The next number was an aria, Ah! Rendimi (Mitrane), by Rossi, sung by Miss Grace Munson, whose low timbre notes resembled the deep tones of a viola.

The Morris Dance and the Torch Dance from the incidental music to Gorman's Henry VIII, by the orchestra, elicited vociferous applause.

Miss Effie Stewart, in a splendidly selected group of songs, delighted her audience.

Mr. Edwin Wilson received quite an ovation. With the chorus and accompanied by the orchestra, he sang the Dio Possente and Soldiers' Chorus, by Gounod. It had to be repeated.

Another number that captivated was the waltz from Faust, by Gounod, given by the chorus and orchestra.

Other numbers were: A Summer Time Cycle, by Ronald—a very difficult group of songs—by Miss Munson; Gondoleira, by Helmut, So Fair and Pure, by Dennee, and My Dreams, by Tosti—by Mr. Carrie, who received a double encore; the Andante con Moto from First Symphony, Beethoven, by the orchestra; an aria from Le Cid, Massenet—by Miss Stewart; a group of Schumann's songs—by Mr. Wilson; The Heavens are Telling, from Haydn's great oratorio from the Creation.

Miss Elizabeth D. Burt attracted much attention by her remarkably excellent accompaniments.

CHILDREN AND MOTHER BURNED

Terrible Fate of a Family in Indiana

FATHER ONLY ESCAPED

His Escape Due to Accident—All Others in Home at the Time Perished—Mother Burned While Assisting Father in Attempt to Rescue Their Six Children.

(By the Associated Press.)

Lafayette, Ind., July 7.—Mrs. Solomon Gobba and her six children were burned to death last night in a fire that destroyed their home here. Solomon Gobba, the husband and father was badly burned, but will recover.

The dead:

Mrs. Sarah Gobba, aged 35.
Rachel, aged 16.
Freeman, aged 12.
Guy, aged 10.
Marquis, aged 8.
Edith, aged 5.
Brooks, aged 2.

The fire originated from the kitchen stove. The father was called out, and on going into the back yard discovered the kitchen in flames. He awakened his wife and together they rushed up the stairs to rescue the children who were sleeping in an upper room. Both were overcome by smoke. Gobba managed to stagger to the window and in his efforts to break it open fell through to the ground below, sustaining painful injuries, while the mother and six children perished in the flames. Four of the children were cremated outright, and the others were suffocated. One daughter, Bessie, aged 11, who had been in a neighbor's home spending the evening escaped. Gobba was removed to the hospital.

PRESIDENT PRAISES ARMY MARKSMEN

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, July 7.—In a letter to Acting Secretary Oliver, President Roosevelt has expressed his gratification at the remarkable progress that is being made by the enlisted men of the army in marksmanship. Before the Spanish War the American private soldier was admittedly the finest shot in the world. The addition of the large number of volunteers had the effect of greatly reducing the average of the riflemen. But since the re-organization following the war every effort has been made to stimulate interest in marksmanship, and the result is that today the average is probably as high if not higher than it was at the beginning of the war.

The figures laid before the president that elicited his approval showed that in 1905 there were in the whole army 55 expert riflemen, 349 sharpshooters and 500 marksmen, as the various grades are known technically. In the following year these figures had increased to 464 expert riflemen, 1,429 sharpshooters and 2,484 marksmen. Now it is shown that last year the record stood 596 expert riflemen, 3,371 sharpshooters and 5,436 marksmen.

General Oliver attributes the improvement in large part to the fact that congress has allowed an increase of pay of three dollars per month in the case of expert riflemen, two dollars for sharpshooters and one dollar for marksmen.
