MORE THAN TWENTY KILLED ON SEABOARD THROWN IN JAIL

Freight and Passenger Trains Collide Head-on Near Hamlet.

TWU SCORE INJURED MOSTLY NEGROES

Failure of Operator At Rockingham To Hold No. 44 From Charlotte Caused Worst Disaster In History Of The Road-Heavy Freight Crashed Into Local, Killing And Maiming Every Person In Second Class Coach, Which Telescoped, And Several Members Of The Crew-Death List Incomplete-Many Victims Thought To Have Been Burned in The Debris-Long List Of Wounded, Some of Whom Will Die-Story Of The Wreck.

A collision between a freight and regular mall on the Scaboard Air Line at 8:40 last night three miles south of ton Hamlet resulted in the death of four of the trainmen and sixteen others and known. injured 24. The bodies of the dead arbeing prepared for burial at Hamlet N. C. and Rockingham while the injured Liz have been removed to Charlotte and placed in the hospital there. The wreck was due to the failure of the regular passenger train to receive orders at Rockingham.

The freight was an extra, engine No. 683, and was south bound from Raleigh to Monroe. It was manned by Conductor Hunter and Engineer Bundy, of this city. Conductor Hunter is not reported hurt and Engineer Bundy is very slightly injured.

The unfortunate mail train was No

44, running from Charlotte to Wilmington. This train was in charge of Conductor John D. Bowen, formerly of Raleigh and a brother of Capt. J. J. Bowen of the Southern Express Company here. He was slightly injured. Engineer Frank Levels of Hands. Fig. Engineer Frank Lewis of Hamlet, Firman Tom Hill of Hamlet, and Baggage Master H. S. Byrd of Wilming-ton and Porter Wat Bogan of Wadesboro of the crew of this ill fated train were all killed. The baggage car and the second class coach on the passenger train eight cars of the freight were derailed and some of them piled upon other ears anti crushed to pieces.

The collision was caused by failure of the passenger train, No. 44, to get a train order placed at fockingham.
Why this order was not given to No. 44 is not known and will be mattered. 41 is not known and will be subject to investigation by the superintendent of the road. It is stated here that the operator at Rockingham is an exper-ienced man and has been a faithful and careful employe of the company for several years. When news of the disaster reached here last night Supt. Jenks went immediately to the secue. the bodies of the dead.
