S. A. L. EXCEPTIONS IN LUMBER CASE. The Seaboard Air Line Railroad Co. in filing exceptions to the recent order of the corporation commission for the Seaboard and the Raleigh and Charleston railroads to join in the erection of a union station at Lumberton, declares that the commission is without jurisdiction to make such an order, that the order is in violation of the fifth and the fourteenth amendments to the constitution and also in violation of the United States Constitution in that they compel the Seaboard to enter into a contract with another railroad company, thereby invading their inviolable right of contract. The answer declares that for these reasons the order is "unreasonable and arbitrary and unjust."
