

PREPARING FOR TRIAL MONDAY

Murderers of Lyerly Family in Rowan Court

KILLED WHILE BATHING

Fatal Result Of a "Dare"—Slayer Committed To Jail To Be Tried For His Life—As To The Location Of Salisbury's New Government Building—Interest In The Trial Monday Is Great.

(Special to the Evening Times.)
Salisbury, N. C., August 4.—Sheriff Julian will bring the Lyerly murderers from Charlotte Monday morning and Solicitor Hammer comes tomorrow night. Every precaution is being thrown around the black wretches and when they are landed in jail there will be a strong force of deputies to defend them.

The lynching fever has not seemed to abate much with the days, but the spirit of mobocracy kept up a long time and for days the storming of the Charlotte jail was a much mooted question. Nearly a thousand dollars was raised to defray the expenses of a mob that would go to Charlotte.

The officers anticipate no trouble now, however, and will be ready to meet any emergency.

At a preliminary hearing here John Brooks, a colored man of 20, was bound over to court on a charge of killing Ed Hampton, a boy about 16. The boys had been out to the creek, two miles from the city, and were in swimming.

Both had guns and in a bantering way began to dare each other to shoot. Finally Brooks blazed away at Hampton and killed him instantly. He then fled, but was caught at his home in Salisbury in a colored suburb known as Dixonville.

He made no attempt to escape and readily went with the officers. It seems to have been carelessness, purely, and the negro was badly frightened. He will very likely be tried for his life at the next term of court.

The public building site secured by the efforts of Senator Overman is a magnificent one but next week the commissioners of the county will offer a beautiful location upon which sits the county jail, the prettiest lot in the town. There is hardly any other available spot in Salisbury, and it is the universal sentiment that the jailyard should be chosen.

STRIKE SITUATION STILL UNCHANGED.

There has been no change whatever in the carpenters' strike situation. The men declare they will hold out to the end, and no proposition has come from either side.

General Organizer Griffin said this morning that the strikers would be taken care of in case their funds gave out. He assured the reporter for The Evening Times that they would not starve. There is nothing to arbitrate or compromise, he says, and the determination is to hold out until their demands are complied with.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of a "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their medicines regularly yet I felt no better. My stomach trouble began to improve only after I began to take the doctor's medicine. She brought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I can never cease to like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done through around the black wretches and when they are landed in jail there will be a strong force of deputies to defend them.

NEW $200,000,000 WABASH BOND ISSUE

(By the Associated Press.)
New York, Aug. 4.—Winslow S. Pierce of the law firm of Pierce and Greer, which has in charge negotiations looking to the creation of a new bond issue of $200,000,000 for the Wabash Railroad, sailed for Europe today on the steamship St. Louis.

Mr. Pierce would not discuss reports that while abroad he would confer with George J. Gould who is now on the continent, regarding the proposed bond issue. It was reported that Mr. Pierce will endeavor to get European financiers to take a portion of the bonds, but he declined to have anything to say in this direction.

BEST MAN INDICTED

Charged With Perjury In Getting License

Charge Against William Love By William Jones, Father of the Bride—License Was For Ella Jones to W. H. Wilson—Trial at Garner This Afternoon.

Mr. W. H. Penny, deputy register of deeds, went to Garner this morning to testify in the preliminary trial of William Love on the charge of perjury in that he swore a girl was eighteen years old in procuring from the office of the register of deeds in this city a license for her marriage to a friend of his.

It was on June 24 that Love came to Raleigh and procured the license for the marriage of Miss Ella Jones to Mr. Willie H. Wilson. The couple were married that day. It was a runaway match, the father being bitterly opposed to the wedding. Now the late father presents a warrant against William Love, the "best friend" of the groom, charging him with perjury in swearing that the girl was of lawful age when she was not.

It is understood that the defense set up by the young man is that he only swore to the best of his information and belief that she was eighteen and that he did have what he considered good reasons to believe that he was testifying to facts.

The trial is being held this afternoon before Justice of the Peace J. D. Johnson.

GOV. PATTISON HELPS STUDENTS.

(By the Associated Press.)
Batavia, O., Aug. 4.—The will of the late Governor Pattison has been filed for probate. It gives one thousand dollars to the Ohio Wesleyan University for a fund in aid of indigent students, and a like sum to the village of Milford to aid in establishing a library. The remainder of the estate goes to his widow and three children equally, except that the widow is given the home at Milford and $10,000 for keeping it in order. His affection for his home is shown in the will by the expression of a wish that the home may be kept as a home for his children.

CONFEDERATE REUNION.

General Order for Reunion at Morehead August 22-23.
Headquarters N. C. Division United Confederate Veterans, Durham, N. C., July 30, 1906.

Paragraph 1. The Major General commanding hereby announces that the next annual reunion of the North Carolina Division of the United Confederate Veterans will be held at Morehead City on the 22nd and 23rd days of August, 1906.

Paragraph 2. The railroad companies have given the low rate of one cent a mile, tickets to be on sale on the 20th, 21st and 22nd, with final limit August 27th. Inquire of the local agent the price of a ticket from any station. The price of a round-trip ticket from Raleigh will be $3.15. The rate of $1.50 will be given by the Atlantic Hotel to those Veterans who wish to stay there. The Governor has offered the use of the tents and camp equipment of the National Guard to the Veterans who desire to camp out. Those who stay at the encampment must provide their own bedding and rations, but they can have the use of the cooking utensils at the camp. This is called to the special attention of the Veterans so that they may be certain to provide their own rations while in camp. For further information as to quarters, etc., at the camp apply to Lieutenant Colonel W. E. Cary, Morehead City, N. C., who is the assistant quarter-master General of the National Guard now encamped there. The camp will be ready for occupancy on Tuesday, the 12th day of August, and the Veterans can have the use of it all the week if they desire.

Confederate Veterans of Wake county who will attend this encampment are requested to notify me on or before Saturday, August 11th.
A. B. STRONACH, Commander L. O. B. Branch Camp, No. 515, U. C. V's.

SUMMER PLEASURES AT CHASE CITY.

(Special to the Evening Times.)
The Mecklenburg, Chase City, Va., Aug. 4.—In the very laudable attempt to find a new way of saying old things, the learned ones, we notice, in disposing of the obtrusive and disagreeable subject of the weather during the past few weeks have been speaking daintily of the "Reign of St. Swithin" and deploring the fact that his righteous indignation should have taken a form so upsetting to the "best laid plans of mice and men." The Mecklenburg begs to announce that it too has come under the ban of the good saint's general displeasure and has had as large a share of the "forty days curse" as if it alone had "disturbed the bones interred here." But the maledictions of all the good saints in the calendar are powerless against the spirits of the air and nothing daunted, the pleasures and gaieties, indoors and out, during the past week have gone merrily on. Decidedly the most popular out-of-door amusement at present is horseback riding, and sometimes twice a day large parties go out for a delightful gallop, which the excellent mounts of the stables here afford. More zest is given to these outings when they have the exciting accompaniment of Colonel Hughes, his horn and hounds, the test of whose keen scent and fine running give a delightful foretaste of the good time coming this autumn when there will be a gathering of the clans at the famous meet. Those who are always in evidence on these lively occasions are Col. and Mrs. Hughes, Miss Blount of Montgomery, Ala., Miss Hanes of Winston-Salem, Miss Whitley, Newport News, Miss Barham of Newsoms, Mrs. W. C. Foley of Newport News, Miss Bagley of Jackson, N. C., Miss Anderson of Hanover, Dr. Edmunds of The Mecklenburg, and Messrs. Jointstone and Davis of Norfolk, and Messrs. Hyson and Rosenthal of Baltimore, Webb of Durham, Doran and Tedy of Norfolk, Thorp of Rocky Mount, N. C., Miss Pauline Duncan of Chatham, Va., a very attractive member of the young set, entertained her friends by a bowling party on Saturday morning and proved a delightful hostess, especially for one so young. Miss Eric Lee of Greensboro, N. C., received the first ladies' prize and Mr. Robert S. Jointstone of Norfolk gained the corresponding honor among the men. The booby prizes fell, respectively, to Miss Jones of Chase City and Mr. John Sizor of Richmond.

The other guests of Miss Duncan were Miss Britt of Oxford, N. C., Miss Spalmer of Petersburg, Miss Hanes of Winston-Salem, Miss Vaughan of Murfreesboro, N. C., Miss Broadbent, High Point, N. C., Miss Simmons of Raleigh, Miss Ayres, Mrs. Whitaker of Raleigh, Dr. Edmunds of the Mecklenburg, and Messrs. Hobbs of N. Y., E. J. Doran, E. T. Davis and Marvin Davis, Harry Davis, Norfolk, D. H. Dixon of Goldsboro, and Mr. R. A. D'Arne of Danville. The party was chaperoned by Miss W. T. Hughes of the Mecklenburg.

The ever popular and high-hearted Polk Miller and his famous quartette gave one of their inimitable entertainments on Tuesday evening in the Chase City town hall for the benefit of the Southside Academy. A large and enthusiastic crowd greeted them and a very encouraging sum was realized. Mr. Miller was a guest of the Mecklenburg during his stay and the quartette gave a delightful concert on Wednesday morning in the ball room of the hotel. The selections were as enjoyable as they were characteristic, especially the "Laughing Song" which Mark Twain called "The Musical Earthquake."

The lobby of the hotel was the scene Wednesday evening of another impromptu vaudeville for "Sweet Charity's Sale," and besides giving pleasure to the guests helped a worthy cause and proved that among the Mecklenburgs genius is always "on tap." Those who contributed to the program by song and dance and story were: Miss Barham of Newsoms, Va., Miss Hanes of Winston-Salem, Miss Anderson of Hanover, Dr. Edmunds of Mecklenburg, and Messrs. Hyson, Thorp and the orchestra whose beautiful music is always a feature.

The young set is a particularly attractive one at present and has added to its list in Miss Vann of Franklin, who is considered to have the handsomest gowns here and to wear them most gracefully, and in Miss Hanes of Winston-Salem, who is a delightful all-around girl. Miss Hanes, besides her excellence as a horsewoman and her vivacity and grace of person, has a very sweet and musical voice with which she is most congenial in giving pleasure to the guests here.

Dr. Herbert O. Faires, formerly of Richmond now of Jetersville, spent Wednesday here.

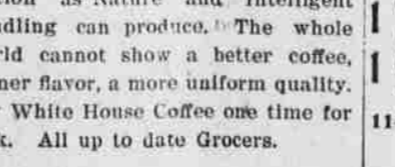

Quite a large party from the Buffalo-Lithia Springs returned the compliment which our guests have been paying that popular resort by frequent visits there, and spent a day with us last week, declaring themselves thoroughly pleased with the Mecklenburg.

Dr. W. D. Foushee of Richmond College, spent the day here Monday en route to his home in North Carolina.

The register shows a list of one hundred and fifty new names during the past week, among whom are a large party from Norfolk and representatives from all parts of the country; and the reservations for August indicate that it will be the fullest month of the season.
