ORDER PREVAILS AT SALISBURY

No Attempt Made to Liberate Lynchers

HEAVY GUARD ON DUTY

The Prospects Are For No More Mob Law At Present—Authors of Incendiary Utterances in Public Arrested by Police—Position and Temper of Judge Long—Story of Situation and Developments.

While grave fears were entertained that trouble would break out again at Salisbury last night the town was comparatively quiet. No attempt was made to liberate George Hall, in jail there as a leader of the mob, and the presence of troops had a pacifying effect. The troops will remain until all danger is over.

News from Greensboro was alarming, the report having been circulated that the negro, Bohannon, charged with the murder of a foreman on the Southern Railway, would be lynched. The authorities took every precaution, however, and the mob did not appear.

At Salisbury every effort is being made to apprehend the lynchers. (Special to the Evening Times.) Salisbury, N. C., Aug. 8.—Fearing that the mob would resent the arrest of George Hall, notorious lawbreaker and a loudmouthed member of the mob that lynched the Gillespies and Jack Dillingham, the sheriff, obeying the instructions of Governor Glenn and Judge Long, called for the Charlotte and Statesville military companies last night. Their coming took all the curious out and there was a good sized army of perfectly peaceable people here when Charlotte's men left No. 12.

Various rumors had set the law respecters on their guard. Though no importance was attached to the story told in a hundred tortures and twists, the belief by some of the mob that Deputy J. H. Krider, nominee for sheriff of Rowan county was the man who shot Engineer McLendon, caused many of his friends to fear for him. There was talk all over the city that the mob would be back to lynch Krider and release Hall, who was one of their most hated men. There is no evidence that Krider did shoot at any time, much that he did not. But every precaution was necessary and the determination of any mob to lynch Hodge Krider would have meant death to the first who tried it. Then Judge Long had heard that the investigation of the lynchers would be stopped and he has determined that nothing shall interrupt the court.

The first show of disrespect last night was promptly checked. After the soldiers were placed in the jail lot Mayor Boyden addressed the curious crowd and told them that Governor Glenn had sent General Armfield here to preserve order and that he wanted everybody to disperse. "God knows," he continued, "that I don't want to see a repetition of that disgraceful affair of last night and I don't want to see any mob here tonight. These men are here to preserve order, and if there is any advance upon that jail somebody is going to be hurt." A mouthy chap who had listened to the big talk of the mob last night chirped in that he did not mind anything like that. This made the mayor mad and he replied: "You don't! Well, you are a very foolish man, though I don't know who you are. General Armfield I order that man arrested and let us stop this foolishness right here." It was pitiful to see the miserable coward unmasked and frightened half to death, lying like a Cretan. Two were locked up and that was the first and only disrespect of the night.

announcement pending investigations of the grand jury. The probability is that the court cannot make an investigation this afternoon and I desire to say a few words before adjournment. That jail (he pointed towards it) was invaded by a mob last night and it has gone out upon the wings of electricity that Rowan county has allowed a mob to break open this prison and commit murder. It has gone out that the citizens of this county permitted this to be done. I think this is a mistake. The representative citizens of this county had nothing to do with it. They are not responsible but they will be responsible for the recurrence of a similar outrage.

The court hears that idlers on the street are determined that the processes of this court will be interfered with further. I, therefore, deem it proper to proclaim that the square next to the jail shall be kept clear and give warning to men whose children have been on the streets here to keep them away. That jail shall be protected and its prisoners. I have instructed the mayor to keep that street clear and men in groups or singly shall be kept out. There shall not be any excuse for anybody's going there and the man who does it goes at his peril. I have felt it my duty to clear my skirts so that nobody can say that he was taken by surprise.

"Last night I heard and saw a number of boys hooting and hollering at that jail. There may have been good men in it, and if there were I don't want them to get hurt. The sheriff is instructed to use force and to summon all the deputies needed to carry out the law. He has the right to summon any man for help in this work, and if he refuses to serve, he is guilty of a crime. The men stationed there are ordered to use force if necessary to repel force and enough to prevent any violence to anybody in that jail."

The attitude of Judge Long has changed entirely since Monday. His defiant good humor had all the seeming of seriousness, but there is not on his whole countenance the suggestion of a smile. He was completely outraged by the mob and their disobedience caused him agony throughout the day. When he said dramatically yesterday: "God Almighty reigns and the law of the land is still supreme, the same inflexibility of purpose was written in his face. He will make it hot for the murderers if caught."

The city has plenty of men who are willing to risk their lives in the upholding of the representatives of the state. When there was a search for men who will stand by the officers several citizens volunteered their services and were on duty all the night.

A second arrest was made near midnight when a drunken rowdy jumped the fence and brandishing his arms, said he didn't give a d—m for the soldiers, would talk all he d—m pleased, go where he d—d pleased and would shoot the heart out of any man who tried to arrest him. The soldiers paid no attention to him, but the chief of police arrested him.

The first show of disrespect last night was promptly checked. After the soldiers were placed in the jail lot Mayor Boyden addressed the curious crowd and told them that Governor Glenn had sent General Armfield here to preserve order and that he wanted everybody to disperse. "God knows," he continued, "that I don't want to see a repetition of that disgraceful affair of last night and I don't want to see any mob here tonight. These men are here to preserve order, and if there is any advance upon that jail somebody is going to be hurt." A mouthy chap who had listened to the big talk of the mob last night chirped in that he did not mind anything like that. This made the mayor mad and he replied: "You don't! HIS WILD CAT FINANCIERING

Stensfield's Methods Have Startled Chicago

DEPOSITORS HOPELESS

Woe-Begone Crowd Hangs Around the Wrecked Bank—How the Bank Was Looted—More Than 20,000 Poor Families Impoverished—Loans Made On Real Estate In Excess of Actual Value— Rank Forgeries.

(By the Associated Press.) Chicago, Aug. 8.—"Wild cat" real estate financing by Paul O. Stensfield in his Irving Park subdivision, will be disclosed, it was predicted today, as soon as J. E. Foster, receiver for the wrecked Milwaukee State Bank checks up on the mortgages and notes given by hundreds of investors who hung on to the "bubble" let loose by the missing bank president.

A slump in value at this time, which it is feared will come, would cause much suffering and loss to owners. It has been learned that loans have been made on houses in that subdivision up to within 50 per cent. of their top market value. The cash came from the savings of depositors of the suspended bank.

Scores of houses were constructed in the subdivision which were declared, when building, to be too expensive for the character of the section. Loan houses were told at the time that if they did not care to take the security Paul O. Stensfield stood ready to furnish the money and at a low rate of interest.

Today a woe-begone crowd of depositors continued to crowd around the bank. As on previous days the unfortunate, mostly working people, came early and seemed determined to remain indefinitely. Police were on hand to repress any tendency toward disorder.

The Chicago Tribune says: "A state of affairs more startling and shocking than had been hinted previously in connection with the collapse of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank was revealed last night when it became plain that through bare-faced forgery President Paul O. Stensfield had plundered his own bank systematically through a period of years.

"The question arose whether Cashier Henry W. Herring profited to any large extent by this plundering. His friends say he did not, though acknowledging that he may have had knowledge of what Stensfield was doing.

Jones today. Henry W. Herring, the missing cashier, who was declared to be an embezzler of large sums of money, is being in a measure exonerated because of the lack of direct proof against him.

EVIDENCE WAS NOT SUFFICIENT.

(By the Associated Press.) Union, S. C., Aug. 8.—David L. English, of Hartsville, S. C., J. Richards English and two negroes, John Sarton and John Renwick, charged with the murder of Mose Hughes, whose body was found in the Tiger River June 7th, were discharged today on the ground of insufficient evidence.

IN THE PEN. TO AVOID LYNCHING

(Special to the Evening Times.) Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 8.—The three negroes, Frank Bohannon, Kid and Oscar Critchfield, in jail here for the alleged murder of Benjamin last week, were brought before Justice of the Peace and waived examination and were recommitted without bond.

NEGRO SLASHES HIS EMPLOYER

Parties from Wendell in the city this afternoon tell of a serious cutting affair there today shortly after noon. It appears that a negro named Lou Todd slashed a white farmer named Judd Jones about a mile below the town of Wendell.

Todd was working for Mr. Jones, and was told to carry some water to the other hands on the place. Todd with an oath swore that he was not going anywhere. Mr. Jones then told him to get off the place, that he had no further need for him. Todd repeated that he would not go anywhere, swearing all the time. Mr. Jones finally started toward him to put him out of the field when Todd drew a razor and cut his employer in two places on the left arm, under the left arm, on the left hip. Mr. Jones, badly cut as he was, grappled with the negro and seized the open razor with his right hand, getting four fingers nearly cut off. Todd then ran and got away.

Mr. Jones, bleeding from his many wounds, mounted his horse and rode the mile into Wendell, and when the parties telling the story left him he was having the wounds sewed up, while others were hunting for the escaped negro.

The cuts are severe ones, from 2 1/2 to 5 inches long.

GEN. ARMFIELD WANTED ORDERS

What Disposition to Make of Troops in Rowan

QUIET IN SALISBURY

Instructions From Governor To Confer With County Authorities And Retain Troops Through Tonight If Needed—Gov. Glenn Can't Understand Why Blank Cartridges Were Used.

Gen. J. F. Armfield, in command of the troops at Salisbury to protect the jail and hold any lynchers arrested, wired Governor Glenn this morning that he had 140 men under his command, and that all was quiet now. He asked the governor what disposition he must make of the troops.

Governor Glenn telegraphed him instructions to confer with the local authorities and if they thought it advisable, to hold the men over in Salisbury this afternoon and tonight. Otherwise to take steps to send the Charlotte and Statesville companies home. Up to a late hour this afternoon the governor had not been notified what action was taken.

In commenting on the lynching Governor Glenn said today that the negroes very much that the proper officers did not ask him for troops on Monday as they did on Tuesday as he could have gotten them there just as promptly. But he has to look to the officers for reports as to those matters. The sheriff had told him that the troops were not needed. Neither judge nor solicitor had intimated any need of troops and so the governor concluded that all would be quiet.

The governor says that even if he had known as late as 9 o'clock Monday night what the situation really was he could have gotten Charlotte and Greensboro troops there in ample time to prevent the lynching. But there was not a suggestion of danger until 11:30 Monday night and then within a half hour the negroes were lynched. But even in that short time the governor says he had gotten the Greensboro and the Charlotte troops under arms and at the depot ready to take the train for Salisbury.

The governor says he cannot understand why the military did not shoot and why blank cartridges were used, as the use of such cartridges on such occasions is a farce. In justice to the officers of Rowan county the governor says he feels sure that the reason he was not notified of the impending danger in time was that they were sincere in their belief that there was no danger until it was too late to prevent the disgraceful affair.

LEGISLATORS FIGHT IN GEORGIA CAPITOL

(By the Associated Press.) Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 8.—Representative Whiteley of Douglas county and Senator C. D. Hill of the criminal code of Fulton county, had a fight today on the floor of the house. They were separated by friends before either was seriously hurt. The fight is said to have grown out of remarks by Mr. Whiteley in the house yesterday. The fight was passed between the men today and blood followed.

ATTEMPT AT MUTINY SAILORS IN IRONS

(By the Associated Press.) Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 8.—It became known today that five marines are in double irons on board the receiving ship Lancaster at the League Island navy yard and ten sailors are under arrest as the result of a mutiny on Monday night in which two of the mutineers were badly injured.

soon under the influence of the intoxicant. While in this condition the men attempted to leave the yard and when halted attacked the corporal. The alarm whistle sounded and the men of the Lancaster quickly responded. A general fight ensued during which several shots were fired. Burnett, one of the right hand leaders had his throat cut and Kenzy's right arm was fractured. After nearly an hour of fighting the mutineers were subdued and the principals placed under arrest.

NEGRO PREACHERS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

(By the Associated Press.) London, Aug. 8.—It is being suggested that a small party of American negro preachers who have been advocating the Ethiopian propaganda, "Africa for the Africans," should be deported from South Africa. The government has not taken any action and it is a question whether it will. The agitation against the preachers has been revived by the recent trouble at Cape Town for which they are held by certain London papers to be partially responsible. They have made no secret of their mission to South Africa, advising the natives to use their efforts to secure black supremacy in that part of the world.

MISTOOK BROTHER FOR A BURGLAR.

(By the Associated Press.) Pensacola, Fla., Aug. 8.—Mistaking his brother-in-law for a burglar, J. E. Elliott shot and perhaps mortally wounded Robert Powell at Milton, Fla., yesterday. Elliott's home had recently been burglarized and he thought another attempt was being made when he heard his brother-in-law, who boarded with him, raising a window to get into the house at an early hour. He secured his revolver and getting near the window fired without investigation.

FAMOUS PHILA. PASTOR DEAD.

(By the Associated Press.) Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 8.—Rev. Dr. J. Addison Henry, pastor of the Princeton Presbyterian Church of this city, died today in Ashbury Park, N. J., where he had been ill for about a month. Owing to ill health Dr. Henry had been unable during the last two years to attend to his church duties. He was seventy-two years old and was one of the best known Presbyterian clergymen in this country. He served a term as moderator of the general assembly.

WIVES JOIN CHICAGO STRIKE.

(By the Associated Press.) Chicago, August 8.—The first family strike to be recorded in the labor movement in Chicago was ordered yesterday when 250 housewives voted to go to the aid of their husbands to win an increase in wages demanded by window-washers in large buildings downtown.

BOMB THROWN INTO DEPOT

(By the Associated Press.) Sosnowitz, Russian Poland, Aug. 8. A bomb was thrown today into a crowded waiting room at the railway station. One man was killed and many were wounded. A frightful panic ensued, resulting in injury to many other persons. Women fainting and children were trampled upon. The thrower of the bomb escaped.

CANNOT DEPORT THE SYRIAN LEPER

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Aug. 8.—No action will be taken by the United States government authorities concerning George Rossi, the Syrian leper, who, it was thought, might be a proper subject for deportation. Information has been received by Surgeon General Wyman of the marine hospital service, indicating that the man has been in this country about four years and that the disease of leprosy developed in him after two years.

CARPENTERS ARE LEAVING RALEIGH

Going to Other Towns in the State

ORGANIZING PAINTERS

Men of the Brush Have Applied for Charter—Central Labor Union to Meet Tonight—Six Men Have Gone to Henderson, Several to Mogganton, and Ten or Fifteen Will Go To Wilmington Tomorrow.

The striking carpenters are beginning to leave Raleigh and take work in other places. Six have already gone to Henderson, some have gone to Morganton and ten or fifteen will leave for Wilmington tomorrow. Most of these men are getting from fifty to seventy-five cents more in these places than they received in Raleigh. Three have gone to Apex. The strikers declare themselves as firm as ever in their determination not to go back to work under the old conditions. They say they will never do it if they all have to move from Raleigh, and General Organizer Griffin, speaking for the national organization, says they will be taken care of and not allowed to starve. It is stated that there is no possible chance of any union men coming here from other towns to take the places of Raleigh men. Mr. Griffin says that not a single man has thus far complained of remaining idle all this time.

General Organizer W. A. Davis, who was expected here to organize the painters, was prevented from reaching Raleigh and sent power of attorney to Mr. Griffin, who last night called together representatives of the Raleigh painters and effected a preliminary organization. Application was signed for a charter, and as soon as this is received permanent organization will then be in a position to give aid to the carpenters, if nothing more than an expression of moral support. The Central Labor Union of Raleigh will meet tonight. W. T. Barrow president, and some action is expected from them in the way of support. President Barrow is himself one of the striking carpenters, president of local union No. 630.

Mr. Barrow stated this morning that lumber had been secured since yesterday by parties employing striking carpenters, notwithstanding the edict of the lumber men and the other day they would not sell material to anyone employing union strikers on the wage scale demanded.

NO LET UP IN THE HOT WAVE.

(By the Associated Press.) Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 8.—There was little relief today from the intense heat and humidity from which this city has suffered since last Saturday. Two additional deaths occurred early in the day and the prostrations were numerous. The temperature was slightly lower than yesterday, registering 82 at 10 o'clock with 74 per cent humidity as against 67 per cent at the same hour yesterday.

New York, August 8.—There was some improvement today in the torrid weather in which New York sweated the first three days of the week. Clouds obscured the sun and fresh breezes cooled the atmosphere. At noon the death of one person was reported as a result of the heat. Five cases of prostrations were reported.

Georgia Convicts Escape. (By the Associated Press.) Valdosta, Ga., August 8.—A special from Milltown, Ga., says two negro convicts, "Bob" Henderson, serving a life sentence, and "Pete" Williams, serving a twenty-year term, escaped from the convict camp there today by boarding a locomotive and dashing down the track about four miles, where they abandoned the engine. They reversed the engine, sending it back to Milltown at the rate of forty miles an hour. It was stopped by sending it against a row of empty freight cars on a side track.
