A HIGH OFFICIAL SHOT IN HIS CAB

Governor-General of Warsaw the Victim

ESCAPE OF ASSASSIN

Previous to This Deed of Foul Murder Cabmen of Warsaw Had Been Warned by an Unknown Man Not to Drive Any Generals About the Warsaw Streets.

(By the Associated Press.)
Warsaw, Aug. 27.—General Von Liarlarski, acting military governor general of Warsaw, was shot and killed at 2 o'clock this afternoon while driving in a cab. The assassin escaped.

This morning an unknown man warned the cabmen of this city generally not to drive any of the generals.

General Von Liarlarski was the commander of the fifth army corps, stationed at Warsaw.

Details of Assassination.
General Von Liarlarski was driving in a carriage from the commandant's office to his residence. As the general's driver slackened speed at a place where the street was torn up for re-paving an unknown young man fired four shots at Von Liarlarski through the top of the carriage, one of the bullets entering the general's breast, under the heart.

The coachman whipped up his horses and drove at full speed to the hospital, where the general died almost instantly.

Von Liarlarski had only recently been appointed acting military governor of this city.

Reported Murder of Col. Rieman.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—A report reached here late this afternoon that Colonel Rieman of the Semenovskiy guard had been assassinated at Luga, where he stopped while on his way to Warsaw to take up a position on the staff of General Skalon, governor general of Warsaw. The report has not yet been confirmed though four officers of the Semenovskiy regiment are said to have left St. Petersburg today to identify the body.

STANDARD OIL SEEKS DISTILLING PLANTS.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 27.—Terre Haute distillers returned today from Chicago where the monthly meeting of both trust and independent distillers was held. It is stated by local owners of distilleries that attorneys for the Standard Oil Company have approached distillers asking them if they would entertain a proposition to buy their plants. Practically all have replied in the affirmative. It is the opinion of distillers here that the Standard made the overtures with the probable intention of engaging largely in the manufacture of denatured alcohol.

husband. She was previously sentenced to be hanged on September 3. Governor Folk granted the reprieve so that the woman's attorney might have time to perfect an appeal to the United States supreme court.

BAILEY DIES FRIDAY

Gallows Ready at New Bern for Murderer

Negro Will Be Sent From Goldsboro on Thursday, Where He Was Placed for Safe Keeping—Two Others Executed on Same Scaffold.

(Special to the Evening Times.)
New Bern, N. C., Aug. 27.—Preparations for the hanging of the negro murderer Bailey, which takes place next Friday, are being made. The scaffold has been received here and is borrowed from the sheriff of Jones county. It is the same gallows on which Cyrus Dixon, white, who killed Neber, and Alfred Daniels, who killed Furney Simmons, the father of Senator Simmons, were hanged. The execution will take place in the jail yard close under the room where he was tried. Sheriff Biddle has not yet decided on the exact time.

Bailey was taken to the Goldsboro jail for safe keeping, the jail here not being regarded as safe, since five prisoners made their escape from it about six months ago. He will be brought to New Bern Thursday night. Bailey is said to be indifferent to his fate. He is of a low order of intelligence and gave scarcely any interest in his trial at all, although his conduct on the witness stand proved him to be well versed in criminal trials. He told nothing that would incriminate himself and had the case not been so exasperating he could have cleared himself, for he had his facts well bunched.

ANOTHER TRIAL AT SALISBURY

Prisoners Mob Left Ready to Face Court

FOR LYERLY MURDER

The Case Against Alleged Lynchers Also on the Docket—Rowan Citizens Suspected Flee—Not Easy to Identify Lynchers as They Were Strangers, According to Report.

(Special to the Evening Times.)
Salisbury, N. C., August 27.—The regular term of Rowan superior court convened this morning with Judge Ferguson on the bench. Solicitor Hammer came in Saturday night and will have one of the busiest courts of his entire administration. In addition to the usual number of homicides, there are the cases against the lynchers and the remaining Gillespie, Dillingham and George Ervin negroes charged with the murder of the Lyerlys. All these will come up if Della Dillingham is able to come to trial.

The lynchers will be tried first. What day that will be set for, is not known now, but Solicitor Hammer has ten days' work and will reach the investigation in plenty of time. Gentle, now in the state penitentiary on a charge of murder, will be brought here sometime this week, but the date is not now certain. In fact, matters of this kind will not be so extensively published as before August the 6th. While there are daily inquiries as to whereabouts of the leaders and numberless suggestions offered about them, it is safe to say that unless someone possessed of strong facts come forward with testimony, there will be no more arrests.

There are two Rowan men who were known to have been in the mob. They have fled and unless they are apprehended there is hardly a likelihood of any more coming of the lynching investigation. The policy of the state will be against indicting men upon speculative or insufficient evidence. The mob was simply composed of strangers and there is nobody to identify them.

A man supposed to be W. J. Prusznicki, of Flushing, was found dead on the Rockaway Road, near Jamaica. He was stabbed through the heart. Two Italians have been arrested in Hoboken, suspected of the crime. No motive other than a possible street brawl is known.

Lewis Weimer, a machinist, was stabbed in the back in Madison Square Park by John Richards, a negro pickpocket, when the latter was detected in the act of robbing Weimer. Frederick Clark, a waiter, who went to Weimer's assistance, was slashed on the arm and hand. Weimer is seriously hurt. Richards was arrested.

REVOLUTION OF UNREASON

Palma Thus Characterizes the Movement

NO IDEAL, NO PROGRAM

Insurgents Repenting of the Actions May Return Within the Pale of Law, But the Insurrection Will Be Put Down By Force of Arms.

(By the Associated Press.)
Havana, August 27.—President Palma today gave out a statement in which he says that the insurrection has no ideals and no program and that the crisis which the insurgents raised do not constitute a program, ideal or a justification for the movement. Continuing the president says:

"All revolutions must have a program, as had our revolution for independence in 1895. Everybody at that time knew that the Cubans had revolted against Spain and had engaged in an open fight for the liberty of their country. The present movement is more of a local adventure—only a crazy movement on the part of discontented persons. There is no moral reason for it. The government could suspend the constitutional guarantees, but it prefers to maintain the vigor and hope of the people and avoid possible excesses.

"The medical force has been instructed to attend to all prisoners and to give wounded or sick insurgents the same attention as wounded or sick men belonging to the government forces. Any insurgent repenting of his action may return within the pale of the law and may not be molested. The government will have no petty spite or feeling of rancor against those who return to their senses and abandon the cause of disorder."

To Re-establish Peace With Arms.
President Palma is not disposed to employ any other method than that of arms for the re-establishment of peace. He declared energetically that the government here would absolutely never compromise with any form of disturbers of order. The government was legitimately constituted, was bound by its imperious duty and must demonstrate that it is stable and able to safeguard property, life and the happiness of the republic at present and in the future and any compromise would sow the seed of armed revolution throughout the country. Malcontents were always extant, it being impossible to find public positions for every one. To compromise with the disturbers now would result in further disturbance every few years. Suppressing the insurgents now will forevermore guarantee the stability of the Cuban institutions, while dickerings with them would expose their country to another disturbance of the peace in the near future."

"This is my firm resolution," President Palma declared, "and I shall maintain it at the cost of my life. I like to see my country and responsibilities to the people. Such is the only method of defending Cuba's institutions and civilization."

Senator Palma referred to his own sacrifices long years in the field, imprisonment and servitude while a member of the junta, and said:

"Poor I returned to my country as president and poor shall I return to private life. I shall, however, have a clear record and a good name. I am disposed to exhaust my forces and shed my blood if necessary in helping to strengthen the foundations of our prosperous republic."

Font Sterlind, secretary of the treasury asserts that the relentless pursuing of Mendita's force by Major Gomez on August 25 and 26 caused the former's followers to fall away rapidly until Mendita himself went to Santa Clara City, where he expected to find funds and allies.

Offers of Clemency.
General Montalvo, acting secretary of the interior, has issued an order, under the direction of President Palmer, instructing the government officials in the province of Pinar Del Rio, Havana, Mantanzas and Santa Clara to allow all insurgents who repent of their errors to go free to their homes, excepting insurgents who are prisoners in the hands of the government forces and captured commanders of insurgent bands who will be detained until the government determines whether they are to be allowed their freedom or are to be tried by the courts. All chiefs of insurgent bands who surrender.

RATE REFORM CHIEF ISSUE

Alabama Primary for Electing Full State Ticket

RACE FOR GOVERNOR

This is Between Lieutenant Governor Cunningham and R. B. Comer, President of the Railroad Commission—Morgan and Pettus For the Senate Have No Opposition.

(By the Associated Press.)
Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 27.—A general democratic primary is being held in Alabama today for the nomination of a full state ticket. Two United States senators, and two alternate United States senators. Congressional nominations are also being made in the fourth, seventh and ninth districts, the other six districts having made nominations last spring. These counties which did not name members of the legislature in the spring are doing so today. Sheriffs and certain other county officers are also nominated.

Chief interest centers in the race for governor between B. B. Comer, president of the state railroad committee, and Lieutenant Governor Russell M. Cunningham. Both are from this county.

The chief issue is railroad rate reform and regulation on which issue Mr. Comer was elected president of the road commission two years ago. Both candidates are advocates of this reform.

United States Senators John T. Morgan and Edmund W. Pettus have no opposition. There are seven aspirants for the two alternate senatorships, former Governor Joseph F. Johnston, former Governor William Oates, former Congressman Jesse F. Stallings, former Congressman R. Clark, former Attorney General W. C. Pitts, John R. Knox and Congressman John H. Bankhead.

(By the Associated Press.)

NEW SPELLING GOES Distinguished British Scholars Approve It

The Simplified Spelling Board Now Contains the Editions of the Three Chief English Dictionaries and Editions of Three American.

(By the Associated Press.)
New York, Aug. 27.—The simplified spelling board today announced that two distinguished British scholars had accepted membership to testify their sympathy with the new movement to improve English orthography. One is Dr. J. A. H. Murray, the senior editor of the great Oxford dictionary of the English language of which the associate editor is Henry Bradley, who joined the simplified spelling board some weeks ago. The other is Prof. Joseph Wright, editor of the English dialect dictionary. In announcing these elections Brander Matthews, chairman of the board said:

"Professor Skeat, the editor of the English etymological dictionary, became a member two months ago. The simplified spelling board now contains the editors of the three chief English dictionaries published in Great Britain. It had as original members the editors of the three chief American dictionaries, Webster, the Century and the Standard. The admission of the foremost linguistic authorities of both branches of the English-speaking race ought to be reassuring to those who have dreaded that the recommendations of the simplified spelling board might work harm to our noble tongue or to its etymology. It serves to show that those who know most about English spelling believe that it ought to be improved.

LIQUOR FIGHT IN BUNCOMBE.

(Special to the Evening Times.)
Asheville, N. C., Aug. 27.—The republicans of Buncombe county met here Saturday afternoon, nominated a straight county legislative ticket and adopted a platform demanding that the sale of liquor in Asheville be left to a vote of the county. This means that the campaign this year will be fought out on the whiskey question and that Asheville and the county will again be the scene of "boozie" agitation and turmoil. The democrats are standing by the Watts and the Ward laws. Col. V. S. Lusk was nominated by the republicans Saturday for the state senate and W. G. Candler and S. W. Radford for the house. Both Lusk and Candler served in the fusion legislature of 1897. The speech of Republican State Chairman Spencer B. Adams here Saturday was listened to by a good crowd of republicans.

Kentucky Girls Return from Tour of Europe

One of Them, Miss Lear, Says the Men on the Other Side Are an Ornerly Looking Lot—Glad to Return.

(By the Associated Press.)
New York, Aug. 27.—On board the steamer Finland, which arrived today from Antwerp, was a group of thirty-six young women who were sent aboard by the Louisville Courier Journal. The young women left New York on July 11, and had a month's tour in Europe.

Commenting on her trip Miss Mary Elizabeth Lear of Point Lick, Ky., said:

"It was all mighty fine, but I reckon we were glad that we came from America and were bound back there again. I liked Paris pretty good, but to me the most interesting places visited were the mountains of Scotland and the falls of the Rhine. Europe will be a great place when they wake up.

"In Paris we attracted some attention, and when we started to leave the Hotel Louvre one day we found a mob waiting for us. They expressed some displeasure over our personal appearance, but I don't blame them. They expected to see a great scene and a lot of beauties and all that, and we did not come up to their expectations. Some of the girls were rather offended, but I was not one of those.

"I was not much impressed with the men I saw on the other side. They were an ornerly looking lot. The women over there should come to this country for fine looking men. They ought to come down 'o Kentucky, for we have got some right smart men in that state.

"You hear a great deal about the French men but they do not even compare with the men in England, and do not come up to our men."

Of the French women Miss Lear said:

"They are mighty fine and well dressed, but they look like us over here and that is why they are good looking. Everything over there is so different from Kentucky. Why, imagine what a sensation there will be in certain parts of our state when the young women begin to talk of their luggage, ride in the lift and speak of the town constable as a gendarme, take to dropping their hats and getting the men folks to drive their dogs. There would be a mighty smart shock down in Kentucky."

SEEK LIFE OF BARON TREPOFF

(By the Associated Press.)
St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—An unsuccessful attempt upon the life of Baron Stahl is reported to have been made in the park at Peterhof last night but the story is denied. A number of arrests, however, were made in the park during the evening. Baron Stahl bears some resemblance to General Treppoff, commander of the palace. A number of officers who might be mistaken for General Treppoff have taken the precaution to have their beards shaved off.

A DICTATOR MAY TAKE THE REINS

Deep Resentment is Felt at Peterhoff Palace

LOOKS NOW TO FORCE

The Open Campaign Against the Government Inaugurated Saturday With the Attempt on the Life of Stolypin Arouses the Government to Thoughts of Reprisal.

(By the Associated Press.)
St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—The open campaign against the government which the social revolutionists inaugurated with the attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin Saturday and the assassination of General Min yesterday, has produced such a feeling of resentment at Peterhoff that the spectre of a dictatorship has been revived.

The government, it is believed, can only rely on force to fight the terrorists, as the public press, which might be expected to manifest a revulsion of feeling against the crime which sacrificed the lives of a score of innocent persons in the attempt to murder a man who personally had not given cause for offense, remains coldly indifferent. Indeed, while expressing formal words of condemnation, the hidden satisfaction at the fact that the object of the campaign is to strike terror into the heart of the government is hardly concealed. Only the Novoe Vremya and the official Russia denounce the terrorists as enemies of society.

The conclusions of the liberal press are summed up in the charge made by the Rech that the government alone is guilty and responsible for what has happened.

Hundreds of Arrests.
The police have made hundreds of arrests since Saturday in an attempt to get their hands upon the organizer and participants in what is evidently a powerful, far-reaching conspiracy, but thus far they have been unable to secure the threads necessary to enable them to unravel the skein. All that has been definitely established is that two of the men who sacrificed their lives in the attempt on the premier arrived here August 23 from Moscow, where the organization is supposed to have its headquarters, accompanied by two women. They rented an apartment on Morskai street, one of the women passing as the wife of one of the men and the other as a servant. The coachman who was killed was not in the plot.

Another young man bearing a passport, showing him to be a student named Dulevich, of Riga, had arrived several days previous and was constantly in communication with the Moscow conspirators before the crime. Two of the men, then wearing officers uniforms and the woman passing as the wife of one of them left Morskai street in a public landau Saturday. While on the way to M. Stolypin's residence the woman disappeared and Dulevich entered the carriage. In the meantime the woman servant also left the house and disappeared.

According to some reports the woman who passed as the wife of one of the conspirators secured admission to M. Stolypin's residence and was among those killed. The police are inclined to believe that the woman who killed General Min was the "servant" but her identification is not positive. The door porter of the Morskai street house, who should have notified the police that the men had donned uniforms when, according to their passports they were not officers, has been arrested as an accomplice.

Prince Nakashidge, who was one of the victims of the attempt on M. Stolypin's life, was the inventor of an armored automobile which is for use in the warfare against the revolutionists.

M. Bussel, proprietor of the printing establishment which closed after printing the Viborg manifesto, was another victim of the explosion. He had gone to M. Stolypin for the purpose of requesting permission to reopen his establishment.
