J. M. BRANCH SUICIDE

Remains Brought to Auburn From Newport News

Sent Bullet Crashing Through His Head—Financial Troubles the Cause—Had Lived at Newport News Ten Years—Ran Bar-Room. Has Relatives Here.

The remains of John M. Branch, a Wake county man who killed himself at Newport News, were brought here this morning and carried this afternoon to Auburn for interment in the family burying ground near that place. Branch committed suicide by shooting himself through the head, the ball entering just in front of the left ear. The cause is thought to have been worry over financial difficulties. He was 34 years old and is said to have been a striking resemblance to William Jennings Bryan.

He has a brother, W. L. Branch connected with the Seaboard Air Line roundhouse here. Other brothers are Atlas Branch of Selma, Hardy Branch, Clayton, and Walter Branch of Auburn. His father was Newton Branch.

FOOTBALL AT A. & M.

Coach Heston Will Put Team to Work for the Big Season.

With W. M. Heston, of Michigan as its coach, the football team at the A. & M. this fall will be prepared for many hard battles on the gridiron and as soon as the institution opens its doors the pick of the husky flock of athletes will begin training for the season.

Heston is, without a doubt, the greatest football player ever turned out by the University of Michigan. He has played line positions, end and half-back. He was on the all-western team for four years, all-American team two years and was captain of Michigan his last year in college.

The A. & M. has had to strain some points to be able to secure a man of such ability, but loves to put out a team that will surpass any heretofore representing the Red and White. All of last year's team will be requested to report to Raleigh early in September to meet Coach Heston and begin practice, as the Virginia game is the first to be played. It is scheduled for October 6. The football schedule is the largest yet undertaken by the college and includes the largest universities and colleges of the south. Twelve games will be played. The new A. & M. athletic park, costing $6,000, is almost finished and will be ready for the big fall-week game.

Another department for the betterment of athletics will be inaugurated this fall in that an assistant football coach has been secured, who will have entire charge of the scrubs; also a trainer and physician has been engaged. He comes from one of the large eastern universities. His duties will be to look after the physical condition of the men. A club house will be one of the main features of the new park and will add greatly to the convenience of the candidates.

CHARGE AGAINST HIS ACCUSER.

E. T. Wheeler of Wake Forest, who was yesterday bound over to court by justice of the Peace Purefoy at Wake Forest on three charges for retailing liquor, preferred by C. H. Freeman, has sworn out a warrant against Mr. Freeman for assault, charging that he shook his fist in his face.

The case came before Squire Seppark this morning, but he moved it to Squire Reid, and it will be tried one day this week.

Mr. Freeman was arrested first on a warrant charging that he had cursed Mr. Wheeler, but this warrant Squire Purefoy quashed on the ground that cursing did not constitute an assault.

Safeguards of Human Society. From time to time violent outbreaks against high public officials will occur with more frequency than in the past, but human society can never be permanently overthrown by any class of revolutionists. It is anchored in two basic principles. One of these is the necessary for public order to secure public individual safety, which can only be accomplished by the cooperation of the vast masses of the people against all who would attempt their destruction. The other safeguard is the tenacity

SKIDOO CANDIDATES IN CONFERENCE.

There was a joint session of the Wake county republican executive committee and the republican candidates for county offices this afternoon. United States Marshal Claudius Dockery presided and announced a county campaign committee composed of J. S. Mangum, Elmer Shaffer, S. M. Rowland and W. G. Briggs.

Talks were made by W. W. Wynne, candidate for chairman of the board of county commissioners, J. W. Harden, candidate for sheriff and others. Letters were read from Robt. Sorrell, F. W. Upchurch and others of the county candidates who could not attend.

It was announced that all the nominations have been accepted and that the candidates are getting together for a vigorous campaign.

BIG MISTAKE, SAYS BURWELL PEARCE.

Mr. J. Burwell Pearce of Boylan, Pearce & Co., is very much exercised over a great mistake that he insists that the state board of education as the state text book commission is making in that the board has not in adopting books for use in the public schools for the next five years, specified that they shall be printed in accordance with the new spelling reform system which has just been adopted by President Roosevelt, and which Mr. Pearce insists must ere long come into general use throughout the country. He declares that the failure of the board to specify the reform spelling for the new books will mean that North Carolina will be away behind other states before it will be possible, under the text book contract, to fall in line.

DEALT HIS WIFE A FEARFUL BLOW.

Andrew Boon, a negro man who lives on the Robbins farm, near the city, became involved in a quarrel with his wife this afternoon and struck her over the head inflicting a serious wound. She was brought in a wagon to the office of Justice of the Peace R. G. Reid, where physicians were summoned and gave the necessary medical attention. They think the injury not necessarily dangerous. The negro fled as soon as he struck his wife and is still at large. Justice Reid has sent officers in pursuit of him.

Where Woman Pleads Not Guilty. Yesterday we were asked if we ever saw a baldheaded woman. We answered, "No," we never did, nor did we ever see a woman walking around town in her shirt sleeves with a cigar in her teeth and running into every saloon she saw. We have never seen a woman go fishing with a cigar in her teeth and running the damp ground all day and come home drunk at night. Nor have we ever seen a woman yank off her coat and say she could lick any man in town.—Sheridan, Ore., News-Sun.

CAPTURED THE CHURCH

Colored Baptist War Gets Into Court

Factional Fight in Holly Springs Colored Baptist Church Ends by One Side Taking Possession of the Church Building—Whole Membership Witnesses—Trial Going On.

A trial is going on this afternoon in the court house that is rather unique in its character, being nothing less than a colored church factional fight in court.

It appears that the colored Baptist Church at Holly Springs is divided hopelessly against itself, that the two factions have been warring for a long time, with the minister and several deacons and the secretaries of the church on the one side and on the other side others of the deacons. What finally brought the conflict into court was the determined effort of the out, who not being able to carry their ideas into effect any other way decided upon heroic measures and actually entered the church and took possession of the church building by show of force.

The case is entitled McAllister and others against Wilder and others, and the warrants read for forcible trespass. Practically the entire church membership is on hand to testify on one side or the other. Messrs. Argo and Shaffer appear for the defendants and the state is represented by Col. J. C. L. Harris and Major S. G. Ryan. The case came first before Magistrate Reid, but he moved it to Magistrate D. C. Smith of Holly Springs, who came to town today to hear it.

Friends will regret to learn that Miss Rebecca Glen is confined to her room by sickness.
