

THEATRICALS
ACADEMY OPENS TONIGHT.

"Violette," the Musical Comedy, Will Usher in the Season.
Advance notices are sent out as follows:
One of the most pleasing of the many pleasing musical numbers in the new big musical comedy success "Violette" which will be here at the Academy of Music tonight is entitled "Dear Old Dixie" and is sung by Miss Corinne Frances, the pretty star of the company. The words and music are entirely new and are of the catchy kind that immediately take hold of the public heart. Indeed it is said to be no unusual thing for the audience to join in the chorus. The next day the tune is whistled everywhere on the street, this being true also of several other numbers in the musical program.

"Around the Town."
Pretty girls, lovely costumes, excellent staging, combined with the clever comedians, Murray and Mack, bristling in action comprise the attractive features to be found this season in the new musical comedy "Around the Town." The costumes worn are not only magnificent but are unique in detail and are displayed by a very clever chorus of young ladies as it has been possible for the management to obtain. It is bubbling over with catchy musical numbers, mounted with beautiful scenery and wardrobe designed by the leading costumers.
Murray and Mack will be the attraction Monday night.

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, Sept. 5.—Forecast for North Carolina for tonight and Thursday:
Occasional showers tonight and Thursday, fresh northeast winds increasing and probably becoming brisk Thursday.

The area of high pressure which was over the lakes yesterday has moved eastward and now lies central over New York and New England. It has caused somewhat cooler weather in the New England and middle states. In the Rocky Mountain region the pressure is low with centers of depression over Canada near Montana and over Arizona. During the past twenty-four hours rain has fallen in the cotton belt, and the following heavy precipitation, in inches, has been reported: Nashville, Tenn., 1.68; Meridian, Miss., 1.44; and Tampa, Fla., 2.50; Corpus Christi, Texas, 3.38. The temperature changes in the south have been slight. Light frost occurred at Oswego. The pressure will fall in this section and the northern high move to the east, and with the falling barometer occasional showers may be expected in this vicinity tonight and Thursday.

HARDIN'S CASE TAKEN UP.

Indicted by Government for Making False Reports of Destruction of Stills.
(Special to The Evening Times.)
Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 5.—Yesterday Judge Boyd refused to grant a continuance of the case of revenue officers indicted for alleged frauds against the government and the case against ex-Deputy R. H. Hardin was taken up. Hardin is indicted for making false reports to the government of the destruction of stills, with duplicate counts of neglect of duty in permitting such illicit distilleries to operate in Wilkes county.
It was reported that ex-Governor Aycock and C. B. Watson, who were of counsel for the defense in the former trials, have retired from the cases.
In the cross-examination of government witnesses, Judge Byrum has shown no purpose so far of trying to make it appear that the prosecutions are of factional political inspiration. In former trials the element of political persecution was strongly and persistently injected by defendant's coun-

WAKE COUNTY SCHOOLS
Majority to Open During Month of October

Many Teaching Positions Not Yet Filled—Contract Let For School House at Garner to Cost $2,350. Junior Orders Gave One-fourth. County Board Meeting.
At the meeting of the county school board, which was in session yesterday, it was decided to announce that the public schools of Wake county would open from the first Monday in October to the first Monday in November.
A large number of positions paying good salaries have not yet been filled, and teachers desiring to teach in Wake county by applying to County Superintendent Z. V. Judd of Raleigh would be able to secure positions.
The public school at Garner, which recently lost its building by fire caused by lightning, will soon have a handsome new building to cost $2,350. The contract has been let to John A. Wrenn. The building will have two stories, the upper floor to be used by the Junior Order, which contributed one-fourth of the cost. The insurance on the building burned, together with the amount contributed by the Junior Order, will nearly cover the contract price.

CUT HIS ARM AND NOT HIS THROAT.

Mr. Needham Bagwell, who was reported about town to have accidentally cut his throat with a razor Sunday at his home, six miles from here, near Garner, and to have come near bleeding to death, is back at his work in one of the clothing houses on Wilmington street.
The truth of the matter is, that while preparing his razor to shave, he drew it across his sleeve to wipe it without noticing that the edge was turned the wrong way. The first thing he knew blood was spurting up over his head. He had cut a big vein and two arteries in his left arm. Medical aid was secured as soon as possible and Mr. Bagwell's arm is coming on as well as could be expected.

MRS. MANNING'S FUNERAL.

One of the Saddest and Most Impressive Ever Held in Raleigh.
At six o'clock yesterday evening at Christ Church the funeral of Mrs. Pattie Lewis Manning, wife of Dr. Isaac Manning of Chapel Hill, and daughter of Dr. R. H. Lewis was held. It was one of the saddest and most impressive funerals ever held in Raleigh. The church was simply packed with friends of the beloved young woman and her family, and the number and beauty of the floral offerings that banked the casket were well high unprecedented.
The services were conducted by Bishop Joseph Blount Cheshire, Rev. William Meade, of Chapel Hill, Rev. M. M. Marshall, rector of Christ Church, and Rev. McNeely DuBoise. The hymns sung were "Peace, Perfect Peace," "Just As I Am" and "In the Hour of Trial."
The interment was in Oakwood cemetery, and the pall-bearers were
