

MIXED IN THE OPENING HOUR

Stimulating Demand for Reading and Atchison

STOCKS BEGAN TO RISE

This Was Checked by Upward Flight of Call Loans, and a Sharp Decline in Prices Sent Them Well Below Figures Prevailing at Opening.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Sept. 5.—Uniform advances in Americans in London did not prevent a thoroughly mixed tone in the active speculative dealings in stocks at the opening here today.

Under the stimulus of a good demand for Reading and Atchison, the market shook off its uncertain movement and began to rise. Stocks that had been depressed recovered, and the list in general sold a good fraction above yesterday's closing.

A good rally set in after twelve o'clock on rumors of gold engagements, Smelting, which had been notably weak earlier, was lifted to 154 1/2, a gain of 2 1/2.

Canadian Pacific's decline ran to 2 3/8, St. Paul 2, Northwestern, New York Central, Colorado Fuel and North American 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 and Pennsylvania and United States Steel preferred 1.

Rumors of coming relief of the money situation by action of the treasury department kept up the market. There was only a momentary dip in prices when call money hurried to 40 per cent.

NO RULING AS TO WRIT MADE YET.

Associate Justice H. G. Connor will announce his ruling in the habeas corpus case of Charles Starling sometime this evening. He made an extended investigation of the case including the examination of witnesses, last evening and at that time said he would make his ruling this morning soon after 9 o'clock. However this morning he was still undecided and concluded to hold over the disposition of the case until after the day's session of the supreme court.

This is the case in which Starling is held under $1,000 bond which he cannot give, for his appearance to answer at the next term of the superior court the charge of criminal assault on Lena McDonald, a thirteen-year-old girl who had been committed to his care by her mother who had left the city.

It is understood that the question which is puzzling him most is that of what is to become of the girl which ever way he may decide the matter of the writ of habeas corpus. He has suggested that the clerk of the county court take the matter in hand and see if he cannot find a good home for her.

FIGHTS WITH REBELS IN SANTA DOMINGO

(By the Associated Press.)

Cape Haytien, Hayti, Sept. 5.—A messenger who arrived here today from Santo Domingo brought the news that the Dominican insurgents who had been besieging Monte Cristi on the north coast of Santo Domingo had been defeated and put to flight. Later they attacked the town of Dajabon and the government forces were compelled to seek refuge in the fort, where they were defending themselves with great courage. The fighting was still in progress when the messenger left the front. The commander of the government forces at Monte Cristi is awaiting the promised reinforcements of four hundred men before undertaking the pursuit of the rebels.
