ACADEMY CALENDAR.
Tonight—Finnegan's Ball.
Friday Night—Joseph and Wm. Jefferson.
Saturday Night—Sergeant Kitty.
Monday Night—Little Duchess.

COMMENTS FROM THE COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"Finnegan's Ball."
The real musical comedy success will be presented here tonight at the Academy. This clever comedy which has been re-written and brought up to date is the season's greatest success. It played four months in New York city at the 14th Street Theatre. It is composed of bright vocal and musical numbers. The costumes are gorgeously and the show girls are said to be a bevy of New York and Boston girls, who are noted for their beauty. The seats will be on sale as usual and will be limited to six to each person.

Finnegan's Ball Company.

Jefferson's.
To quote an old saw "The play's the thing," but the actor while not perhaps primeval is a very important factor and can either make or mar a pretentious performance. With this in view Joseph and William W. Jefferson, always noted for their excellent supporting casts, have this season outdone themselves and for "Playing the Game" the new modern comedy which Cleveland Moffatt and Hartley Davis have especially written for the Messrs. Jefferson it's claimed have engaged a company that cannot be surpassed for excellence. A mass of scenery is used in this production, painted by the famous artist Ernest Albert and the production in its entirety will be seen at the Academy on Friday night.

Sergeant Kitty.
A comic opera to be a real opera must have good music clever book, and a strong cast of principals assisted by a chorus that is made up of singers. All of this and more is to be found in "Sergeant Kitty," which will be at the Academy Saturday for matinee and night.
Miss Helen Byron heads the company and James McElhern is the principal fun maker, while there are many others in the long list.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate—which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders—and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, Sept. 26.—Forecast for North Carolina for tonight and Thursday:
Rain and warmer tonight; Thursday rain, warmer in east portion; fresh coming east.
The high pressure area in the northeast has moved slowly eastward. The barometer is low over the upper lake region and over the gulf. These are causing higher temperatures throughout the northern states east of the mississippi, and rains in the southeastern states. An area of high barometer, with a cool wave, has moved eastward from the extreme northwest and this morning overlies Montana and the Dakotas. Frost is reported from Miles City, Mont., and Bismarck, N. D. The following heavy rains occurred in the Cotton Belt during the past 24 hours: New Orleans, 4.19; Vicksburg, 1.48; Shreveport, 1.12; Brownsville, Tenn., 1.59; Dyersburg, Tenn., 1.60; Brinkley, Ark., 2.26; Forrest City, Ark., 2.52; Newport, Ark., 2.00; Paris, Texas, 1.52; Monroe, La., 2.02; Brookhaven, Miss., 2.00. The eastward movement of the low barometer will cause rains and warmer weather in this vicinity tonight and Thursday.
