THE RAIN OF UP-STATE BALLOTS BEAT HEARST AND ELECTED HUGHES

According to Figures Now Available the Plurality of Hughes is About 60,000

HEARST CARRIED ALL OF GREATER NEW YORK

Latest Reports Say That the Returns for the Rest of the Ticket Are Far from Complete, With the Election of Chandler as Lieutenant Governor Claimed by Democrats and Members of the Independence League, and the Other Offices in Doubt.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 7.—With incomplete returns outside of the Greater New York, the result of yesterday's election in New York state aside from the head of the ticket was still in doubt today. At 10 o'clock this forenoon there was a possibility that the entire democratic state ticket aside from governor had been elected. All the democratic state candidates ran far ahead of William R. Hearst in the Greater New York, and their pluralities here of approximately 140,000 over their republican opponents may have the effect of overcoming the republican lead in up state counties. These estimates, however, are necessarily based upon the full state vote for governor and depend entirely upon the estimate that lesser candidates held with Charles E. Hughes. On the face of the present returns Mr. Hughes came down to the Harlem River with a lead over Hearst of a little more than 130,000. While this was sufficient to give him a lead of considerably more than 50,000 over Hearst, Mr. Hughes' associates have the far greater plurality rolled up by the remainder of the state ticket to meet. The democratic candidates appear to have been elected.

The closest contest probably will be between M. Linn Bruce, republican, and Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, independence league, and democrat, for lieutenant governor. Next to lieutenant governor, the figures at hand show that John S. Whalen, the democratic candidate for secretary of state may come through a winner by the closest margin.

As more complete returns began to come in by counties today it was seen that in some instances there was a small but consistent lead by the lesser republican candidates over the head of their ticket. This fact served only to increase the uncertainty regarding the result for the office below governor.

Effect of McCarren's Fight. William R. Hearst apparently carried only two counties in the state outside of the Greater New York. These were Chemung and Seneca. It was in his home city, however, that he encountered the bitterest and most determined opposition. Kings county, of which Patrick H. McCarren is the democratic leader, last year gave Hearst for mayor a large plurality but yesterday McCarren exhorted all his forces to return a Hughes plurality in his county. His instructions to his captains was to cut Hearst and to vote the remainder of the democratic state ticket. While Mr. Hearst succeeded in carrying the county by a plurality of 4,663 the returns for the remainder of the state ticket show that his trouble with McCarren cost him dearly. The pluralities in the county of the democratic candidates who were not affected by McCarren's order exceeded that of the head of the ticket by far more than thirty thousand. Had Hearst received these votes it would have cut Hughes' lead in the state practically half.

New York, Nov. 7.—Charles E. Hughes, republican, has been elected governor of the state of New York by a plurality of 52,000, according to figures available at an early hour today. William R. Hearst, his opponent, had a clear plurality in every borough of Greater New York, but Hughes' vote up-state overcame this and left the republican candidate with the margin of votes already given.

state for the ticket below governor anything but complete. The election of Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler lieutenant governor was claimed by some of the independent league and democratic managers, and the rest of the ticket was in doubt. In the work of compiling the returns for the gubernatorial candidates the lesser offices had been neglected. Split tickets in every county in the state, especially in New York, Kings, Queens and Richmond, retarded the work of the counters.

Vote in Greater New York. At 7:30 this morning returns were complete in Greater New York for the governorship. They showed Hearst's plurality as 76,956. The vote by boroughs follows:

Table with 3 columns: Boroughs, Hughes, Hearst. Rows: Manhattan and Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens, Richmond, Totals.

Ticket Ran Ahead of Hearst. Almost complete returns from the Greater New York for state offices, show that aside from governor the democratic state ticket carried the greater city by pluralities of from 125,000 to 145,000. This would indicate that unless the republican candidates for offices below governor ran ahead of Hughes above the Bronx, the full democratic state ticket, except governor, may have been elected. Returns from up state counties are as yet too incomplete to warrant anything like an accurate forecast.

SAYS NEW YORK'S ALL REPUBLICAN

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 7.—William Barnes, Jr., of Albany, issued a formal statement this afternoon claiming the election of the entire republican ticket in the state.

The statement says: "The entire republican state ticket has been elected. My figures show this. The state (above the Bronx) gives 145,000 plurality, or thereabouts, and the democratic candidate for lieutenant governor has approximately 135,000. You may say for me that the entire state ticket has been elected."

HACKETT WINS BY A BIG VOTE. A telegram from J. Gordon Hackett at North Wilkesboro, received here at 3:10 this afternoon by Chairman Simmons, says: "Hackett carries Alexander five, Alleghany 202, Ashe 125, Blackburn—Wilkes 729, Watauga 300, Surry 425. Hackett's majority, 1,180."

HARAHAN PRESIDENT ILLINOIS CENTRAL

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 7.—J. T. Harahan was today elected president of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, succeeding Stuyvesant Fish. All the other officers of the company whose terms expired were re-elected. All of the directors of the company except Vice-President Wellington were present at the meeting of the board when the election took place.

TWENTY GIRLS ARE SAVED BY FIREMEN.

(By the Associated Press.) Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—Twenty terrified girl employees of Andrew Dobbie, dry goods merchant, were rescued by firemen today when fire broke out in the third story of the store. A few of the girls were slightly injured. The fire loss is about $20,000.

COL. HOLT STILL HAS STRONG GRIP ON LIFE

Physicians Say This Afternoon that Wound May Not Prove Fatal

NEGRO WHO SHOT HIM NOW SAFE IN PRISON

Ball Entered, at Close Range, Just Under Right Ear and Passed Through Left Cheek, Barely Escaping Base of Brain and Jugular. Patient Has No Temperature and is Doing Splendidly—Friends of Colonel Holt Urge Crowds to Let the Law Take Its Course and No Demonstration is Feared—Convincing Proof That Prisoner is Guilty.

At 4:15 o'clock this afternoon a message from Graham stated that Colonel Holt's condition was far more satisfactory than during the earlier part of the day. He is getting along splendidly.

Col. L. Banks Holt, who was murderously assaulted by a discharged servant at his home in Graham last night, is resting comfortably this afternoon, according to news received from his residence over the long-distance telephone. The attending physicians express the utmost hope that his injuries are not so serious as at first reported.

Henry Walker, the negro who undoubtedly shot Colonel Holt, was arrested at daylight and lodged in jail. Last night there was a feeling of intense bitterness, but there is no danger of any demonstration on the part of the wounded man's friends, and he will be put on trial almost immediately.

Colonel Holt was shot about 9:30 o'clock, while he was standing at the telephone. His home had been called several times. Just as he hung up the receiver and was about to move away, a 38-calibre revolver was placed at his right ear and fired. The contact was so close that his face was burned. The ball entered just under the right ear, passing out through the left cheek. It ploughed deep into the wall beyond.

Colonel Holt fell. He had not been in his vigorous health of late, and he suffered much from loss of blood before the doctors could be summoned. Dr. Stokes of Salisbury arrived today and assisted in attending to the wounds.

This afternoon he had no temperature, his symptoms were good, but he had the narrowest escape imaginable. Had the ball ranged half an inch higher it would have entered the base of the brain, and the same distance lower would have cut the jugular vein. With good fortune his family and the physicians are confident that he will recover.

When news spread of the shooting, the excitement was high and men searched the town for the assailant. It was believed at the time that Walker was the guilty wretch. He had been discharged a week or so ago for being drunk and rowdy, and he threatened to get even. The cook, with whom he was infatuated, left the employ of Colonel Holt because Walker was dismissed, and the theory is that she and other negro women were implicated. About daylight Walker was found and hurried to prison. Friends of Colonel Holt urged that no attempt be made to harm the prisoner, and this advice was followed. It was said this afternoon that there was no danger of trouble.

Two theories are advanced as to how the negro entered the residence. It is thought that he may have slipped in the door on the rear porch when a domestic, going out for wood, left it open for a moment. It is possible, however, that he had a key, furnished him by one of his accomplices. He may have been concealed in the house for some time before he shot. As the pistol fired, the negro fled.

evidence than that is said to have been secured. During the evening the numerous telephone calls led to the impression afterward that Walker and his confederates were anxious to get him out of the house.

All the members of Colonel Holt's family, with the exception of Miss Louise Holt, were with him this morning, and she will arrive this afternoon from Baltimore. Mrs. John C. Drewry, his daughter, and Mr. Drewry went to Graham early this morning, and messages from Mr. Drewry give the comforting assurance that Colonel Holt will recover unless there are serious complications.

Sketch of Colonel Holt. L. Banks Holt was born in Graham, Alamance county, in 1842. His parents were Edwin L. Holt and Emily Fidelity Holt, both natives of North Carolina. Col. Holt attended school in Alamance under the tutelage of Dr. Wilson, an educator of distinction. He entered the military academy at Hillsboro in 1861, and enlisted from this institution in 1861, rendering his services to the governor of the state. They were resumed and he was assigned to duty in the Orange Guard. This company at once entered the service and captured Fort Mifflin. Later Col. Holt joined Col. Fisher's regiment of infantry and fought after the battle of Manassas, when he was transferred to the Eighth North Carolina infantry, and remained with this regiment until the close of the war. In the early part of the struggle he was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant which he held until the close of the war. He participated in some of the most hotly contested conflicts of the war, and was severely wounded at Petersburg, Va., and at the battle of Fort Harrison, where he was taken prisoner.

After spending four months in the hospital he was confined in Fort Delaware until 1865. Returning home he engaged in farming and cotton manufacturing. He worked in Alamance cotton mill for a time, which was owned by his father. In 1868 the Carolina cot-

WAKE MAJORITY NEARLY 2,400

Average 2,375 to 2,400 On Whole Ticket

J. C. DREWRY'S IS 2,393

Swift Creek Democratic on Commissioners by 9—Bernard Led County Ticket With Over 3,500—Mial Led Legislative Ticket With 3,475—Harris Next.

The average democratic majority in Wake county in yesterday's election is from 2,375 to 2,400. Two years ago it was 2,500.

Franklin McNeill's majority over R. M. Douglas for corporation commissioner is 2,319.

Millard Mial led the legislative ticket with 3,475 ballots. Charles U. Harris was next with 3,418, then W. C. Douglas with 3,269.

For the state senate, John C. Drewry's vote was 2,393 and his republican opponent, Upchurch, received 977, making Drewry's majority 2,393.

The vote received by the republican candidates for the house was as follows: Hester 1,019, Scarborough 1,069, Parker 997.

John H. Sears for sheriff received 3,448 votes, against J. W. Harden's 1,124.

Register of Deeds J. J. Bernard led the democratic ticket in the county with over 3,500 votes. Clerk of the Court W. M. Russ was a close second.

D. T. Johnson for chairman of the board of county commissioners has a vote of about 3,300, and W. W. Wynne, republican, 1,059.

There were only two doubtful precincts in the county, Swift Creek and Stony Hill in New Light. The former went republican for county commissioners last time by a majority of 15. Now the vote there on commissioners was 92 to 83 for the democrats, a majority of 9.

EVEN ASHE IS DEMOCRATIC

Tyrrell Safe for Democracy by 75 Votes

GAIN IN SAMPSON TOO

Four of the Mountain Doubtful Counties, Ashe, Alexander, Graham, Stanly, Are Safe, and Possibly Caldwell—Close Eastern Counties Democratic—Hackett and Crawford Safe.

Perhaps the most remarkable news that came today regarding the election in North Carolina was a telegram from Ashe announcing that the democrats had carried that county. If it ever went democratic before it was so long ago that it has been clean forgotten. Senator Simmons could not remember that it had ever given a democratic majority in its history as a county.

Another piece of news that came to headquarters almost as noticeable was that the republican majority in Sampson county, the old home of Marion Butler, had been reduced to 550, which means a republican loss of about 250. The democratic gain in Sampson is over 200.

Four of the doubtful or usually republican mountain counties are safe in the democratic column, Ashe, Alexander, Graham, Stanly. Possibly it will be five, if the news comes from Caldwell that headquarters hopes for. However, Caldwell at this writing is in doubt. Alleghany is democratic by increased majority.

All the close counties in the east seem to have gone democratic as well as those of the mountain country. The Jeffersonian wave doth appear to have flooded all alike.

Tyrrell has actually gone democratic by a majority of 75. This county Senator Simmons himself had given up for lost.

Senator Simmons told Senator Overman over the long distance telephone this morning that the democratic majority in the state will exceed Parker's two years ago by six or seven thousand, that it would be nearly equal to the majority of Governor Glenn, which was over 49,000.

Stanly has been redeemed for democracy by a majority of 200, a democratic gain of 250. Yadkin, while it has again gone republican, shows the majority to be only 300, a considerable loss. Cabarrus is democratic by 300.

Hackett and Crawford. Further returns this morning confirm the election of both Hackett and Crawford in the tenth congressional district and Crawford in the tenth. Hackett's majority is estimated at headquarters at from 1,000 to 1,500.

Pou's Majority. Chairman J. R. Young of the congressional committee of this the fourth district gives a conservative estimate of E. W. Pou's majority over Berry Godwin as 6,550, the county majorities being given as follows: Franklin 1,500, Vance 650, Wake 2,500, Chatham 400, Johnston 500, Nash 1,000.

Two years ago Mr. Pou's majority was a little over 7,000, but his victory this year is really greater, because he had practically no opposition two years ago, while a strong fight was made against him this year, and this was an off year, while two years ago a president was elected.

Some of the returns that have come in today are as follows:

Democrats Sweep Wilson. (By Southern Bell Telephone.) Wilson, N. C., Nov. 7.—Complete returns show that the democrats carried every township in Wilson county in the election yesterday. The total democratic vote was 1,700 against 500 for the republicans, there being an increase in the democratic vote over 1904 of more than 300, with a decrease in the republican vote of nearly 100. The majority was even better than democrats had anticipated.

Majority in Cumberland. (Special to The Evening Times.) Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 7.—Cumberland county goes democratic by majorities ranging from 400 to 700, a very light vote being cast.

Crawford's Majority 800. (Special to The Evening Times.) Asheville, N. C., Nov. 7.—Buncombe county is democratic by a majority of 600 to 900. W. T. Crawford, democrat, has carried the tenth district by a majority of not less than 800.

Chairman Lee claims the district for Crawford by more than 1,000. Cherokee county, strongly republican, elects a democratic county ticket.

Solicitor Brown, republican, has defeated Guy Roberts of Madison for the solicitorship of the fifteenth district. Chairman Walls concedes Roberts' defeat by 115.

Flashes.

The following flashes have been received: Marion, N. C., Nov. 7: Incomplete returns show that the republicans carry Mitchell by 150.

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 7: Democrats carry Lenoir county by 900 to 1,000 majority.

Edenton, N. C., Nov. 7: Chowan gives Small for congress 400 majority.

Mocksville, N. C., Nov. 7: Davie county, all precincts except two heard from goes republican by 350 to 400.

Milton, N. C., Nov. 7: Caswell county gives Kitchin 650 majority.

Lincolnton, N. C., Nov. 7: Lincoln county, democratic congressional vote 1,240, republican 785.

Concord, N. C., Nov. 7: Cabarrus county gives Hackett 1,585, Blackburn 3,403, majority for Hackett 192.

Franklin, N. C., Nov. 7: Franklin county goes democratic by 1,600.

Majorities Learned.

The following are some definite figures from the counties so far as they had been learned at democratic state headquarters up to the time of going to press:

Others in Doubt. All Taken by Democrats Wouldn't Give Control

BLACKBURN AMONG THE MEN WHO DRANK DEFEAT

The Southern States Give Their Usual Democratic Majorities, Missouri Having Returned, it Appears, to the Democratic Column—A Chance That Cummins May Be Defeated in Iowa—Hoch Runs Behind His Ticket in Kansas and May Be Defeated by His Democratic Opponent.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt's appeal for a republican congress was not in vain. With the count still going on, the result so far shows the election of 213 republican congressmen, 161 democrats, with 12 districts to be heard from. There are 386 seats to be filled in the house, and should the democrats get the remaining 12 they would still not have the control.

The most sanguine prediction put out by Chairman Sherman previous to the election was that the republicans would retain control of the house by 117.

As the returns stand now the democrats have gained 27 districts held in the present congress by republicans as follows:

Illinois, 4; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Missouri, 5; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 1; New York, 1; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 2; Pennsylvania, 5; Wisconsin, 1; Kentucky, 1; Maryland, 1.

In Illinois the defeated republicans are Reives and Dickson of the twenty-first and twenty-third districts; in Indiana, Cromer of the eighth; in Iowa, Lacey of the sixth; in Missouri, Fulkerson of the fourth, Ellis of the fifth, Welborn of the seventh, and Caulkins of the fifteenth; in Nebraska, Kennedy of the second; in New York, Wadsworth of the thirty-fourth; in New Jersey, Pickett of the ninth; in North Carolina, Blackburn of the eighth; in Ohio, Douglas, who beat Grosvenor for the republican nomination; in Wisconsin, Babcock gives his seat to a democrat; in Pennsylvania, Dale of the tenth, Palmer of the eleventh, and Samuel of the sixteenth.

The republicans gained the third Kentucky district, where A. D. James defeated Representative Richardson. 'This is the only republican gain so far reported.

Speaker Cannon received his usual fifteen thousand majority and comes back to congress for the seventh-teenth time. The fight against Representative Dalzell of Pittsburg, was futile, as Mr. Dalzell is re-elected with a reduced majority. Mr. Wadsworth, who is chairman of the house committee on agriculture, was defeated by Peter A. Porter, who announced himself first as an independent republican and attacked Mr. Wadsworth's record on the meat inspection legislation. He was endorsed by both the democrats and independence league.

The New Congress. Minnesota—Second district, Winfield S. Hammond, democrat, elected. Illinois—Tenth, George E. Foss, republican, elected.

Indiana—Twelfth, Clarence Z. Gihams, republican, elected; second, John C. Chaney, republican, elected; eleventh, George W. Rauch, democrat, elected.

Iowa—Eleventh, H. Hubbard, republican, elected; ninth, Walter I. Smith, republican, elected.

Nebraska—Fifth, George W. Norris, republican, elected.

Missouri—Sixteenth, Robert Lamar, democrat, elected; twelfth, Henry M. Coudrey, republican, elected; second, William W. Rucker, democrat; fourteenth, J. J. Russell, democrat.
