

TO EXPEND ON THE CAPE FEAR

General Mackenzie Recommends $450,000

FOR NEXT FISCAL YEAR

He Suggests That 200,000 Be Expended Above Wilmington and $250,000 on the River Below—A Number of Other Recommendations.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 12.—General Alexander Mackenzie, chief of engineers, has reported to the secretary of war that $16,052,431 will be required to complete the engineer work upon the fortifications projected by the board convened under the president's order of January 21st, 1905. During the year the number of guns available for service was increased by the addition of eight mortars, four 12-inch guns, and ninety-four rapid fire guns, so that altogether the status of the armaments for which congress has appropriated funds was 375 12-inch mortars, 105 12-inch guns, 13 16-inch guns, 99 8-inch guns and 587 rapid fire guns.

General Mackenzie states the sums that can be profitably expended during the next fiscal year in the principal river and harbor works among which are the following:

James River, Virginia, $200,000; Cape Fear River, above Wilmington, N. C., locks and dams, $200,000; Cape Fear River at and below Wilmington, N. C., $250,000.

VANDALIC THIEVES

SMASH SLOCUM TABLET.

(By the Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 12.—The bronze tablet which was stolen from the Slocum memorial monument in the old Lutheran cemetery in Middle Village, has been found. It is lying in a Brooklyn junkshop, smashed to fragments by the thieves who sold it to the junk dealer for $14. The tablet was valued at $450 and purchased by subscription and placed on the monument, which was erected to commemorate the Slocum disaster, which cost nearly a thousand lives.

Seven men were arrested on suspicion of having stolen the tablet.

STILETTO AND BULLET; A FATHER'S VENGEANCE

(By the Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Matale Vivero, an Italian, was found dying at midnight, at Milwaukee avenue and Ohio street. He was taken to the county hospital and an examination showed three stiletto wounds in his back and two bullet wounds in the back of his head.

According to the story told by his brother, Angelo Vivero, and two witnesses, who refused to tell their names or addresses for fear of being killed, Matale eloped from Venice three years ago with the daughter of a merchant, after the girl's father had refused to sanction their marriage. The father vowed vengeance, and it is believed he had friends in this country who carried out the vow for him. Doctors at the county hospital said Vivero probably would not survive the night.

Mr. Connor's Appointments.

Mr. R. D. W. Connor of the state department of education has accepted invitations to deliver educational addresses at Schley, Orange county, Nov. 30, and King Hiram, Cumberland county Nov. 16.

ADOPTING TEXT BOOKS

North Carolina History, Civics and Pedagogy

Books in Manuscript By Prof. D. H. Hill, W. J. Peele, Raleigh, and W. C. Allen of Waynesville—Several Big Publishing Houses in the Race.

The state board of education is in session today, hearing various publishers on the merits of books they offer for adoption as text books on North Carolina history, civics and pedagogy, to be used in the public schools of the state.

Among the North Carolina histories offered for adoption were several in manuscript, including one by Prof. D. H. Hill of the A. & M. College, to be published by Stone & Barringer of Charlotte; another by W. C. Allen of Waynesville, and a book of civics by W. J. Peele of Raleigh.

D. C. Heath & Company of Atlanta, represented by F. O. Spain, offered books on civics and pedagogy.

Silver Burdette & Company, represented by J. C. Martin, a book of pedagogy.

J. B. Lippincott & Co., represented by A. S. Booth, books on North Carolina history and civics.

American Book Company, represented by J. W. Thaxton, books on pedagogy and civics.

MacMillan & Company, New York, a book on civics.

Scribner & Company, a book on civics.

It will probably be several days before the adoption on the part of the board is announced.

"I am too old longer to trip in the merry merry," said the chorus girl sadly, "and my statuesque beauty is double what it ought to be to give me a place in the front row. My voice has been ruined by overmuch twittering and it sounds like a flat wheel thudding on the rails or like scrap iron being unloaded on a dock."

Then a look of inspired resolve swept over her home made countenance. "I have it," she cried. "I will do the ingenue in a vaudeville sketch and continue so for the next thirty years."

TROTTER PUT IN PRISON WALLS

Charged With Assault on Man and Two Ladies

DEED AT MOUNT AIRY

Graham Trotter is Teller of First National Bank at Mount Airy.—His Arrest Made at Greensboro by Officers Acting Under Instructions From His Home.

(By Southern Bell Telephone.) Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 12.—Acting upon instructions telegraphed here this morning from Mount Airy, Chief of Police Neeley boarded the local train from that town this afternoon and arrested Graham Trotter, teller of the First National Bank of Mt. Airy, who is charged with having assaulted W. J. Turner and Misses Bethania Ashby and Minnie Burk late Friday night. The party was returning to Mount Airy from a social gathering in the country when they were halted, after which they were fired upon as they endeavored to escape.

Trotter was placed in the city prison and will be sent back to Mount Airy. A warrant was sworn out for him there. He is charged with being implicated in the assault, and the telegram to Chief Neeley stated that he was a fugitive from justice. Trotter took his arrest quietly, but refuses to talk.

Sensational accounts of the shooting have reached here and it was said today that Miss Ashby, who was struck by one of the bullets, is in a serious condition. Elmo Brim has already been arrested at Mount Airy. The general theory is that the young ladies were not recognized and that the men hiding in the road were waiting for another party to arrive.

Miss Ashby May Die. (Special to The Evening Times.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov. 12.—The condition of Miss Minerva Ashby, who was shot from ambush near McAiry last Friday night is reported to be more serious today and fears are now entertained that she will not recover. It is not known that the young men were implicated in the shooting. Elvan Brim is in jail, while officers are looking for the other two, who have left the county.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE BAZAAR.

The ladies of St. Mary's Guild, Church of the Good Shepherd, are making great preparations for the bazaar they propose to hold in the parish rooms of the church December 11, 12 and 13, for the benefit of the church building fund. It is to be called "The War of the Roses," and promises to be the most unique bazaar ever given in Raleigh.

On Monday night before the concert opens on Wednesday there will be a special concert in the parish rooms under the direction of Prof. Wade R. Brown, in which music pertaining to roses will be rendered by some of the best talent the city affords.

A charge of 25 cents will be made for admission to this concert. The bazaar, however, will be open to all, and the ladies are confidently expecting a liberal patronage on the part of the people of the city in the purchase of holiday gifts, of which they will have for sale a great variety to be disposed of by one of the most unique sales on record.

Had a Close Call. "A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stichel, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at all druggists.

To Speak at Greensboro. Mr. Norman H. Johnson, attorney general of the North Carolina Retail Merchants Association, left this afternoon for Greensboro where he will speak tonight. Mr. Johnson will go from there to Lynchburg, East Rutherford, Roanoke, Salem and Christianburg and deliver addresses under the auspices of the Virginia association.

Famous Strike Breakers. The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowels go on strike, they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c at all druggists.

Address to Carpenters. Mr. Geo. G. Griffin, general organizer of the United Carpenters and Joiners of America will speak at Metropolitan Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. Wage earners are especially requested to attend. Live issues will be discussed.
