

MAHLERS' BIG OPENING

Establishment Visited by Hundreds of People

An Evidence That the Christmas Season is Near—Store Brilliantly Lighted and Was Decorated With Holly—There Was Music Last Evening From 5 Until 9:30—The Name Mahler Well Known in This State.

Last evening occurred the first reminder, by a firm of this city, that the joyous holiday season is approaching. It was the Christmas display at H. Mahler's Sons and from 5 o'clock until 9:30 excellent music was furnished by the Boston Italian orchestra and hundreds of people visited the beautiful store, which was brilliantly lighted by hundreds of tiny electric lights, and the light on the large display of cut glass made it sparkle as the dew drops in the early morning sun. Holly, which is ever a reminder of the holiday season, was gracefully entwined among the lights on each side of the store and just above the cases which contain the display of silver, cut glass, handsome bronze ornaments and other articles found in an establishment of this standing. As a background was a mass of holly and written diagonally across it in tiny lights, "Merry Xmas, '06."

One lady was heard to remark last night that the beautifully decorated store, the music and the large crowd entering seemed to put the very spirit of Christmas in the air and make the people feel that the holiday season was really close at hand.

This firm was established forty-eight years ago and is today conducted by Messrs. Louis and Fred Mahler. What the name of Tiffany is to the country at large, Mahler is to North Carolina. In the north no plated ware is carried, only gold and silver. The business of the firm is increasing at such a rate that they find their store space not great enough and the basement is to be fitted up. Work has already begun but it will not be ready for occupancy before the spring.

In the display last night were a number of exquisite brooches mounted with pearls, diamonds, aqua marines and other precious stones. These were exclusive designs and made by the firm. And in mentioning this beautiful Christmas display, the name of Mr.

A MYSTERY IS SOLVED

Two Young Married Women
Burglarize Chicago Flats

A Score or More of Robberies Had Been Committed When a Detective
Shadowed One Woman and Arrested Her Red-Handed.

(By the Associated Press.)
Chicago, Dec. 5.—The mystery of a score or more of flat burglaries on the north side was solved yesterday in the arrest of Mrs. Elsie Klein and Mrs. Margaret Nagel.

Stolen goods to the value of $3,000 were recovered, but the value of the property taken by the two women during the last two years is estimated at over $10,000.

Mrs. Klein is the mother of four children, the youngest of which is fourteen months old and the eldest nine years. Mrs. Nagel has one boy, a boy of two years.

Yesterday a detective noticed Mrs. Klein approach several small flat buildings, knock loudly at the door, listen intently and then walk away. In each instance some one came to the door in response to the knock.

At one place no one answered the knock at the door, and then Mrs. Klein was seen to take a key from her pocketbook and open the door. She remained inside for an hour. When she came out she had a bundle under her arm. The detective arrested her. Then he examined the bundle and found miscellaneous stolen property. He also found an elaborate set of skeleton keys in her pocket. Mrs. Klein made a full confession, implicating Mrs. Nagel, who was arrested half an hour later in her own house.

Greeted Will D. Upshaw at the Tabernacle Last Night.

Seldom has any lecturer in Raleigh received such a compliment as the audience that crowded the Tabernacle Sunday school auditorium last night to hear Mr. Will D. Upshaw of Georgia.

"In face of the fact that Mr. Upshaw had spoken forty-nine times free," as Mr. J. W. Bailey said in his breezy speech of introduction, "and in face of the Choral Society preparations and the Brass Band Concert, the Georgia man drew the largest lecture crowd that has been seen in Raleigh in years."

After Miss Sherrell, a gifted student of the University, had rendered a charming piano solo, Mr. Bailey presented the speaker in a brilliant and witty speech that put the crowd in good humor.

Mr. Upshaw was "on the spot" and made good in his celebrated lecture, "Climbing Upward." Hundreds of young people were thrilled, and went away with the purpose fixed in their hearts to strive for the noblest and best things in life.

Mr. Upshaw was heartily applauded when he announced that a telegram received yesterday from Mississippi relieved him of an engagement in that state and thus enabled him to remain in North Carolina next Sunday, and that he would speak at the Tabernacle Sunday morning and night.

THIRD REGIMENT BAND
GAVE ENJOYABLE CONCERT.

The first of the five concerts by the Third Regiment Band was given last night in Metropolitan Hall and there was a large and appreciative audience in attendance. In every respect the concert was a complete success and the numbers were rendered with artistic skill. The audience was very appreciative, which fact was shown by frequent applause and on several occasions the band had to respond to encores.

The "Indian War Dance" was perhaps more enjoyed than any of the selections and next came the "Bohemian Girl." A vocal quartette composed of Messrs. Esterling, Sawyer, Hagedorn and Feiz rendered several numbers which was so much enjoyed that they had to respond to several encores. Director Gustax Hagedorn and his band were highly complimented.

Reserved seat tickets for the remaining four concerts can be purchased for $1.00, while single admission tickets, for the first floor, will be fifty cents.
