

THE WEAKENING BOND BETWEEN CHURCH AND STATE PARTS AT LAST

five and fifteen days' imprisonment, with the right of appeal, sterner measures may be necessary, and the government will probably accept the bill introduced in the chamber of deputies yesterday by M. Meunier, republican, providing that all buildings, presbyteries, and so on, occupied by ecclesiastics shall definitely eschew to the state, the departments and the communes upon the enactment of the law providing for the separation of church and state, and at once make arrangements that the sequestered property shall not be used, like the hospitals, for special purposes or public charities; to suppress the suspensions of clergy who do not conform with the laws of 1795 and 1881, and to summon all the priests of military age to the colors, to serve their time in the army with other Frenchmen liable to military duty.

Mistakes Temper of People.
The tone of the republican press of all shades indicates that if the pope imagines that an uncompromising attitude will compel the French government to open negotiations with the vatican he has woefully mistaken the temper of the people, which favors a more hostile rather than a more conciliatory attitude. The Republic Française says:

"The time has passed when a pope could successfully threaten to release French subjects from their allegiance. Defiance of the law will only expose the priests to being regarded as the subjects of a foreign power, by which they would forfeit their rights as 'Frenchmen.'"

After a meeting of the cabinet ministers today, it was announced that on December 14th Premier Clemenceau will ask parliament to suppress the pensions of the clergy to liquidate the public property of Catholics and to distribute the presbyteries, seminaries, etc.

Secretary Montagnini Arrested.
Mgr. Montagnini, secretary of the papal nunciature here since the recall of the nuncio, was arrested this afternoon upon an order expelling him from France, and will be conducted to the frontier tonight. The residence of Mgr. Montagnini was searched by the police.

SPAIN WALKS IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF FRANCE.
Madrid, Dec. 11.—The premier, the Marquis De Armiño, ex-Premier Moré and ex-President of the Chamber of Deputies Canalejas, leader of the new party known as the extreme liberals, are sounding the vatican authorities as to whether they are prepared to support a law of associations with certain modifications. If the pope is found intransigent, they intend to press the law as now drafted in its entirety.

Formal notice was served during the day on Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, and the bishops and parish priests of this department that they must evacuate their residences tomorrow.

Similar notices were served on the clergy in the other departments notifying them to leave their residences on Thursday or Friday.

CONGRATULATIONS TO FRANCE COME FROM ROME.
Rome, Dec. 11.—Signor Mirabelli, republican, at the opening of today's session of the chamber of deputies introduced a resolution which was adopted to the effect that the chamber sends its warm congratulations to France on the anti-clerical policy which it is following, "as tending to secularize the state and render the human conscience independent."

INQUIRY BEGAN INTO WRECK AT LAWYERS

(By the Associated Press.)
Richmond, Va., Dec. 11.—The corporation commission began today the investigation of the recent accident on the Southern Railway in which President Spencer lost his life. Judge Crump, chairman of the commission, announced that the investigation was for the purpose of ascertaining the facts and causes of the accident with a view to the fixing of the responsibility at least, if not the blame, for the wreck, and, in addition, with a view of preventing further recurrences. Most of the testimony so far relates to the working of the block system.

GALLOWS BEING BUILT

To Hang Ben Williams Here Thursday Week

The Negro Killed Aleck Clark, Another Negro, Last February, Calling Him Out of a House and Shooting Him—Supreme Court Confirmed Judgment of Death.

The scaffold is being built in the yard of the county jail for the hanging of the negro Ben Williams on the 20th of this month, one week from next Thursday.

Williams is the negro who shot and killed Aleck Clark, another negro, near Salisbury and Johnson streets last February. Both were employed by the Seaboard Air Line Railroad. They had quarreled, and Williams, who was drunk, went home and got his pistol, telling some one that he was "going to kill him a nigger." He went to the house where Clark lived, on Salisbury street, near Johnson, called him out and shot him. He then took the next train to Hamlet, where he was arrested.

At the trial in superior court here Williams' attorney, Mr. Charles U. Harris, made a strong fight for him, contending that since he was drunk at the time there could not have been the premeditation and deliberation necessary for murder in the first degree, and tending a plea of murder in the second degree. The jury was out all night, but the verdict was guilty of murder in the first degree. Then the case was taken up to the supreme court on appeal, but the judgment of the lower court was affirmed. Governor Glenn set December 20 as the day for the execution.

There is no likelihood of a respite or commutation of sentence. The gallows is being built immediately back of the jail, between the building and Salisbury street. A high board fence is being put up around the scaffold.

Fifteen citizens have formed a corporation to be known as the Pacific Ocean Exposition Company which plans to give a mammoth fair in 1915 to commemorate the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean by Balboa and the completion of the Panama Canal.

MR. BOYLAN ON CONSOLIDATION

Interstate Manager Says Plans Practically Made.

MERCHANTS ARE SILENT

Only Waiting for Granting of Franchise to Capital City Telephone, Says Mr. Boylan, the New Company to Buy Raleigh Property of Both Bell and Interstate—Some of the Plans.

A reporter for The Evening Times interviewed Manager William Boylan of the Interstate Telephone Company in regard to the present strained relations between that company and the Merchants' Association of this city.

Mr. Boylan said that as he understood the matter, so far as his company were practically completed for the sale of its Raleigh property to the Capital City Telephone Company at the same time that the sale of the Raleigh property of the Southern Bell Telephone Company shall be made. In other words, that both the Interstate and Bell in Raleigh are to sell to the new company.

The only thing that was needed now, said Mr. Boylan, to enable the physical consolidation of the properties to be effected was the granting of the franchise by the board of aldermen to the new company, and he thought this would be done about Friday.

Mr. Boylan said that the plan of the new company was to run the wires underground in the business portion of the city and to build lines over the county to all places where as many as three telephones are used. Engineers have been at work, he says, on the plans since October. Subscribers to either the Bell or the Interstate will, after the consolidation, have the Capital City telephone.

Mr. Boylan said that as he understood the law it would be illegal for either company to operate under the franchise of the other, or for the new company to operate under the franchise of either or both of the old companies. There will be a new board of directors for the new company.

Secretary Edgar E. Broughton of the Merchants' Association was asked by The Times reporter for a statement, but he said that for the present the association preferred to say nothing.

The Druggists' Association has adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That we pay for the Interstate telephone for the month of December, and this resolution shall be notice to the company to have this phone cut out of the drug stores on the 31st of December."

Inquiry at the office of the Interstate Telephone Company this afternoon brought the information that about six merchants had cut out the telephone.

EX-GOVERNOR MOSES IS DEAD

(By the Associated Press.)
Winthrop, Mass., Dec. 11.—Former Governor Franklin J. Moses of South Carolina was found dead in bed at his lodging house at Winthrop Beach today, being caused by asphyxiation. When his room was broken into gas was found escaping from a small stove which was used to heat the place. Mr. Moses was sixty years of age. He had resided in Winthrop for several years and occasionally had acted as moderator at its town meeting.

Mr. Moses, it is said, died in comparative poverty.

LYMAN ABBOTT ON THE COMING AGE.

(Special to The Evening Times.)
Trinity College, Durham, N. C., Dec. 11.—Dr. Lyman Abbott of New York City, editor of The Outlook, lectured in the Craven Memorial Hall last night at 8 o'clock. Practically all the students heard him, and although the weather was exceedingly bad, a large number of the city people was present. His subject was "The Coming Age."

Dr. Abbott said that there have been two ages in the history of the world, and that we are now passing into a third. First there was the age of paternalism, examples of which are the Hebrew and Roman peoples. Then came the individualistic age, a heightened example of which is the American Indian. In this age men looked not to a superior for their ideas of life as they had done in the preceding, but each man was a wholly independent unit with ideals and purposes of his own, irrespective of other men. But we are now passing into the age of fraternalism. Here men will consider themselves parts of one great whole, where all must labor for the greatest common good to all.

This spirit of fraternalism manifests itself in the three great departments of human activity—religion, industry, and government. In religion no man sees all the truth—only a part; therefore each must respect and honor all others. In industry men show marked advancement toward co-operation and brotherhood, and in government the laws are coming to be administered more and more according to the one great ideal society where all men are members of one great family.

Dr. Abbott will lecture again today to the student body of the college.

"I'll take a little MARK ROGERS, please." Say that in a earnest way—say it like you mean it. You've the right to specify the brand you want, and it's your duty, too.

When you don't specify a brand of good whiskey, you generally get "any old brand" that's usually served in an unlabelled bottle—the kind that shows a long profit for the house—the cheaper kind.

MARK ROGERS is made for men who think enough of their toddy to specify the brand—for men who really can appreciate a good whiskey. A whiskey that's always just a little better in good company.

At good places; but be sure to specify.
