

CRY OF OUT WITH THIS BLACK MAN

His Presence in Department Rouses a Fume

PETITION BY WHITES

Employment of Negro Draughtsman in the Architect's Office of the Treasury is Followed by a General Request from the White Employes of the Office for His Removal.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, March 27.—Requesting that the negro draughtsman recently appointed to a position in the architect's office of the treasury be removed from the department, a petition signed by practically all the employes in the division was presented to Secretary Cortelyou yesterday. As a result the matter will probably be taken up with President Roosevelt in the near future. Altogether there are about eighty architects employed in the draughting department.

The question has been before the white architects for some time. In fact ever since the colored man began work, about two weeks ago. One man, a Virginian, has even gone so far as not only to sign the petition, but has resigned his position. This was done, however, with the understanding that he may resume his duties within the next few months, providing he changes his mind. Several of the old employes have also threatened to give up their jobs.

To Consult the President. Several days ago, upon his return from New York, the petition was placed in the hands of Supervising Architect Taylor. This official, in turn, took the paper before the secretary who, it is said, will consult President Roosevelt with reference to the incident.

Something like 250 different draughting jobs are on hand in the architect division, which has brought about an unusually large amount of work. Architects were found to be short, and the supervising architect was compelled to seek civil service appointees for the places. In this way the negro entered the office.

Several of the white men complain that they are compelled to work side by side with the colored man and at the same tables. In addition to the indignation that had already been aroused, the proximity of the colored man with the white architects caused the others to meet among themselves, with the result of a petition being circulated requesting Secretary Cortelyou to take some action.

WILL BE EFFORT FOR A NEW TRIAL

The case on appeal from Alamance county, in which Annie Turner, the negro woman who was found guilty of being an accessory of Henry Walker, who made an attempt to murder Col. L. Banks Holt, is to be heard in the supreme court Tuesday. She was convicted and sentenced to thirty years in the state prison.

A new trial is asked on three grounds: First, that the judge refused to order a removal when an affidavit was made that a fair trial could not be had in Alamance county on account of the feeling that had been engendered.

Secondly, Col. L. Banks Holt was allowed to answer the following question, "What seemed, and what was, the relation between Henry Walker and Annie Turner and Fannie McGain?" The defense objected to the question, but the court ruled against them and an exception was taken.

The third exception was the failure of the judge to charge that there was no evidence tending to show motive on the part of Annie Turner.

It is on these points that a new trial is asked. Henry Walker, it will be remembered, was convicted during the first part of December and hanged early in January. The case was tried before Judge Fred Moore.

KISSES HER COUNSEL

Mrs. Josephine Kelly Acquitted of Murder

She Flings Her Arms Around the Neck of Her Aged Counsel, and With Streaming Eyes Presses a Kiss Upon His Cheek.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Baltimore, Md., March 27.—When the jury announced that Mrs. Josephine Kelly was not guilty of the murder of her sister, Ida Gaff, she jumped up and threw her arms about her senior counsel, United States Senator William Pinkney Whyte, hugged him, and kissed him on the cheek. Tears were streaming down her face. Congressman Harry B. Wolf, the handsome junior counsel, was temporarily absent. The old war horse of democracy, as soon as he could discharge himself, said: "You see, I am not too old for the ladies."

During this little scene, there were but few dry eyes, in the court room and even Judge Dobler, who has sat on many a murder case, looked with sympathetic eyes upon Mrs. Kelly as she pressed her affection for those about her.

Having been declared innocent, the prisoner accompanied by her husband, then left the court room, to be joined by the latter's two sisters. The party afterward left for the Mullikin Street home, where the couple will still reside.

The trial was the eighteenth homicide case in which Senator Whyte, now eighty years old, has appeared. Recalled by a young lawyer bonded to the victim of the Marjorie Harsh case, he had tried six murder cases and but one of his clients was hanged. Whyte gently retorted, "I have tried sixty and none was hanged."

SUDDEN DEATH OF A COTTON OPERATOR.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, March 27.—While in consultation with the members of the firm of J. H. Lane & Company, commission merchants in their office in Worth street, shortly before noon yesterday, John W. Chaffee, a prominent cotton operator of Augusta, Ga., was stricken with apoplexy. He was removed to the Hudson street hospital and died at 7 o'clock last evening. Mr. Chaffee was the father-in-law of J. H. Lane, senior member of the firm and was about sixty years of age.

CAROLINA AND LAFAYETTE TIE

(Special to The Evening Times.) Chapel Hill, N. C., March 27.—Carolina tied Lafayette yesterday in a tenning game with a score of five to five. The game was called on account of darkness.

The features of the game were Thompson's fielding and batting, the playing of Knox on shortstop, and the three-bagger by Swank. The game was a very slow one, the pitching of both sides being sorry. Carolina scored in the second inning, but in the third Lafayette made four runs, two of them being forced. In the sixth inning Carolina was one run in the lead, but Swank's three-bagger in the eighth inning and subsequent run tied the score, five to five, where it remained until the tenth inning, when the game was called on account of darkness.

Score by Innings: R H E Carolina 5 10 1 Lafayette 5 8 5 Batteries: Carolina, Morrow and Rogers; Lafayette, Edwards and Snook. Summary: Struck out by Morrow 3, by Edwards 7; three base hits, one by Swank of Lafayette; two base hits, Carolina 2; umpire, Dr. Lawson; two base hits by Lafayette.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is in itself actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—must have more power, more stability, more controlling more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have this same controlling power. This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, fluttering heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—the popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wavering nerve centers. It builds up strength; it offers real, positive heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strength through the nerves—re-establish them as needed—

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

Simple Prescription for Home Made Kidney Cure

A BLESSING TO MANY

Makes the Kidneys Act and Overcomes Rheumatism and Bladder Troubles.

To make up enough of the "vegetable treatment" which is claimed to be relieving nearly every sufferer who uses it for backache, kidney complaint, sore weak bladder and rheumatism; get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, once ounce Compound Kargon and three ounces Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

Those who have tried it claim that it acts gently but thoroughly on the kidneys, relieving backache and bladder trouble and urinary difficulties almost instantly. Many cases of rheumatism are known to have been relieved within a few days, the pain and swelling diminishing with each dose. A well-known local druggist, who is in a position to know, asserts that this prescription, wherever it becomes known, always ruins the sales of the numerous patent medicine rheumatism cures, kidney cures, etc. It is a prescription which the majority of patent medicine manufacturers, and even certain physicians dislike to see published. Few cases, indeed, which will fail to fully yield to its peculiarly soothing and healing influence. Being composed of common every-day vegetable ingredients, which can be gotten from any druggist, it makes up a good, honest and harmless remedy and at small cost.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY RALEIGH ELKS

At the meeting of the Elks last night the officers for the ensuing year were elected, and it is thought that they will give general satisfaction. In several instances there were warm contests, but all ended well and the Elks in perfect harmony. The principal fight was over the election of exalted ruler.

The election resulted as follows: Exalted Ruler—Dr. S. P. Norris. Esteemed Leading Knight—W. A. Linehan. Esteemed Royal Knight—J. R. Perraill. Esteemed Lecturing Knight—Jas I. Johnson.

Treasurer—Jno. W. Cross. Secretary—Jas. F. Jordan. Tyler—H. J. Hervey. Grand Representative—R. T. Gowan. Trustee for 3 years—L. A. Mahler.

The past year has been the most prosperous one in the history of the organization in this city, and the completion of the handsome Elks Temple was effected at a cost of $35,000. It is a modern club building in every respect and one that the Elks of Raleigh may well feel proud of. They will now start forward on another year, and it is with the brightest prospects.

Last night, after the election of officers, a banquet was held and the evening spent in a most festive manner.

JUNIOR BARACAS BEAT CENTENNIALS

In a slow game of baseball yesterday afternoon the Centennial School, the Junior Baracas team defeated the Centennial team by a score of 18 to 0. James Belvin, for the Baracas team, did excellent work at first base and at the bat, making two home runs with two men on base each time. H. Oldham did some good work for the Baracas in left field. Bogasse, for Centennial, also did some nice playing in the field.

The line-up was as follows: Centennial—Conrad, B. s.; Rogers, H. c. f.; Riddle, S. c.; Hogue, E. 1b.; Batteries: Carolina, Morrow and Rogers; Lafayette, Edwards and Snook. Summary: Struck out by Morrow 3, by Edwards 7; three base hits, one by Swank of Lafayette; two base hits, Carolina 2; umpire, Dr. Lawson; two base hits by Lafayette.

TO BE TRIED FOR AN ATROCIOUS CRIME.

Jackson, N. C., March 27.—Court convened here yesterday, Judge C. C. Lynn, presiding. His charge to the grand jury was a masterly effort. This term of the court will have more capital cases than have been in Northampton for the past twenty years, there being three of the criminal docket. One is the case of Matthews for the murder of young Wm. Rainey on January 17th. This was a most shocking and atrocious crime. The fact that he was not summarily dealt with, proves the confidence the people of Northampton have in the law and their ability to control their passions. Solicitor Kerr is proving himself to be an efficient and competent officer.

HERE SOLICITING FUNDS FOR CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY.

Mrs. Mary Bohm is here this week soliciting funds for the North Carolina Children's Home Society, and she may be addressed at Mrs. Hefflin's. This society is already well known in this city and fifteen little ones have been received from Raleigh. Since the society was organized something over three years ago, two hundred children have been placed in homes and instead of being raised up as homeless waifs, they are provided for by those who feel deeply interested in their welfare. A great work has the society done. It is non-sectarian and is supported solely by voluntary gifts.
