COURTS MUST DECIDE POINT

Assistant Attorney General Hands Down Decision

THE $500 TO BE HELD

Opinion is to Effect That Dispute as to Salary of Corporation Commissioners is a Matter for the Courts—Recommendation That Money be Held Until it is Decided.

The corporation commissioners will not get the additional $500 allowed in the revenue act for the present, at least, says the assistant attorney general in his opinion in regard to the matter recommended that the pay be withheld until the courts can decide upon the point under dispute. As far as the point under discussion is concerned no decision is made but it is recommended that the court pass upon the matter.

The decision of Mr. Hayden Clement, assistant attorney general, is as follows:

Patrol N. C., April 10th, 1907.

Hon. R. P. Dixon, State Auditor, Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Replying to your favor requesting my opinion as to whether you should issue vouchers to the state treasurer for the corporation commissioners' salary in the sum of three thousand or they are to be held until the determination of a bona fide claim against the state, and according to trend of the decisions of our supreme court, this authority has never been recognized in the office of the attorney general. It is a bona fide claim against the state, and is a question for the judiciary to settle. Were the attorney general to take upon himself the authority and responsibility of passing upon this claim, it is evident that it would be his duty to pass upon and determine each and every claim against the state, and this is not a part of his duty. For were he to pass upon these several claims against the state, it would be incumbent upon the state treasurer to act upon the opinion of the Attorney General and the state auditor.

Bank vs. Worth, 117 N. C. 155.

It is, in my opinion, therefore, the facts being undisputed, that the parties should get together and agree upon the facts, and submit it as a controversy without action to the judge of the superior court of the sixth judicial district, at chambers, and let the supreme court decide it; and in the meantime I advise that the five hundred dollars additional salary claimed by the corporation commissioners be withheld until the action is finally determined by the supreme court. Very truly yours,

HAYDEN CLEMENT,
Assistant attorney general.

MONARCHIST DEPUTY EXPELLED FROM DUMA.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
St. Petersburg, April 12.—The suspension from the duma of M. Purishevich, the monarchist deputy and vice president of the Union of the True Russian People, together with a covert threat made on Premier Stolypin in a letter to M. Golovin, president of the duma, caused a general belief today that dissolution is not far distant.

Premier Stolypin, in his letter to M. Golovin, saying that it will not be permitted to use outside experts on the committee to consider the imperial budget, makes the statement that he is moved to write, hoping for an agreement "without resorting to extreme measures."

The suspension of M. Purishevich amounted practically to expulsion. He suddenly called upon the duma to rise, with a mark of respect to the memories of those killed by the revolutionists. He was ruled out of order, and then insulted M. Golovin. A large majority of the body concurred in the vote of suspension.

MRS. CLAUSSEN IS OFF TO TAKE A REST

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Washington, April 12.—Mrs. Ida M. Von Claussen, after issuing another statement of defiance to the white house, left Washington last night for New York, where she will recuperate from her futile campaign to see the president. She declares she will return in a few days and renew the battle for vindication, so that she may be presented at the court of Sweden by Minister Graves.

Mrs. Von Claussen, in the statement she distributed, declares:

"I have concluded that I have no chance of redress at the hands of President Roosevelt at the state department. But I want to say, with all the emphasis that the wounded spirit of a resolute woman is capable of commanding, that I shall pursue this issue to the end, and that end has not yet been reached by any means. I demand reparation for the insult offered me at Stockholm, and I shall certainly have it."

GRAVES MAKES PEOPLE STARE

Astounding Speech of His at Chattanooga

WHAT THE POST SAYS

Nothing Coming from a Democrat in Recent Years Has Attracted More Attention Than Graves' Suggestion That Bryan Should Nominat Roosevelt for Another Term.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Washington, D. C., April 12.—The Washington Post says this morning: "Nothing coming from a democrat in recent years has attracted more attention among politicians than the speech of John Temple Graves, the distinguished Georgia editor, at the Bryan anniversary club dinner at Chattanooga (Wednesday night). Mr. Graves, whose democracy no man can impeach, took the advanced ground that Mr. Bryan, at the forthcoming democratic national convention should nominate Mr. Roosevelt for another term."

"He did this on the theory that more democratic policies had been enacted into law under Mr. Roosevelt than any democrat could hope to equal, and that with the senate as it now stands, no democratic president could work reforms along purely democratic lines. For this reason he believed another four years of Roosevelt would be for the best good of the country, in that it would advance democratic principles."

"Whatever the president may have thought of this utterance, he did not find it convenient to take the public into his confidence. He declined to discuss for publication or make any comment on this remarkable speech, and from Secretary Loub it was impossible to obtain any idea as to how the president felt about this unexpected indorsement of his policies."

DOOR BARRED ON OAK RIDGE TEAM

(Special to The Evening Times.)
Wake Forest College, N. C., April 12.—Wake Forest cleaned up Oak Ridge property here yesterday afternoon in a pretty game of ball resulting in a score of eleven to nothing.

It looked as though it would be easy for the home team from the very beginning, when, in the first inning, Freeman put a pretty hit through the pitcher, Hamrick knocked a fly across the road, J. Turner knocked a liner right field, F. Turner a hit to center, Every hit to rest, all resulting in five runs to begin with, and has probably never been so much hitting in one inning on the Wake Forest diamond at the expense of a first class school.

In the eighth, Wake Forest's last inning, it was a regular merry-go-round, nearly every man that went to the bat got a hit, Oak Ridge became bewildered and the home team continued to score.

One interesting feature of the game was when in the ninth inning with two men down and only one more to be fanned by Turner, a cow which had gotten loose, entered the inner diamond, cut capers and interrupted the game. It was a little while before she could be run from the ball ground.

Score by innings: THE OAK RIDGE . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 1 1 Wake Forest . . . 5 0 0 1 1 0 4 x—11 17 1 Struck out by Turner 4, by Mayberry 6.

Wake Forest and Oak Ridge play here again this afternoon and A. & M. and Wake Forest play here tomorrow. Mr. Harry Haldrof, one of the Oak Ridge pitchers, was called to his home at Hendersonville on account of the critical illness of his father.

THE HEARING TO BE CONCLUDED IN RALEIGH.

(Special to The Evening Times.)
Greensboro, N. C., April 12.—Hearing in the case of W. L. Watson, trustee of the W. W. Mills Lumber Company, vs. The Proximity Manufacturing Company, was adjourned yesterday until a later date, when it will be concluded in Raleigh. The hearing was begun here Wednesday before Richard H. Battle, of Raleigh, referee, in the office of King & Kimball.

The plaintiff was represented by R. C. Strong of Raleigh, and the defendant by James H. Post of Raleigh and King & Kimball of this city. The amount involved is about $20,000, the defendant having a counter-claim of about $20,000.

Ready-to-wear clothing is the sartorial wooden nutmeg—it is flat, uninteresting and but a weak imitation of clothes made for you. When you buy the former kind, you are bound to be misled somewhere, and you save nothing but time in the transaction, and time is pretty cheap when you go "suit shopping."

Clothes made for you—the kind we make, are fresh, full of life, snappy, good looking and long wearing—all because they fit you.
