niversity Desires Permanent Quarters in Raleigh

Trustees Was in Session Today and Named Special Committee to Take Matter in Hand-Work Has Begun on lufirmary at University.

The executive committee of the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina met today in the governor's office for the purpose of discussing what should be done in regard to making more permanent arrangements for the medical departent of the University of North Carolina in this city. Those present were: Maj. John W. Graham of Hillsboro, who presided in the absence of the governor; Mr. R. H. Battle, Mr. Claudius Dockery, Mr. F. H. Busbee, Dr. R. H. Lewis, Col. T. S. Kenan and Mr. Josephus Danjels of Raleigh, President Venable and Dr. H. A. Royster, dean of the medical depart ment in this city.

At the present time the medical department occupies a building on Fayetteville street, south of the Yarborough House, but it is both too small and not the kind of building that is desired. The situation was fully discussed, and resulted in the appointment of a special committee, composed of Dr. R. H. Lewis, Mr. Josephus Daniels and Mr. F. H. Bus bee, to take the matter in hand and see what can be done. The trustees were in session about an hour, and practically all of the time was con sumed in discussing this matter.

President Venable states that work is progressing nicely on the infirmary morning from the western part of the building at the University and the state, where he had been in the interroof is now being placed on the new lest of the department. While out of library. Both buildings will be completed before the next session.

AN ATTEMPT TO

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Philadelphia, Pa., April 19.—Another sensational attempt to wreck an express train, this time on the Reading Railway, occurred last night near Gyned Station. Two men, carrying dynamite and other articles, were responsible for the effort, which was frustrated by the engineer of the tained by the farmers of this state by train. The affair occurred between Gyned and Penlyn stations, not far from here. Joseph McDermott, engineer of the southbound train, saw two men working at the rails about 200 feet ahead. He brought the train to a sudden stop and sounded the whistle at the same time.

The men jumped to their feet and ran into the woods and disappeared. The engineer and the train crew found two sticks of dynamite near not had the opportunity to do any signal system.
