DR. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY

For about eight or ten years I was subject to severe attacks of Eczema, which would last for several weeks. I would try local treatments and doctors' medicines, which would relieve for a while, but it would always return, and everything failed in permanent effect. I then determined to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, two years ago. I took it regularly for six months, using a dozen and a half bottles, and it made a perfect cure of me. It has been over a year since I stopped taking the Remedy and I have never had a touch of the trouble since, and my general health is excellent.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The public schools of Raleigh will be closed for the day on Monday, the 20th instant, on account of the unveiling of the statue of the late Ensign Worth Bagley. They will close Friday, the 24th instant, until next fall.

The office hours of the Western Union Telegraph Company in Raleigh on Sundays are: 7 to 11 a. m.; 12.45 to 3.15 p. m.; 4 to 6 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Haywood Hall, colored, got stuck for $5.35 in police court this morning for being drunk and disorderly on the street. Haywood told Attorney Snow and Justice Badger all about it at the trial. It wasn't his fault. Somebody ran a vehicle at him, and he had drunk some, and might have done it. Justice Badger took the view that Haywood did, and Haywood had to pay.

PERSONALS.

Postmaster Thomas E. Wallace, of Wilmington, is spending the day in the city.

Mr. E. H. Cozman, general superintendent of this division of the Southern Railway, is spending the day in the city on business connected with the road.

THE ILLUMINATION SPECIAL ON MAY 13

A special train to be operated by the Seaboard Air Line to Norfolk on Monday, May 13th, will leave Raleigh at 11:45 instead of 6 a. m., as was previously announced. This will place the train in Norfolk about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and it will be met by a boat which will carry the passengers between the fleets so as they can get a complete view of the illumination of the fleets of the world that are now assembled in Hampton Roads. Passengers who go to the exposition on this special will not be required to return on that train, but can come back any time within ten days.

PIEDMONT RY. CO. GRANTED CHARTER

The town of Salisbury is to have a new street car line, a company having got a charter today for the purpose of manufacturing and producing light, power, heat, etc. The company is known as the Piedmont Carolina Railway Company, with headquarters at Salisbury. Authorized capital stock is $100,000, with privilege of beginning business with $3,000. Incorporators are: T. H. Vandorfer, 10 shares; W. F. Snider, 10, and J. H. Horah, 10.

MR. C. P. GRAY, PULLEN SOCIETY, WON THE MEDAL

The bad weather last night did not prevent those who attended the declamatory contest in Pullen auditorium of the A. & M. College from enjoying a treat. The young men who faced the audience acquitted themselves well. Mr. C. P. Gray, of the Pullen Society, however, was voted the best declaimer, and he was awarded the gold medal that has been given by Prof. D. H. Hill, head of the English department.

WARNED AGAINST DEFACING PROPERTY

Since depredations of the public school property have been quite frequent of late, the school committee has deemed it necessary to adopt the following resolutions, which will be strictly enforced:

Whereas, the public school property of Raleigh township has from time to time been seriously damaged, and the officers and teachers in charge of the same have been greatly annoyed by evil-disposed persons, who maliciously and wantonly injure the same by cutting, marking, defacing and otherwise mutilating the furniture and buildings; and, whereas, the further deterioration of such offences will seriously hinder, frustrate and annul our efforts to teach the youth of our community; and, whereas, it has been suggested that such depredations are committed by pupils of our own schools before and after school hours and upon Saturdays and Sundays and public holidays; now, therefore, in order to shield our pupils from such malicious intrusions and to put them beyond the pale of suspicion, be it

ON THURSDAY NIGHT

Much interest is being shown in the approaching debate between the three literary societies of the A. & M. College, which will occur next Thursday night.

The question to be discussed is one of timely interest, being the one which is at present engaging more serious attention than any other one, this being the railway problem, of which we hear and read so much.

In this debate there will be three resolutions proposed and argued:

1. Strictly private control.
2. Governmental supervision.
3. Government ownership.

These will be discussed in the order named by two senior representatives each from the Leazer, Pullen and Ternerian Societies.

The judges at the debate will be Associate Justice Montgomery, Insurance Commissioner Young, and Mr. H. H. Battle.

The people of Raleigh should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this subject discussed intelligently.

BANKERS INVITED TO VISIT RALEIGH

Efforts are being made to get the North Carolina Bankers' Association to meet in this city on May 22nd to 24th. If the bankers should decide to visit Raleigh they would be given a royal welcome, and there is no city in the state better known for its hospitality.

The following telegram was sent to the secretary of the Bankers' Association today:

"Mr. W. A. Hunt, Secretary N. C. Bankers' Ass'n, Henderson, N. C.: 'We tender a cordial invitation to the North Carolina Bankers' Association to hold their annual meeting in Raleigh, May 22-24.'

"If they do us the honor to accept we assure them a hearty welcome and a pleasant visit to our city."

SOLDIER DIED AT HOME YESTERDAY

Mr. James F. Willis, aged 71 years, died at the Soldiers' Home yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Though suffering from curvature of the spine, the immediate cause of death was produced by erysipelas. Mr. Willis had been an inmate of the home since 1902, when he came here from Bladen county. For the past three years he had been unable to leave his bed.

Mr. Willis was a member of Company C, First Florida Battalion, and served with credit in the civil war. He is survived by several children, and a brother, who was a member of the legislature four years ago.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3:30 and the interment will be in the Confederate cemetery. Rev. L. H. Jones, pastor of Central Methodist Church, will conduct the services.

Two Youngsters in Jail.

Jim Holmes and Chester Glenn, two colored boys, were sent to jail by Justice Separk today for trespass. The boys are rather small, Glenn in particular being very minute. They were indicted for trespassing in the yard of some woman. They couldn't pay, and will probably do time on the roads.

ARE TO ERECT A $1,500 BUILDING

The Cage Springs School, which closed a most successful year yesterday, gave a picnic yesterday and held exercises last night. County Superintendent Judd was a speaker at the picnic. An entertainment tonight will end the closing exercises.

Mr. K. H. McIntyre, principal of the Wendell School, stated this morning that the people in the district of Cage Springs are soon to have a new $1,500 school building. Of this amount the patriotic citizens of the district will give half.
