WORK OF BLACK HAND'

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)" New York, May 8.-Two women, a mother and her handsome daugh-

tar, were butcherod in their home No. 320 Chrystle street, today, When the police came a little girl of three -a child of the younger victim-lay meeping beside her mother.

There are two theories as to the murders. One is that the women had come upon secrets of the "Black Hand" society, and were killed by the husband of the younger woman, who is alleged to be a member of that band of criminals. . . . The theory is that mother and daughter were murdered by two strange men who entered their spart-ments while they were sleeping and cut their bodies to pieces.

The dead women are Mrs. Maria Briguoli, 55 years old, a widow, and Maria Zito, twenty-four, her daugh-ter, whose husband Giovanni, nas long been suspected of being a leader of secret organizations. The hus-band is under arrest charged with the double murder, and he told the police that two mysterious men climbed into his apartments on the top floor rear of the six-story tenesilling.
