CZAR ENRAGED OVER DEFIANCE OF DOUMA

DISSOLUTION OF PARLIAMENT

Czar's Decree Will Provoke Drench of Blood

TIME FOR REVOLUTION

Is Believed to Be Ripe and Facies of Monarchy Say Chance for Successful Overthrow of Present Dynasty Was Never So Favorable as Now—Troops Distributed Throughout St. Petersburg Today in Anticipation of the Trouble That is Imminent.

(Special Cable to The Times.) St. Petersburg, June 15.—The czar was enraged today by the defiance of the douma in refusing his demand to immediately suspend fifty-five of its social democratic members and consent to the arrest of sixteen conspirators against the throne.

Surrounded by the council of ministers, he waited in the Peterhof palace for the douma to put its defiance into formal shape, when he would issue a decree dissolving the parliament.

Then will begin a struggle between the government and people that may drench the empire in blood and astound the world.

Troops have been quietly distributed throughout the city in anticipation of disorder. The Tauride palace, in which the douma is preparing to put its defiance in formal shape, is surrounded by cossacks. The guard at the palace has been strengthened.

Members of the douma expect the dissolution of that body today. Preparations are going forward actively throughout the empire for the calling immediately of a great conference.

This is but the preliminary step to an armed uprising, in which it is believed that the troops will side with the people against the autocracy and the czar.

Never before have conditions been so favorable to a successful revolution. The government is aware of this, and has taken every precaution to suppress the initial uprisings, although not in any way seeking to avert the issue.

This also will end the hope of the Russian people for real representation in the affairs of the government, as a new bill will be promulgated, and being educational and property qualifications for membership in the douma and for voters. In this way the body will be made entirely subservient to the czar.

The final action of the douma will come tonight when its committee will report on Stolypin's demand, which the house rejected by an overwhelming vote. The action of the committee is expected to be a defiance of Stolypin.

CHICAGO OLYMPIA BURNED DOWN

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Chicago, Ill., June 15.—The Olympia Theater, the oldest vaudeville house in Chicago, was practically destroyed by fire at midnight. The loss will exceed $150,000.

The fire caused terror among the guests in the Union Hotel, which adjoins the theater on the east. All were advised to pack their trunks and vacate.

Crossed electric wires are supposed to have caused the fire. Chief Horah of the fire department was felled to the floor by a shower of debris, and but for his helmet would probably have been killed. Five of his men were hurt.

CONTRACT FOR THE NEW DERELICT DESTROYER.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, D. C., June 15.—The treasury department will accept the bid of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company for the construction of an innovation in seagoing vessels—a derelict destroyer. It will be 264 feet long with a beam 34 feet, have a displacement of 1,100 tons, cost $350,000 and must be completed June 1908. The vessel will likely be stationed at New York and will be under contract of the revenue cutter service.

STEVE ADAMS NEXT MONDAY

State's Attorneys Will Try to Draw Him Out

IS UGLY AND DEFIANT

Prosecution Evidently Weak On Witnesses to Corroborate Orchard and to Prove Existence of Alleged General Conspiracy—Adams Won't Swear Anybody to the Gallews—Today's Proceedings in Court.

(By J. S. DUNNIGAN.)

Boise, Idaho, June 15.—Steve Adams, accused assassin with Harry Orchard, is to be put to the test Monday or Tuesday. The prosecutors of Haywood have decided to call Adams and confront him with the confession which he claims was extorted from him by duress and deceit, a confession he has since repudiated as false and baseless.

Adams, after being taken into court for identification yesterday, was more than defiant in his expressions toward the state.

Haywood and his lawyers are exceedingly sanguine. The state has no evidence with which to corroborate Orchard in the essential things to connect Haywood with the killing of Steunenberg.

Barrow and Richardson are more than confident that the attempt to prove a general murder conspiracy in the Western Federation of Miners is about to fall and they expect Judge Wood will at the proper time rule out practically all of Orchard's confessions except his own admissions of guilt.

These surmises are based upon conditions that developed over night.
The state has had a year to gather incriminating evidence and so far as the list of witnesses indicates anything the defense believes that the conspiracy charge is unfounded.

Senator Borah and Special Prosecutor Hawley insist that they have sufficient credible testimony to warrant a conviction, and they declare will produce it in court.

The state's case is expected to be all in by next Saturday.

Today's Court Proceedings.

Boise, Idaho, June 15.—Abominable weather has much diminished attendance at the Haywood trial. This morning's crowd was small, only a few spectators attending. None of Haywood's family are in court and the only spectators of note is Lieut.
George Steunenberg, brother of Orchard's victim. When court recon-vened the state resumed presenting corroboration of Orchard's recital of the crime. Borah opened the proceedings with an argument in favor of the admissibility of secondary evidence, and asked that the state be permitted to show the substance of a telegram Adams sent from Ogden to Haywood.

"We are not endeavoring to show that the telegram in question ever reached Mr. Haywood," argued Borah.
"We want it here as the declaration of a co-conspirator and therefore binding on all conspirators. It would not make any difference whether it ever reached Mr. Haywood. The act and declaration of Adams, if a conspiracy is proved, is the act and declaration of Haywood."

Richardson contended that supposing it was a declaration by a con-spirator, it was in writing and the writing itself was the best proof, and until the state laid a proper basis for proof secondarily the court was compelled by law to rule against the state. The defendant's attorney disclosed the refutation of Orchard's story about Adams and Williams going to California on a murder mission.

"We will show that Adams and Williams were sent to a strike in California at that time in 1903 and they performed their mission. There was no violence, and on their return home the men became stranded and they were beating their way home on a freight train."

Court overruled the objection. Detective Pindar of Ogden quoted Adams' telegram to Haywood as follows: "William D. Haywood, Denver, Colo. I am in trouble, send me $75 at once, Steve Adams."

Pindar said Adams had four other criminals at Ogden and he gave him $25 and vouched for him at the telephone office.

FUNERAL SEN. MORGAN TODAY

Venerable Alabamian's Body Interred at Selma

COLLEAGUES PRESENT

Vice-President Fairbanks and a Number of Senators and Congressmen Do Honor to Their Dead Associate—Little City Draped in Mourning—Rev. Dr. Dickerson Officiated in the Methodist Church.
Scenes and Incidents.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Selma, Ala., June 15.—In the shadow of the towering monument erected in honor of the men who fought and bled for the cause of the Confederacy and next to the plot of earth which has sheltered all that remains of Vice President King for many years, the body of John Tyler Morgan was lowered to its final resting place this afternoon.
As the first clouds of earth fell on the box that held the clay of Senator Morgan, the vice president of the United States, the governor of Alabama, the justices of state supreme court, the members of the federal court, a dozen members of the national legislature, scores of mourning officials and citizens turned their tear-dimmed eyes from the falling sod, and the final earthly honor had been paid to the south's greatest statesman.

All day long this little city has been in mourning. Even in the hustle and bustle attendant upon the funeral of an eminent man, the air of grief has not been hidden. The draped thoroughfares, the crepe-covered business houses and residences lend to the note of mourning that is re-echoing throughout the nation. Business has been suspended throughout the city. A pall has descended over Selma that even the brightness of the "Dixie" sunshine cannot dispel. Under guard of eight members of three local military companies, the cortege moved from the depot to the Methodist Church. At the church front the long lines halted while the coffin was removed from the hearse to the church altar. Here the body lay in state for two hours, hundreds viewing the comely, peaceful face of the dead senator.

At 11 o'clock the preliminaries of the funeral ceremonies were begun. The church was cleared of spectators, after which only women were seated in the main body of the church, 200 seats having been reserved for the immediate family, the congressional escort and other officials. The ceremony was short, all eulogistic features being eliminated, the clergymen conforming strictly with the Methodist ritual. The services were conducted by Rev. W.
P. Dickerson, pastor of the church, assisted by other local clergymen.
Music was rendered by members of the city choir. At the conclusion of the brief ceremonies the line of march was reformed and John Tyler Morgan's body was returned from whence it came.

The congressional party that accompanied the funeral train comprised Barney Leighton, assistant sergeant at arms of the senate; Senators Pettus, Overman, Mallory, Boem and Frazier and Vice President Fairbanks. From the national house of representatives there was the entire Alabama delegation with Congressman Bartlett, Moon, Gillespie and Webb.
The entire officialdom of Alabama, the justices of the state supreme court, the members of the federal court and scores of county and city officials from all over Alabama were present. The members of Senator Morgan's family who attended the ceremonies were his two daughters, Misses Mary and Cornelia, of Washington, D. C.; R. F.
Morgan, his nephew, and Mrs. Morgan, with their son, Marshall Morgan, a niece, Mrs. Judith Summers, a niece both of Selma; Judge Sayre, a nephew, and Mrs. Sayre, of Montgomery; Rees Sayre, a nephew, of Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tyson, customers of Montgomery; Hollander Morgan, a brother of Lincoln, Alabama; and Mrs. Annie Morgan, a daughter-in-law.

VARNER WON BY CLOSE SHAVE

The following speech was sent out from Norfolk last night: The National Editorial Association today closed its session by the election of the following officers: President, Henry B. Varner of Lexington, N. C.; first vice-president, W. H.
Mays, Brownwood, Texas; second vice-president, A. N. S. Frazier, Chambersburg, Pa.; third vice-president, R. E. Powell, of North Dakota; corresponding secretary, W. F.
Parrott, of Waterloo, Iowa; recording secretary, J. W. Cochran, of Oakland City, Ind.; treasurer, W. A. Steels, Seattle, Wash. The first prize was a tie, but on the second ballot Varner was elected by a vote of 123 to 124 for Baumgardner, his competitor.

SCHMITZ IS IN FRISCO JAIL

Municipal Affairs in Charge of His Prosecutors
REMAINS MAYOR IN NAME

A State Law Which Provides That Officials Shall Not Be Deprived of Office On Conviction Until Appeal is Passed On By Higher Court—Schmitz Term Will Expire Before Court Can Reach His Case.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
San Francisco, Cal., June 15.—Mayor Eugene F. Schmitz, convicted of exortion and bribery, is in jail and Judge Dunne has refused bail, as announced in these dispatches last evening. He therefore is unable to perform the duties of his office and the administration is in the hands of those who assisted in convicting him.

According to a statement made today by Acting District Attorney Henri Schmitz, being convicted becomes mayor in name only.

A state law provides that a convicted person cannot be ousted from office until such conviction has been upheld by a higher court. As cases must go slowly on appeal, it is considered likely that the higher court will not pass upon this matter until after the mayor's term of office has expired.

KILLED TWO NEGROES And Dangerously Wounded a Third One

White Man's Deadly Pistol At Work At Railroad Camp Near Wilson—Trouble Over Gambling Dispute
Results in Bloodshed.

(Special to The Evening Times.) Wilson, N. C., June 15.—Last night at the construction camp of the Norfolk & Southern Railroad, twelve miles from Wilson, Martin Bullock, white, killed two negroes and fatally wounded another.

The negroes were gambling when a dispute arose. Bullock pulled his pistol and fired, with the above result. Bullock hid last night near the camp and rode with a farmer this morning till within two miles of Wilson when he was last seen. Parties are now in search of him.

Bullock Captured.
(Special to The Evening Times.)

night, has been caught by the sheriff's posse and imprisoned here in Wilson

A QUARTER-MILLION FIRE THIS MORNING

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Chicago, Ill., June 15.—John R. Walsh mer with many rebuffs and two condemns at the hands of Judge A. E.
Anderson in the United States district court yesterday. The case of the former bank president came again to the attention of the court through the plea of Attorney J. S. Miller for a bill of particulars from the government, and a further attempt to have the indictment against Mr. Walsh quashed on grounds of technical errors.

With the close of a day of argument, during which many sharp flashes of wit and humor passed between Mr.
Miller and Judge Anderson, the judge outlined the ruling he will make today.
He announced that he was inclined to sustain the indictment in all except two counts. As there are 180 counts in the second indictment alone and the first one has been sustained, the attorney for the government were pre-tremely well satisfied.

Judge Anderson also made it plain that he would refuse to force the government to grant a bill of particulars to Mr. Walsh's attorneys.
