A Mining Proposition is to a Certain Extent a Gamble, but at the Same Time A Good One is a Good Gamble.

The Storm Cloud is by far the best one to gamble on I ever saw, as its management beyond doubt in the most capable hands, its territory is unquestionably in the best section of the State of Nevada (Lida), which is and has been a producing section since the days of 1870, when the ores had to be hauled by burros 600 miles across the mountains to be handled and treated.

Even in those days mining in this particular section was carried on to a great extent naturally work could not be done at anything like the progress and profit that the same could be done in this day and time.

This section has another great advantage over the desert (where lies some of the rich properties the world has ever known), and that is, it is well timbered and well supplied with fine water facilities, which within themselves offers many inducements over other sections.

This Storm Cloud Mining Company Owns the Famous Blue Dick Mountain,

And surrounding it is such properties as the Blue Dick, Old Centennial, Lida Belle, Standa and the New Centennial, all of which are producers. This is by no means saying that the Storm Cloud is not productive, we having already quantities of rich ores in a tunnel that assay as high as $861.00 per ton, and other assays, fifty in number, ranging from $6 to the above-named figure.

I have with me some of the Ore which any one is at liberty to have assayed

As I have already said, my advice is to buy this stock now, while it can be had at 50 cent share, as I believe that within twelve months you will hold an investment that you would not consider parting with under three to four times what you paid.

Another good, strong argument in favor of the ## Storm Cloud is that it owns its property and hasn't a dollar of indebtedness

And still another argument is, as far as I can ascertain since leaving Nevada, the same have been offered 100 per cent. on their investment by another company to take over this land, and they refused, believing as they do they have the best-looking piece of territory that is to be had.

I am on the ground to explain in detail the merits of this proposition, and will gladly give any one interested all the information I have if you will but make your wants known.

BEFORE COL. NICHOLS

Wife of Floyd Mills Up for Retailing

Woman Lives Near Angier and Had Been Selling the Stuff Against Protests of Husband—Little Girl in Court Room.

Mrs. Floyd Mills, wife of Floyd Mills, who lives at Angier, in the lower part of this county, was tried for retailing before United States Commissioner Nichols this morning and bound over to federal court in the sum of $100. Several witnesses were introduced and it was proved clearly that the woman sold whiskey and wine. It was not proved that her husband, Floyd Mills, sold the stuff. He had tried, it was stated, to break up the business, and he said he did not know that she handled any whiskey after he had remonstrated with her. Col. Nichols told Floyd Mills that, as head of the family, he was technically guilty of the crime along with his wife, but that he would not place him under a money bond for his appearance at court. Col. Nichols, however, cited Mills to appear at the next term of federal court. In the court room with the defendants was their little white-haired girl, aged about five years. The child was entirely unconscious of the charge against her mother. The girl sat on her father's knee while he told how he objected to his wife's selling whiskey, and how she promised to stop. Floyd did not appear anxious, though, to testify against his wife; he merely answered what questions were asked him. The whole affair was pitiable.

A Lesson in Health.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. O. G. King.

For Another Pardon.

Application has been received at the state executive office for the pardon of Flem Blevins, white, now serving a two-year term in the state prison for murder in the second degree. Blevins was sentenced in November, 1906, from Mitchell county.

HEARING CONCLUDED

Case of Railroads and Telegraph Operators

Corporation Commission Heard Remaining Evidence Yesterday From Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line Railways.

The hearing before the State Corporation Commission of petitions of the Southern, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line Railways, asking for exemption from the law limiting the time of labor for certain railway telegraphers to eight hours, was concluded at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The hearings consumed three days, during which time considerable evidence was given by various telegraph operators, railway officials and other witnesses. The hearing of the petition made by the Southern was finished Saturday, and those of the Coast Line and Seaboard were both heard yesterday.

The majority of the telegraph operators throughout the state object to working more than eight hours, although several witnesses stated that at some stations the duties were not such as to physically injure a man from being on duty for ten or even twelve hours.

Those on the witness stand yesterday were: Messrs. W. H. Newell, J. H. Williams, A. S. Hudson, F. A. Boswell, Superintendent Hix, N. C. Hines, W. W. Jones, H. W. Purvis and J. A. Decorr.

ARRANGING FOR THE BARBECUE

The committees having in charge the Greater Raleigh celebration which is to take place at the Fair Grounds next Monday are actively at work.

At a meeting held this morning it was decided positively that no one should be admitted except the hosts and invited guests. To each will be presented a souvenir button showing a picture of the Capitol with these words, "For Greater Raleigh, July 1, 1907." These buttons are expected tomorrow or next day, and each host is requested to call upon Mr. Fred Mahler, the treasurer, at his store for the buttons for himself and guest. They will be expected to wear these during the day.

The celebration in a stately and business-like manner. A idea that has gone out that the station is given by the city to nobody on the outside is incorrect, is to be given by public spirited and hospitable citizens as hosts their invited guests. The invite is extended to all white citizens to take an active part in it. Occasion itself will be enjoyable, besides it will evidence a health public spirit. The Times will publish list of the hosts on Saturday afternoon.

TWO LEVY BROTHERS POLICE COURT MORN.

There was not much of the ordinary in police court turning in the way of verbal evidence but in the way of physical evidence there was. Lewis L. Levy and brother, W. H. Levy, were up for affray Sunday. Lewis must have the brunt of the battle, if his eye and bruised face could be accepted as reliable testimony, for his eye and his face looked bad. For his part in the affray W. Levy was fined $18.15. Lewis let off. Both men have old animosity against them, the fine against W. Levy amounting to $8.15, making total of $26.30, and the old against Lewis being $29.75.

COMMISSIONERS LEAVE

To Attend the Rate Hearing at Asheville Tomorrow

Injunction Asked for by Southern and Atlantic Coast Line to Prohibit New Passenger Rate Going Into Effect.

Messrs. Franklin McNeill, S. L. Rogers, E. C. Beddingfield, and H. C. Brown, of the State Corporation Commission, left last night for Asheville to be present at the important hearing tomorrow concerning the injunction asked for by the Atlantic Coast Line and Southern Railways to prevent the new two and one-quarter cent passenger rate being put into operation, as provided for in the laws of the last North Carolina legislature.

SOCIAL EVENTS AT STATESVILLE

(Special to The Evening Times.) Statesville, N. C., June 25.—Mr. J. L. Wells, of Statesville, who will tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock wed Miss Eva Troutman at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Troutman, of Mooresville, will be accompanied to Mooresville by quite a number of Statesville friends, who will witness the ceremony. Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Wells will leave for Lake Tuckaway and other points in the Land of the Sky, where they will spend several days, after which they will return to Mooresville and spend a day or two before coming to Statesville, their future home.

Mr. Wells is manager of the local office of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Statesville. Miss Troutman is a very attractive and popular young woman. At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Wooten, in Bethany township, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, Mr. Lewis C. Moore, son of Mr. A. C. Moore, and Miss Esther Wooten were united in marriage. Rev. W. M. Swain performing the ceremony. Only a few close friends and near relatives were present, and the marriage was carried through quietly on account of the illness of the bride's mother.

Mr. Moore is a progressive young farmer. The bride is an excellent young woman and the many friends of the young couple wish them a long and happy married life.

NEW COMPANY. Company M of Durham Added to the North Carolina National Guard. Adjutant General T. R. Robertson returned this morning from Durham.

where he yesterday mustered in a new military company, consisting of forty-three enlisted men and three officers. Mr. R. P. Hackney is captain; Mr. Thomas S. Hall, first lieutenant, and Mr. S. C. Chambers, second lieutenant. The new company will be assigned to the Third Regiment and will be known as Company M. General Robertson reports that the Durham company has been fully equipped and will be at Jamestown in good shape during North Carolina week. There were two companies at Durham until two years ago, but since that time there has been none until the organization of Company M.
