HENDERSON CONJURED

Negro Evangelist Fined in Police Court Today

He Says He's An Evangelist, But He Swore Last Night—Wears All Sorts of Trinkets Which Girls Give Him—He Gets 30 Days.

In spite of the fact that J. H. Henderson's wife positively declared that he was so conjured and upset that he could not stand work, Justice Badger this morning fined Henderson $3.15, or gave him thirty days on the roads. Why Justice Badger imposed this penalty is a short story—Henderson was arrested for disorderly conduct last night in that he swore fearfully.

J. H. Henderson, colored, is an evangelist preacher. He returned to Raleigh three days ago from Baltimore. Kinky-haired, round-headed, mahogany colored, squat and heavy, he is a lion among ladies who have pinned to his blue varsity sweater all sorts of trinkets, which he declares are insignia of the Lord. His wife believes he is conjured, and when asked if she did not think about thirty days would act as an antidote, declared that only a fortune teller could drive away the spell.

On his blue sweater, girded by a belt, Henderson had pinned a hat, a cap, a blue checked handkerchief, a gilded pipe, a cross of honor and a variety of other trinkets. He wore an iron ring on his right arm and three peeper rings on his fingers.

Tomorrow Henderson—he did not tell his given name—has a date to go out into the highways and hedges to preach the gospel, but he will not go, Monday, however, he will go out on the highways and wheel dirt.

As Henderson was led downstairs he tore from his bosom the harp of David and handed it to his wife. Protesting that he was a good worker and that he could carry a hod filled with sixteen bricks up a three story gangway without panting, he disappeared through the door.

Lizzie Kellogg and Lula Cox, two negro women, were fined $7.35 each for an affray, in which a deadly weapon was used.

Henry Smith was fined $7.35 for being drunk on the street.

Church Rally Tomorrow.

A grand rally will take place at the Congregational Church (colored) tomorrow in the interest of the Esther P. Hays memorial fund. Esther P. Hays did much for the colored people educationally and in many other ways.

Rev. F. B. Mallard, pastor of the Congregational Church, states that at the first rally, recently held, over $300 was raised, and the building has been started. If $500 more can be raised at the rally with promised help of other friends, the work will be carried to completion without delay.

BIG PENALTY SUIT HEARING TUESDAY.

The attorneys for the Southern Railway and also for the state are busy getting ready for the hearing in the Supreme Court of the case of the state against the Southern Railway, and which is set for next Tuesday. This is the case in which the Southern was indicted for violating the passenger rate law and was fined $20,000 by Judge Long.

The record covers 290 pages, printed, and the entire day, Tuesday, will be consumed with this case. It was due to come up from the sixth district, but was advanced, the date decided upon being agreeable to both parties.

Attorneys who will appear for the railroad will be Col. W. B. Rodman of Charlotte; Mr. James H. Poirer and Mr. F. H. Busbee, of this city. For the state are, Ex-Governor Aycock, Mr. E. J. Justice, and Mr. S. G. Ryan.

GRAND JURY INDICTS COUNTY OFFICIALS.

Baltimore, Sept. 14.—Indictments have been returned by the Howard county grand jury against County Commissioners B. F. Hess (the president) and Jacob W. Werner, member of the present board, and Thos. O'Neill, member of the former board. In the indictments Commissioner Werner is charged with malfeasance in office and accepting a contract involving the sum of $844, and the other two members are charged with unlawfully accepting a bid, granting the contract for the work and ordering the payment of same.

It is claimed by Mr. Werner's friends that the contract was given to Werner Brothers, of Ellicott City, of which firm the commissioner is a member, and that he cannot be held in a criminal sense for the transaction. Commissioner Werner is the nominee for re-election on the democratic ticket.

MRS. EARLE CROSSES OCEAN AND RUBICON

(By Cable to The Times.)

Boulogne, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Ferdinand Pinney Earle disembarked here from the Rhydnam shortly before 11 o'clock last night on her way to Paris. She was accompanied by her two-year-old son Harold, whom her husband surrendered to her care.

Mrs. Earle declares that her husband sometimes beat her, and when he was in ill health was irritable. She said she had no reason to regret the course she had adopted, and would pursue it to the end.

"Would you go back to your husband if his affinity turned out not to be all she appears?"

"No, I would not," Mrs. Earle replied. "I feel that I have crossed the rubicon."

Asked as to her plans for the immediate future, she said she intended to leave for Paris today, when she would at once institute proceedings for divorce. She said she then intended to live very quietly with her father, M. Pishbacher, a publisher of religious books in Paris.

Earle and Kuttner Woman Together.

Bethlehem, N. H., Sept. 14.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle and Julia Kuttner, his "affinity" are once more united. He slipped into Bethlehem by way of Maplewood and went direct to the home of the Kuttners.

The girl, who says she is ready to marry him as soon as his wife obtains a divorce in France, was waiting for Earle just within the door of the house. As he entered he extended both hands to her. Then the door was closed.

MODERN WILLIAM TELL KILLS HIS SUBJECT

(By Cable to The Times.)

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Sept. 14.—A Chilean sharpshooter, Juan Espinosa, while shooting an apple from the head of another man at the circus, missed by a centimetre and killed the apple bearer. The crowd attempted to lynch Espinosa.

GROWTH OF RAILWAY INDUSTRY IN U. S.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—The interstate commerce commission has issued a compilation of railway statistics for the year ending June 30, 1906, indicating a growth in all branches of the railway industry.

The report shows that on June 30, 1906, there were 224,363.17 miles of single track railways of 6.282.13 more than the preceding year. The operated mileage is given at 222,730.35, while the aggregate length of mileage, including tracks of all kinds, was 317,982.49. The total number of persons on the payrolls of the companies was 1,521,355.

Persons traveling upon the roads aggregated 779,507,838 or 69,673,171 more than the preceding year. The gross earnings of the railways are given at 2,225,167, being $243,282,761 increase, operating expenses were $1,536,877,271 or over $146,000,000 more than for 1905. The total number of casualties for the year was 108,224, of which 10,618 persons were killed and 97,706 injured.

LUCANIA WAS A LAGGARD THIS TRIP.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

New York, Sept. 14.—The Cunard steamer Lucania, which steamed from Queenstown at 11:49 a. m. last Sunday to race with the new giant turbine steamer Lusitania of the same line, came into port today.

The Lucania reached Sandy Hook lightship thirteen hours after the Lusitania and seven hours behind her own record time, which the Lusitania beat yesterday by 6 hours and 29 minutes.

RESOLUTIONS BY THE JUNIOR CLASS.

The remains of J. A. Porter, Jr., were sent to Asheville last night on the 11:59 train and will reach there today at 1:30. Mrs. Porter was accompanied to Asheville by Mr. Owen Moore, of Asheville, and Mr. H. C. Loynton, of Biltmore, both members of the junior class.

Resolved by the Class.

Inasmuch as the hand of death has been laid on one of our beloved classmates and friends and removed him with suddenness from our number, be it

Resolved by the Junior Class of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, that in the death of John A. Porter our class lost an earnest, upright member, who promised to be an ornament to his college and to his family, and the college has been deprived of a student who was worthily and ably preparing himself for an honorable and useful career.

Resolved, that the class have conveyed to his parents an expression of our sincerest sympathy in the irreparable loss which they have been called to sustain, and also an expression of the esteem for the noble young man whose passage from earth we deeply mourn with them.

A HOBO CHICKEN STEALS A RIDE.

While a street car was running at a rapid rate on Hillsboro street today, a chicken on the track was picked up and carried to the end of Blount street, a distance of over two miles. The chicken got on at the corner of Hillsboro and West streets, the motorman thinking the fowl had been run over and killed. After the car had passed the union station, had gone up Fayetteville street and had reached the end of Blount, the motorman, out of curiosity, got down and looked for the fowl. He found it perched upon the bumpers of the car, uninjured.

AN AFRICAN KING'S ELEPHANT TAIL.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
 Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 14.—When Secretary Loeb opened a package which came in his mail and discovered a long tuft of coarse black hair set in a leather handle of curious workmanship his first thought was that some western enthusiast had sent in the scalp of an enemy of the administration.

A letter accompanying the gift explained its source and significance. Ernest Lyon, United States consul at Liberia, had sent the queer-looking object. Mr. Lyon wrote to say that it was an elephant's tail and that mounted on its leather handle it was the emblem of authority among African kings.

DR. BATTIS OPENS COLLEGE AT SHELBY.

Rev. Dr. A. M. Battis, of Raleigh, has gone to Shelby and has taken charge of the Shelby Commercial College, opened there September 12. Mrs. Battis will join her husband at Shelby later.

Shelby is an enterprising city and has grown not rapidly but steadily in the past few years. It already has voted bonds to the amount of $115,000 for water works, a new court house will soon be built, 125 new houses have been erected lately, and altogether the city has been pushing forward with a surprising rapidity.

Rev. and Mrs. Battis will find a hearty welcome in Shelby and their many friends here wish for them the greatest success.

OXFORD MAN IN REX WITH APPENDICITIS.

Mr. J. R. Lanier, of Oxford, accompanied by his two sons, Messrs. D. F. and W. R. Lanier, was brought to Rex Hospital in this city to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The operation was performed this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Lanier, who is 53 years old, has been ill since Thursday. His friends will hope for him a speedy recovery.

Death of An Infant.

David C. Mixon, Jr., the eleven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Mixon, died at the home of its parents at 23 south Swain street this morning. The body will be shipped to Maw River this evening for burial.

Captain Story Dies at Boone

 strong, vigorous and manly. He was earnest in everything he went at and Raleigh people will remember him as a splendid tackle on the football team and center fielder on the baseball team.

Captain Story was about 24 years old. He was a Christian young man and gave promise of a bright career.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE TODAY

(By Cable to The Times.)
 Spezia, Italy, Sept. 14.—The large mills of Merello were almost completely destroyed by fire. The loss is over $1,000,000. Hundreds of employees are out of work.

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS IS SERIOUSLY ILL.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
 Jackson, Miss., Sept. 14.—Advice from Yazoo City state that Congressman John Sharp Williams has been quite ill for several days. While his condition is not critical and no apprehension is felt by his friends or physicians, his condition is such that he has been compelled to cancel several engagements. His present condition is due principally to overwork.

The New Shamrock.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
 Glasgow, Sept. 14.—William Pife will design Shamrock IV with which Sir Thomas Lipton will try for America's cup next year. Probably the Denny Brothers of Dunbarton, will build it.

Lost and Found.

Lost between 9:30 p. m., yesterday and noon today, a billous attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by findings at all druggists a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, the guaranteed cure for biliousness, malaria and jaundice, 25c.

PRETTY ARTIST'S MODEL'S STORY.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
 Newport, R. I., Sept. 14.—A beautiful woman who described herself as Miss Francis and said she was an artist's model in New York, told a sensational story to the chief of police here today in which she declared she and another girl had been used captive for fifteen days on the power boat Marquita, which has just arrived from New York. As soon as the vessel came into Newport the chief and several detectives boarded her and found Miss Francis. She was immediately taken from the boat and hurried to headquarters, where she told a story that caused the police to institute a rigid investigation.

The power boat is in charge of Captain Sibley and a Japanese crew. It is said to be owned by a Mr. Barnes, of New York.
