

A PRETTY LASS IN BOY'S ATTIRE

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Chicago, Oct. 5.—Pretty, black-eyed Sallina Vanio came all the way to Chicago from Buda Pest, Hungary, in boy's clothing. At least, that strange experience is claimed to be hers, though how she escaped the inspectors is unexpected. The girl, who is 18 years old, says she was unmolested while on the liner and on train, but she was arrested as she stepped from a Lakeshore train at South Chicago. "Too pretty for a boy," said Police Detective Andrew Murphy, who made the arrest. She said her uncle's address was 2821 Mackinaw avenue. On investigation it was found there was a vacant lot at this number. The girl was then taken to the Hyde Park police station and placed in the care of the matron.

GIRL'S FATHER IS ARRESTED

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Jacob Weiss was arrested at his home in Rosslyn last night by officers from Alexandria county, Va. Weiss is suspected of shooting John Mullen in Deal Man's Hollow last Sunday afternoon. Weiss is the father of the girl who was with Mullen at the time and while the young lady vehemently maintains that a negro shot Mullen and attacked her, she went over to Georgetown University Hospital this afternoon at the request of Mullen, who says that he feels sure that if he can have a talk with the girl he can induce her to tell the truth about the whole affair.

FOOLISH WOMAN KILLED BY HUSBAND

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 5.—Crazed because his wife persisted in receiving the attentions of a sweetheart of her younger days, John Bahnmuller, a wealthy saloon-keeper of 521 Park avenue, shot her to death and then sent a bullet through his own heart.

ANNA GOULD IS FREE AT LAST

Odessa, Oct. 5.—A strong detachment of police having learned that anarchists were meeting in a certain house, surrounded it and were prepared to break in when the anarchists opened fire on them, killing Assistant Chief of the Service Police Belinsky and wounding several others. The police made a rush for the building and a fierce hand to hand fight followed, during which a woman was killed and two men were fatally wounded. Fifty-three anarchists were captured.

MAN WITH MONEY CAN'T BE A VAGRANT

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—Declaring that Andrew Carnegie is a vagrant, according to the correct interpretation of the law, Attorney William J. Brennan secured the release of Elmer Stevenson, who had been sentenced to thirty days in the work house as a vagrant by Police Magistrate Brady. Witnessing the case that while Stevenson did not work, he had plenty of money. "Why, your honor," declared Brennan, "the same charge might be preferred against Andrew Carnegie. He doesn't work, travels from place to place and has no visible means of support either."

COAL MINES SHUT DOWN

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—During the present week coal mines on the Pennsylvania Railroad, as well as on the Baltimore & Ohio have been closed to shut down twenty-four hours at a time because of lack of cars. The operators are very impatient and charge discrimination in car distribution.

PACIFIC FLEET SAILS DEC. 15

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Another indication of the president's determination to send the battleship fleet to the Pacific coast from the navy department in the announcement of Secretary Meyer and Admiral Brownson, head of the bureau of navigation, that the ships would certainly be ready to start on their long voyage on December 15. In other words, they are to start then whether all the repairs and fixing up that the various bureau chiefs want to have done are completed by that time or not. This announcement is in response to explicit instructions from the president, who has given the word that the fleet must start on time, or he will know the reason why.

Secretary Meyer says the repairs and alterations which will be made before the ships start are of only minor importance, and not of a character which would furnish any excuse for delay beyond the time fixed for the departure of the fleet. Attorney General Brownson has decided that the navy may use foreign vessels for transporting coal from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast when sufficient American vessels cannot be had or the charges made by them are excessive and unreasonable. The opinion upholds the contention of the navy department, which has under charter vessels of foreign registry for transporting coal to the Pacific coast.

HOW JOHN WESLEY GOT A BAD FALL

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 5.—While delaying their arrival on the Tennessee as a pretext for not attending the president's speech, Congressman John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, was engaged Representative H. A. Coomer, of Wisconsin, a pugilist but that he could put him flat on his back inside of ten minutes in a wrestling match. Coomer used to be an athlete, six feet two inches, in his stockings, in his younger days, and he unhesitatingly accepted the challenge. Shots were made by other members, who eagerly urged on the fray. The betting ring did a lively business. The scoundrel was run to the bank and the two went ashore, followed by associates, who formed a ring about a soft grassy spot. Coomer got the hammock hold on the Tennessee and, with a mighty hit threw him over his head. Gaines landed heavily on his back.

RICH GIFT TO DUKE'S BRIDE

Presents His Wife With $200,000 Pearl Necklace

MOST PERFECT EXTANT

The Tobacco King, Formerly a Red-Headed Country Sprout of Durham County, Thinks Nothing Too Good for His New Wife, the Cultured Mrs. Inman That Was, and Acts Accordingly—Every Pearl on the String Flawless—That Was the Condition of Purchase—Other Noted Pearl Necklaces.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 5.—After securing the cities of America and Europe with the most perfect string of pearls to be found James B. Duke, head of the tobacco trust, has just presented to Mrs. Duke—formerly Mrs. William Inman, of Atlanta—a necklace that cost him $200,000. The one condition of purchase was that every pearl should be flawless and several of the larger jewelry houses in this city, London, and Paris were on the lookout. The results of most of these did not meet the requirements demanded by Mr. Duke and one necklace after another was refused until at last the perfect necklace was found. Every pearl in the outfit, which includes a "dog collar" necklace and an arrangement of loops of the jewels designed to fall artlessly over the shoulders, is perfect. Those entering into the collar are the size of small pens while those that form the fastenings range in size from a large pen to a hazelnut. Mrs. Duke will have her first opportunity of exhibiting her pearls in a grand surroundings at the opening of the season at the Metropolitan Opera House, in the parterre row of which the multi-millionaire tobacco man is said to have secured a box.

A BOY KILLS HIS BROTHER

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 5.—Shot through the heart with a bullet from a rifle George Rosburgh was brutally killed this morning in the rear yard at 418 home near Monongahela City. His brother, Moses Rosburgh, seventeen years old, is accused of the crime and has been arrested. The two boys had been on bad terms for several days, and yesterday afternoon a quarrel occurred with his brother, Moses, in the house. He returned this morning, and again the quarrel was renewed. Moses picked up a rifle, his brother running into the yard. The angered boy followed and opened fire.

BIG DEAL IN REAL ESTATE

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The largest real estate deal of the year, and one of the biggest single transactions in the history of the city, has been closed in the sale by Oliver & Co., for Bryant H. Barber to Levy Mahler, of the Stratford Hotel property at the southwest corner of Michigan and Jackson boulevards. The consideration is understood to be $1,500,000, which is generally regarded as an exceedingly low price. The property is considered one of the finest corners in the city. The purchasers valued it at $2,218,600, which was reduced by the board of review to $1,860,000.

TRIED TO BLOW UP THE PRINCESS

Florence, Italy, Oct. 5.—Another attempt was made to carry off Princess Anne Maria Pia, daughter of the former crown princess of Saxony, who was married in London to Enrico Toselli, an Italian pianist. Two men presented themselves at the Toselli villa, saying they had been told to bring some puppies that the princess might make her selection. The servants saw through the ruse and bolted the door in the faces of the men.

THE GREAT ANDES TO VISIT RALEIGH

Unique Ideas and Methods Will Draw the Large Crowds

THE GREAT ANDES TO VISIT RALEIGH

The Payne Medicine Company, of Lexington, Ky., is sending to Raleigh to introduce their celebrated Andes Medicines, probably the most original advertiser in the United States a man who by reason of his unique methods, has won favorable comment by both the public and press in the leading cities which he has visited. He carries his own heavy hand and troupe of comedians and will first be seen Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when, with his company, he gives a parade over the leading business thoroughfares of the city to announce the free show which will take place Monday night at 7:30 on the large vacant lot at the corner of Person and Cabarrus streets. A large platform will be erected, which, with the grounds, will be brilliantly lighted and every precaution possible will be taken to make comfortable the enormous crowd that will attend the opening performance. Mr. Andes on the parade will wear one of his famous coats adorned with $70 gold pieces for buttons, and his handsome collection of diamonds, which in themselves represent a modest fortune, some of the stones are of the enormous size of eight facets. A feature of the parade will be the showing away of money, by the Great Advertiser, all along the line of march.

A STAGE BULLET BUT DANGEROUS

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Wilson, N. C., Oct. 5.—A bullet fired from the stage into the audience at a moving picture show here wounded Miss Hattie Rice in the arm and passed through Victor Brown's hat. The views represented a battle between Indians and cowboys, and to make the thing realistic guns were fired behind the scenes. In some way a loaded cartridge had been mixed with the blanks, and in the thick of the fight a bullet came whistling into the audience. After the excitement had somewhat subsided Miss Rice was removed to a hospital, where it was found that her injury was slight.

HUNG JURY IN RAILROAD CASE

(Special to The Evening Times.) Durham, Oct. 5.—The jury "hung" last night in the damage suit of E. E. Chappell vs. the North Carolina and the Southern railroads. In this case Mrs. Chappell claimed that he was injured to the amount of $7,500; that he was driving two mules and had on a load of wood, which he was preparing to unload, this being near the Ball factory in this city last December, and that the mules became frightened. He says that the mules were frightened by the engine letting off a lot of steam and that after it was seen his mules were frightened the whistle of the train was blown repeatedly, this adding to the fright of his team. —There was not a single case in police court this morning. —Services will be conducted at St. Luke's Home each Sunday afternoon during October by members from the Presbyterian Churches.
