VEXATIOUS QUESTIONS UP FOR SETTLEMENT

That of Preamble to Constitution May be Settled Today

SEGREGATED NEGRO CHURCH WITH BISHOPS

Election of Three New Bishops Will Also Be Accomplished in the House of Bishops Today—Tomorrow the Convention Will Make a Pilgrimage to Jamestown Island and Impressive Services Will Be Held On the Spot Where Was Located the First Episcopal Church in America—Holy Communion Where Its First Celebration By the Anglican Church in America Was Accomplished 300 Years Ago—Other Convention News and Notes.

(By MISS ELIZABETH E. POE.) Richmond, Va., Oct. 11.—Today after the vexatious question of a preamble to the constitution is finally settled the equally vexatious question of a segregated negro church and negro bishops will occupy the attention of the house of deputies.

The house of bishops will consider the canon on suffragan bishops and at 3 o'clock will nominate and elect three new missionary bishops for Wyoming, Nevada and western Colorado. The regular program of meetings will be followed today.

Tomorrow the general convention will make a pilgrimage to Jamestown Island. The exercises on the island will commence at 1:30 p. m. in the graveyard adjoining the ruined church tower, which marks the site of the first Episcopal church in America.

The holy communion will be celebrated beginning at 1:30 p. m. on the spot where the Rev. Robert Hunt, chaplain of the first expedition on June 21, 1607, conducted the first celebration of the holy communion according to the rite of the Anglican church on the American continent.

Bishop Tuttle, the presiding bishop of the American church, has prepared a letter of greeting to the archbishop of Sydney to be returned by the hands of the Australian delegate to the American general convention, the Rev. G. W. Marsh, of Adelaide.

Warm Debate Over Preamble. Judge McConnell, of Louisiana, opened the debate on the constitutional preamble at 11 o'clock by a guarded reference to the recent heresy in the church on the question of the Virgin birth of the Savior.

Rev. Dr. McIlvain, of Calvary Church, Pittsburg, said: "It is never too late to do good, and even if the preamble was one hundred years late, it was not too late."

Judge Claude Olds, of Southern Virginia, the most determined opponent of the preamble, championed its defeat in the most impassioned tones.

Rev. C. L. Mallory, of Milwaukee, created a furore when he repudiated the alleged constitution as the only constitution of the church, and insisted that the prayer-book is another and therefore a preamble to the constitution. He also claims that the preamble itself is unconstitutional.

Arthur S. Browne, of Washington, vigorously attacked the preamble on account of its reputed unconstitutionality.

"Let us go slow, gentlemen, before we put into our constitution that which may come to be a plague to us."

Rev. R. B. Nelson, of Lexington, Ky., next defended the preamble and claimed that if an addition was being made to the prayer-book that it was perfectly lawful and in order.

Rev. Dr. Hughes, of Newark, N. J., announced his intention to vote for the preamble but doubted its wisdom.

Dr. Huntington, in closing, admitted that the prayer-book was a part of the constitution but claimed the preamble most lawful.

He denied that pressure was being used to force a vote on what he called "American ecclesiastical polity and that it foreshadows a better sympathy with other Christian bodies." He made a startling statement when he said that baptism may in the heavenly records be necessary for membership in the flock of Christ.

Deputies Adopt Preamble. At 12:15 the vote was taken on the preamble by dioceses. Washington's clerical delegation with the exception of Rev. H. McKim was solidly against the preamble. The preamble was adopted by the house of deputies (Continued on Page Seven.)

FIRST TWO DELEGATES FOR CANNON

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Owasco, Mich., Oct. 11.—The presidential candidacy of Speaker Joseph Cannon was endorsed after a struggle, and two delegates to the national republican convention were named by a convention of the eighth congressional district held here yesterday. This, the first convention to select national delegates, was a lively affair. It revealed the bitterness of the Michigan beet sugar interests to the candidacy of Secretary Taft.

BRYAN AT RICHMOND FAIR TODAY

(Special to The Evening Times.) Richmond, Va., Oct. 11.—The attraction at the state fair here today is William Jennings Bryan.

He arrived over the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, from Cincinnati, and was met at the station by Hon. Henry C. Stuart, president of the state fair, Ex-Governor Andrew J. Montague, Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Elyson, and members of the arrangement committee, who escorted Mr. Bryan to the Jefferson Hotel to breakfast. At 9:30 the reception committee assembled in the lobby of the Jefferson and were introduced to Mr. Bryan, after which the reception committee took carriage to the Franklin street entrance for the parade.

Mr. Bryan made an address and then luncheon was served.

At 8 p. m. a banquet will be tendered Mr. Bryan by the committee of the city council for entertaining distinguished guests. The arrangements for the dinner are in charge of Mayor Carlton McCarthy, who will act as toastmaster. The dinner will be given at Murphy's Hotel.

What Bryan Said Today. Many were the good-lumored thrusts which Mr. Bryan took occasion to aim at the president in his speech at the State Fair today, though he was careful to avoid saying anything which could prove offensive, even to persons differing with him in politics. Indeed, he declared that he thought (Continued on Second Page.)

NOT MUCH PIETY IN THIS CHANGE OF "RELIGION"

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Newport, R. I., Oct. 11.—Gladys Vanderbilt will renounce the Protestant faith and become a Roman Catholic in order that she may marry Count Ludislav Szechenyi in a Catholic church. This announcement, made exclusively through the American, a week ago, was confirmed at "The Breakers" today. It means that Szechenyi has won out in his last contention, and that through her renunciation Miss Vanderbilt will be received in Hungary's royal set as though she were to the manner born.

Incidentally Mrs. Vanderbilt permitted it to become known that the wedding will be held on December 4, instead of November 4, as originally planned. The Hungarian government has given private assurance that by that time the pedigree of the bride, now en route to Buda Pest, will have been passed upon satisfactorily by the royal authorities, who have the count's welfare in hand.

The adoption by Miss Gladys of Catholicism will mark an epoch in her family, for none of the other Vanderbilts has ever swerved from the Episcopal church for any cause whatever—even though two or three have given up finances of their choice in order to hold their faith.

CHICAGO'S GOT DETROIT DOWN

One Game After Today's May Settle Contest

ANALYSIS OF LAST GAME

Wild Bill Donovan is Now Detroit's Only Hope—The Game Today is Depending on Him—How the Contest is Going Up to the Hour The Times Goes to Press—It Looks Like the Series for the Championship is Close on to the End.

(By JAMES CRUSHER.) Bennett Park, Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11.—The whole state of Michigan seemed to be watching at the gates of the Detroit ball park today when the gates swung open for the fourth battle between the Chicago Cubs and the Detroit Tigers for the baseball championship of the world. Such crowds Detroit has never seen before. The management was at a loss to handle them and it was soon long before noon that there would be several thousands who would not see the game.

The greatest excitement prevailed. The street car lines leading to the ball park were lined with people and the sidewalks and streets were thronged with a stream of home-madened families as they fought madly for a path to the ticket windows.

More than 1,500 well-welded enthusiasts from Chicago were crowded from trains at the station this morning and found only the streets open to them. The hotels were already packed and private rooming houses filled to the limit.

Both teams came in on an early train after a rather riotous trip over from Chicago. The Cubs, with their two victories already tallied to their credit, had quarters reserved at the Tilden House, a neat little family hotel facing the city square. The Tigers sought the confinement of their club house at the ball park, where Manager Jennings put them through a whole course of lectures on playing ball.

It was up to the Tigers to scarp the Chicago fellows today or be declared down and out. On the other hand, the Cubs were collected and without the slightest fear, were going into the contest determined to end the whole thing here tomorrow night. That means that they expect to take two straight and thus make the series a clean up with the single exception of the tie game at the start.

Manager Chance was still undecided when the boys left for the ball grounds whom he would put in the box today. He favored the big California twirler, Overall, but also wanted to try Mordecai Brown. Both were to be tried out at the grounds, and if it was seen that Brown did not have his best speed tomorrow and Overall would be selected, Carl Lundgren, the steady man of the staff, was also in trim today ready to take the box.

For Detroit it was all "Wild Bill" Donovan. The Tiger fans pinned their hopes on the great smiling twirler, who topped them all the season.

Today's Game Starts. The batteries for today's game: Detroit and Schmidt; Chicago, Overall and Kling. At end of four innings Detroit 1, Chicago 0.

Time called temporarily at 4 o'clock on account of rain.

"Wild Bill" Detroit's Only Hope. (By Leased Wire to The Times.) Chicago, Ill., Oct. 11.—"Wild Bill" Donovan is Detroit's only hope. If that great smiling pitcher can trim the Chicago Cubs this afternoon over in the Tigers' own den, there will then be a ray of sunlight in the dismal and gloomy camp of the American League.

Without "Wild Bill" the chance of the Tigers getting even a single game in this struggle for baseball supremacy of the world would indeed be slim. The other pitchers of the Detroit team in the three contests played have shown themselves absolutely unqualified to handle such battles as are on the Chicago National League. Cubs. Add to this the weakness of the Detroit catchers, and it is easily seen where Hughie Jennings has a task of the greatest magnitude to lead his club through the series and land the flag.

Should "Wild Bill" succeed in trimming the Cubs today, and be able to come right back again Sunday and beat them again, there is a chance that some luck may enter into the struggle and boost the Tigers to the top. If "Wild Bill" fails today, Jennings' hope will be hanging by a tiny thread.

Donovan is the greatest pitcher of them all. He is better today than any of the twirlers on either team and seems quite likely to do his part in defeating the Cubs. Then if George Muller can trim them Detroit will have a fine chance to win the majority, but they again will have to play the link to do it.

One tiny mistake now, and it will (Continued on Second Page.)

THE TRADING STAMP MUST GO

Raleigh Merchants Have Entered Into Agreement

TWO WOULD NOT AGREE

Date On Which the Merchants Have Agreed to Stop Handling the Stamps is November 15th—Speeches Made Last Night by a Number of Merchants Against the Proposition.

Many of the Raleigh merchants were present last night at the meeting of the Merchants' Association when the trading stamp proposition was discussed. The merchants, with only two exceptions, expressed themselves as being strongly opposed to giving stamps and expressed their willingness to cut them out. A resolution was adopted not to handle the stamps after November 15th. All of the Raleigh firms now handling the stamps but two—one dry goods establishment and one grocery store—agreed to the proposition. The agreement extends over a period of three years from the date named.

The merchants say that it means giving something for nothing, for the people who buy cash are the ones they don't mind having on their books.

The action of the merchants last night means the death-knell of the trading stamp store in this city after the fifteenth of November. It will be impossible for the store to remain open with only two stores handling the stamps. One of the most fruitful sources of profit for the trading stamp company is the failure of many to get stamps redeemed. It is estimated that between fifty and sixty per cent of the stamps are never redeemed.

"CHRISTIAN" SCIENTISTS CONVICTED

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Miami, Fla., Oct. 11.—Edwin M. Watson and wife, charged with manslaughter for their failure to provide medical treatment for their little son, Granville, who died from meningitis, on May 26, after a brief illness, were found guilty by a jury which recommended mercy.

The Watsons are Christian Scientists. A physician who was called in at the last moment to see the sick child said his life could have been saved had he received medical treatment in time.

MUST SUFFER FOR KILLING GUILTY PAIR

(Special to The Evening Times.) Wilson, Oct. 11.—The jury in the case of Ralph Dow, charged with killing his wife and brother on September 7, has brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree.

Dow caught his wife and brother in the woods in a compromising position, and killed them both. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

PRESIDENT CLOWRY HAS NOT RESIGNED

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 11.—A report was current in Wall Street today to the effect that President Clowry, of the Western Union, had resigned, or was about to resign. Inquiry at the office of President Clowry brought this brief but succinct reply: "The story is absurd. There is absolutely no foundation for it whatever."

FULL TEXT OF THE DECISION

In Matter of Examining the Southern's Books

BY JUDGE PRITCHARD

The Decision of the Judge of the United States Circuit Court Was Rendered Here Last Evening, in the Matter of the Appeal of State's Attorneys From Decision of Master Montgomery—May Inspect Indexes, But Can Not Examine Books Prior to June 30, 1907.

(Special to The Evening Times.) Asheville, Oct. 11.—Judge Pritchard in the United States circuit court here yesterday afternoon handed down his decision in the matter of the appeal of the defendants from a ruling by the standing master in the railway rate controversy. The court allows the defendants an opportunity to inspect the indexes of the Southern Railway books, but overrules the exception of the defendants relative to examining accounts and books prior to June 30, 1907. The full text of the court's opinion follows:

"This is a motion by counsel for defendants to have the court pass upon certain exceptions to the rulings of the master with respect to the examination of the books of the complainant and as to the number of years to be used for the purposes of comparison with the view of ascertaining whether the proposed rates are reasonable and just.

"It is insisted by counsel for defendants that they should be allowed to examine the indexes of the books of the complainant relating to the disbursements and vouchers for the years beginning the first day of July, 1905, and ending July first, 1907.

"After argument of counsel and a careful consideration of the matter, the court is of opinion that the defendants should be afforded an opportunity, in the presence of the master, to inspect the indexes of the books of the complainant relating to the disbursements and vouchers pertinent to the issue involved in this controversy, for the years beginning July 1, 1905, and ending July 1, 1907, notwithstanding the fact that it appears from the record that they have already made a thorough examination of the books which contain the disbursements for the years mentioned and had before them all of the vouchers to which references were made in the indexes.

"The court is of opinion that the defendants' counsel in making this application have not complied with the rule, and as a matter of legal right, are not entitled to an inspection of the indexes in question, but inasmuch as counsel for defendants insist that there cannot be a thorough and complete examination of all items pertinent to this inquiry without the aid of the indexes, the defendants will therefore be allowed to examine the indexes heretofore referred to, subject to the limitations, fixed by the master with respect to the examination of the books containing a record of disbursements for the year mentioned.

"The court has carefully considered the other exceptions that have been made to the rulings of the master and is of opinion that they are without merit and the same are therefore overruled.

"On the second day of October counsel for defendants entered the following motion before the master: "That the defendants be given such opportunity as may be necessary to learn from the books and papers connected with the organization of the Southern Railway Company what was paid for the stocks and bonds issued by it, and if any of the stocks and bonds of the company were paid for in property instead of money, what the property so paid for was worth and to learn what the property of the Southern Railway Company cost."

"This motion has not been passed upon by the master; however counsel for complainant, at this hearing, filed a sworn statement signed by A. H. Plant, controller, in regard to the information sought to be obtained by defendants, accompanied by a copy of an agreement made the 18th day of June, 1881, between the Southern Railway Company on the one part and Charles H. Coster, George Sherman and Anthony J. Thomas, on the part connecting the Southern Railway

HORRIBLE STORY OF INDIAN CANNIBALISM

Company with the plan of re-organization. It is contended by counsel for complainant that Mr. Plant's affidavit, together with the said agreement contains a full and complete statement as to the bond and stock account of complainant, as well as the actual cost of the complainant's property.

"While this motion has not been passed upon by the master, yet, by consent of parties it was submitted to the court for its consideration at this time. The court is therefore of opinion that the defendants should be allowed all proper examination and investigation as to the amount and nature of such stocks and bonds.

"The matters involved in these rulings are transmitted to the master with instructions to proceed with the hearing as speedily as possible consistent with a fair and impartial consideration of the issues raised by the pleadings, and the master is requested to advise the court at the earliest possible moment as to the date when his final report can be submitted."

At the same place Mr. Osborne met a woman who had eaten her two children owing to the scarcity of food. Last winter the snow was deeper than ever and the Indians were unable to get food as usual. A Creek village on the Main River, consisting of 166 persons, was completely wiped out by starvation last winter.

In another locality on the shore of Hudson's Bay a family was responsible for the death of thirteen persons.

THE NEW TIME OF LUSITANIA, 4 DAYS 19.52 HOURS

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 11.—Crowned queen of the sea, the great liner Lusitania this morning swung up the river assisted by a number of tugs. She did the trip in four days, 19 hours and forty minutes, five hours and four minutes faster than her maiden voyage across.

Every speed record of the sea belongs to the Lusitania now, but Captain Watt still insists she has not done her best. In fact, she came over with the utmost ease with a speed almost exactly averaging 21 knots, or 28 land miles, an hour. For a second western trip the big boat's record is considered one of the wonders of the twentieth century.

She beat her former time by approximately five hours.

CLEVELAND PAYS VISIT TO NEW YORK

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 11.—For the first time since his recent illness ex-President Grover Cleveland came to town yesterday. He is staying at the Hotel Buckingham. Mr. Cleveland's visit is understood to be in relation to the affairs of the association of life insurance presidents. As he left his train in Jersey City he initially showed the effects of his illness. He walked with a cane on which he leaned heavily and appeared to have aged perceptibly since his last appearance in New York. Mrs. Cleveland accompanied him. They returned to Princeton today.

FIRE TODAY IN ROWAN COUNTY

(Special to The Evening Times.) Salisbury, Oct. 11.—At a granite quarry five miles from Salisbury, fire broke out this morning about one o'clock and consumed four dwellings and a store-room with postoffice attached. This fire was first discovered in the residence of W. M. Rector, who had time barely to escape with his family. Their baby was badly burned about the face. The goods and postoffice effects were carried out of the store and saved.

The shoe shop and residence of Ransom Walton was burned, as well as the store of Wesley Brown, though Brown's goods were saved. Loss about $5,000.

Two Trainers Meet Tonight. Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 11.—Tonight at the Industrial Athletic Club, Al Kaufmann, the California heavyweight, will meet Dave Barry, another Californian, in the main event of six rounds. It will be Kaufmann's first appearance in Philadelphia.

Chief Who Masticated Human Flesh to Sustain His Own Life

SOUAWS WHO ATE THEIR OWN BABES

Young Man Who Had Been Selected As the Next Victim of His Hungry Chief—Tells a News-paper Man His Story—Indian Village of 166 Inhabitants Where All Were Starved to Death—Terrible Privation and Suffering Among the Tribesmen on Hudson Bay.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 11.—J. A. Osborne, editor of The Fort Francis Times, has returned from a trip around the east shore of Hudson's Bay. At Moose factory he met a young man, who told him his uncle, an Indian chief, who, during the last few months has eaten eight human beings and had made preparations to eat his.

At the same place Mr. Osborne met a woman who had eaten her two children owing to the scarcity of food. Last winter the snow was deeper than ever and the Indians were unable to get food as usual. A Creek village on the Main River, consisting of 166 persons, was completely wiped out by starvation last winter.

NEW TRUST BOBS UP; IT IS THE CHOP

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 11.—Modern financial methods have penetrated even into the mysterious Mongolian mixture market that will control the larger portion of the supply of New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, and other eastern cities is about to be organized under the name of New Jersey. Henry Lee, of the Pekin Restaurant Company of Philadelphia, is the promoter of the chop suei trust. He declared that while it is not the intention to raise the price of the well known Oriental delicacy, its manufacture and sale will be regulated.

The new trust will be known as the Oriental Chop Suei Company and it is being planned to acquire restaurants in all the larger eastern cities to sell the company's output. The capital stock will be $100,000.

MONEY STOLEN FROM THE MAIL

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Richmond, Va., Oct. 11.—It has become known that a registered mail package containing $3,000, sent by the Bank of Richmond to a correspondent in North Carolina, recently, had been broken and another substituted for the bills. Government detectives have been working on the case for the past ten days and a suspected employee has been put through the third degree, but no arrests have been made yet.

The robbery was the work of an expert, for the paper placed in the envelope was the exact weight and size of the bills that had been placed there by a bank official in the presence of a government clerk and a representative of an insurance company. The bank will not lose, as the package was fully insured.
