Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine for Woman's Ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female illnesses or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been curing all forms of Female Complaints, Inflammation and Obstruction, and consequent Spinal Weakness. It has cured more cases of Backache and Local Weakness than any other remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development. Irregularities and periodical pains. Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system. It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, Cataplexy, melancholy or the "blues". These are indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the organs, which this medicine cures as well as Chronic Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex. Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.

Killed More Than Sixty.

ty-four surrounding towns, villages and cities, any one could have escaped alive from the very center of it, and yet it was so. General Superintendent Monahan, one of the oldest and most experienced officers of the Depot Company's officers, was killed in his office. Last summer he built a little cottage about 100 yards from the mill, and his wife and sister lived there with him, at the gates of the monster of destruction.

List of Identified Dead.

Following is a partial list of the known dead: A. B. Monahan, Mrs. Monahan, Mrs. Rachel Montgomery, George Just, Will Dalton, Samuel Nevin, A. Webster, Sylvester Platt, Henry Harrington, William Sherrill, George Bobo, John Bobo, L. E. Carroll, John Gray, George Stuart, Will Nash, James Blages, "Doc" Carroll, H. Chandler, ———, Cottrell, Fred Cross, W. E. Criff, Frank Dial, Don Dial, Edward Hilton, H. Harrington, George Hodge, William Hodge, Frank Inalls, Samuel Inalls, T. T. Kellum, Edward Kevins, John Kevins, "Al" Webster, Earl Wood, ——— Yates. The school building in which 177 children were at their studies, collapsed at the moment of the explosion. The wall fell out and the roof crashed down upon the teachers and children before they had time for a thought of escape. Prof. Shopton, principal of the school, was dangerously and perhaps fatally injured. Every one of the school children were seriously hurt by the falling timbers. It is estimated that five of the children will die.

Negro Question is Disposed of Today.

(Continued from First Page.) are trying to Romanize this church." Rev. J. B. Wilmer, of Atlanta, next spoke and first mentioned his new title of "master of friction." "Try to do justice to past and future. I look for principles of eternal truth where on to stand. Surely the prophet of any creed should be free now as in old testament days. We need more of the prophetic element in this American church. We have been trying to get our doctrine of ministry accepted." The Rev. Dr. Harding Johns and Williams of Washington, voted against the open pulpit canon, but Dr. McKim supported it. Thos. Nelson Page supported the open pulpit. The vote read as follows, whole delegations not

(Continued from First Page.) to their home, about half a mile away and summoned help. All night long posses of determined armed men with police scoured the country side. Three or four arrests were made, but none of these is believed to be the guilty party. The citizens are greatly excited over the affair. This is the first record of a crime of this kind ever committed upon a white woman by a negro in this city, and the white men are thoroughly aroused and enraged. Nearly the entire city is up in arms hunting for the culprit. SMALL SAYS HE IS STILL PRES'D'T.

(By Lensed Wire to The Times.) Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15.—When asked this morning whether he would seek re-election, S. J. Small, president of the telegraphers' union, said: "I shall not seek re-election for the simple reason that I am not suspended. I am president of the union and know exactly what I am doing. There has been no call for a convention issued for the simple reason that I am the only one authorized to issue such a call." When reminded that New York had repudiated him, Mr. Small laughed and said: "There are a few—perhaps a half dozen—men in New York who since the strike began have done all in their power to discredit any attempt on my part to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the strike. These men without the slightest authority have usurped the duties of the officials of the local union there, and are now reaching out for the control of the national body. These men will be taken care of in due time."

MARRIED IN LESS THAN 2 MINUTES.

Three marriage licenses were issued today, and two of the parties were married before they left the office of the register of deeds. Mr. W. K. Thomas, of Wilmington, Va., and Miss Bessie Harrison, of Raleigh, were united by Justice of the Peace Charles A. Separk. It took Mr. Separk just one minute and forty seconds to perform the ceremony. The other couples receiving licenses were Mr. John H. Bently and Miss Sallie A. Borden, of Princeton, and Mr. R. C. Austin and Miss Lila Watkins, of Henderson. Miss Bertha Holt, of Burlington, is visiting Miss Penelope Davis, 104 South Dawson street.

BISHP INGRAM TALKED TO THE PILGRIMS TODAY

(By Lensed Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 15.—Following his sermon from the steps of the old custom house to Wall street brokers and a visit to East Side slums, the Rev. Arthur Ingram, bishop of London, told the Pilgrims of the United States at a dinner in his honor at the Plaza hotel what he thought of America and Americans. "The greeting I received in this country has surprised me," he said. "I had a Roman Catholic railroad president offer me his private car, and I have had Wesleyans and non-conformists put aside their services to come and assist me. In Richmond people tried to shake hands with me at once and I was compelled to beg the use of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan's motor car to escape. "The ignorant ones in England told me that on this side I would be continually asked what I thought of the magnificent country. I have been astounded by the modesty of the people. Only one man asked me what I thought of the country and he was a reporter. One of the wonderful things about America is the way it receives a million or more people a year from all nations of the earth, and in a generation makes them Americans. The stamping of the love of the country upon these new arrivals is wonderful. "From what I saw it seems to me that you have a gift on the slum problem that is wonderful, and yet you have not begun to do it all. The way that has the moral, religious and physical grip on its slums that New York has has indeed a great city."

THE ORIGINAL PHONE BURGLAR

(By Lensed Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 15.—Love for his wife and two children brought John Egan, who the police say is accused of burglary and robbery in 25 or more cities, to New York last night, and soon after midnight, just as he folded his wife in his arms, three detectives pounced upon him and arrested him after a hard struggle. For months the police in every part of the country have been looking for Egan, who is said to be the original telephone burglar.

YES, MISS IDA "IS TER HOME."

(By Lensed Wire to The Times.) Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 15.—In her father's home on Bartlett street, Miss Ida Scott, the young sister of Mrs. Mary Scott Hartge, is being held practically a prisoner, while detectives search the house in order that no one may get near the girl, who has been hospitalized so suddenly in the notorious Hartge divorce case. The young woman was sent home from Miss Dana's school, near Morristown, N. J., as soon as her name appeared in the papers. "My daughter Ida is at home," said John F. Scott last evening. "No, I will not allow her to see a newspaper man or any one else, save, possibly, our attorney. She has returned from her school in the east, and I don't know when she will go back." Even friends of the family calling at the Scott home were not permitted to hold conversation with her, whose letters bearing on the divorce case of her sister, Mrs. Hartge, has caused such a stir.

Sherlock Holmes Players Levy on Bull Terrier

HALF-DAY PERFORMANCE

Constable Byram Goes After Valued Dog and is Met With a Big—He Gets the Terrier, However, and Manager Wallace Comes Across With Over $200 in Back Salary. Then Peace Reigns. Constable D. B. Byram, Justice of the Peace Charles A. Separk, a Boston bull terrier and Manager A. B. Wallace and wife, the three latter of the Sherlock Holmes Company, were the principal actors today in a drama that was not scheduled to come off. Russell E. White, Harold Boyer and Walter Maxwell and two others of the company were also stars and featured largely in the performance. The show began this morning at 10 o'clock and was not concluded until after 11 this afternoon. Messrs. White, Boyer and Maxwell went before Justice of the Peace Separk today and had attachment papers served on Manager Wallace for unpaid salaries. The justice issued the writs and turned them over to Constable Byram, who went to the room in the Yaphank House of Manager Wallace and claimed the Boston bull terrier. This animal is worth $200, and Mr. Wallace, when she saw what confronted her, struck the constable in the face and refused to give up the prize. Mr. Byram tried the woman aside, however, and collared the dog. In the meantime drawing his gun in case Manager Wallace should take a hand. No sooner had the $200 bull terrier been handed than Manager Wallace came to terms. The victim's back salary amounted to $228.57 and he paid them all. The players, who last night had refused to leave the city, made up with Manager Wallace and the company left the city shortly after 10 o'clock.

PEACE INSTITUTE ADDS TO FACULTY

As evidence of the substantial growth of Peace Institute the department of music has been compelled to add two instructors, one in piano and one in voice. The institution feels that it is to be especially congratulated in securing the services of Mrs. Horace R. Dowell for the latter position. Mrs. Dowell is known throughout the state as a vocalist of surpassing excellence. She brings to the work a ripe experience as teacher also. Every room at Peace has been full from the beginning.

RAILWAY TELEGRAPHERS THREATEN TO QUIT.

(By Lensed Wire to The Times.) Oakland, Cal., Oct. 15.—Local union No. 45, Commercial Telegraphers' Union, passed resolutions last night which will be forwarded to President Perham of the order of Railway Telegraphers. The resolutions call upon Perham to instruct the men to cease handling commercial messages, and announcing that if the railroads persist in asking them to handle these messages a walkout of the railroad operators will be declared. President McCandless, of the local union, and Deputy National President Cooper say that unless the O. R. T. keymen quit handling commercial work the entire western system will be tied up.
