But the distance of the Pommern, roughly figured at 1,048 miles in a straight line, exceeds that of the St. Louis and is the greatest distance ever made in a balloon contest.

Details of the Landing of the Pommern.

Asbury Park, Oct. 23.—The aeronauts made a very graceful landing from the Pommern at Bradley Park. The two men hopped out of the basket and were immediately interviewed by a Hearst News Service representative, who with S. J. Becker, secretary of the Symphonian Social Club of Asbury Park, was the first person to greet the voyagers.

Pilot Erbsloen said that they had not expected to get as far as they did but that they were perfectly able to go further only they did not want to get blown out to sea. They had hoped that the wind would change some, so they could sail northward and reach New York.

Mr. Erbsloen and his companion, Henry H. Clayton, said they were in excellent shape. The balloon was absolutely undamaged in any way. The balloonists said they had had a fine trip and figured that they had travelled 1,048 miles in 40 hours, or an average of something over 26 miles an hour for the entire distance.

Both the men started to pack up their gas bag and arranged to have it and the basket taken to the railroad station and thence shipped to New York.

French Shi Anjou Lands.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Richmond, Va., Oct. 23.—The French balloon Anjou landed two miles from St. Louis, in an air line, today. The navigators claim they traveled 1,200 miles. Another balloon, yellow in color, was seen at Sokesville, Va., fifty miles from the point the French balloon was sighted, at the same hour.

Other German Airship Made 775 Miles.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Dover, Del., Oct. 23.—The balloon which landed at Little Creek, near here, at 8:30 o'clock this morning, was the Dusseldorf, one of the German entries. Captain Abercrom, the pilot, and his aide, Hans Heldmann, are safe. They said they enjoyed the trip. They traveled approximately 775 miles.

American Ship's Crew Talk.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Caledonia, Ont., Oct. 23.—Major Hersey and A. T. Aberholt, in the balloon United States, are here resting after the strain of the twenty-six hour trip through the air from St. Louis. The United States landed on the farm of Thomas Berry, at Pynsine, five miles outside Caledonia at 6:15 o'clock last evening.

The United States had covered 615 miles in an air line from St. Louis in twenty-five hours.

Major Hersey was seen by a Hearst News Service representative this morning and described the trip as follows:

"Our flight has been of inestimable value. We have passed over Illinois, Lake Michigan, Lake St. Clair, over Ontario, above Lake Erie and back again to Canada and were heading for Lake Ontario when it was thought inadvisable to land.

"The operations at varying heights and winds had diminished our supply of latent gas so that it was thought by Mr. Aberholt and myself that it would be too dangerous to try the right side over the length of Lake Ontario.

"The only time we suffered from cold was yesterday morning before the sun rose. The air was raw and the cold penetrating. As soon as the sun arose, however, the air grew warmer and we were comfortable all day.

"We had a very pleasant trip, comparatively free from incidents out of the ordinary balloon flight. The wind was fairly steady and there was no department until we found ourselves near Lake Ontario. We had crossed lower Ontario and were blown over Lake Erie. When we were apparently traveling over the middle of Lake Erie, the wind shifted and drove us back over Ontario toward Hamilton. It was growing dark very rapidly and with the increasing wind, which from its direction, we judged, was likely to drive us on a longwise trip over Lake Ontario, we thought it wiser to land.

Latest Developments in Financial Flurry

(Continued from First Page.) people were at the office of the Trust Company of America when the company began to pay off depositors at 10 o'clock this morning. Officials of the company announced that they had on hand in the neighborhood of $11,000,000 in cash to meet the demands.

The Noon-Day Story.

New York, Oct. 23.—The financial panic which brought about the collapse of the Knickerbocker Trust Company after it had paid out to depositors $8,000,000 in cash yesterday, swept on unchecked today, threatening other banks.

The Knickerbocker Company failed to resume payments today either at its main office, No. 66 Broadway, or any of its three big branches.

Hundreds of depositors gathered in lines at the Fifth Avenue, Harlem and Bronx branches. Many of them took their positions as early as midnight, in the hope of being among the first to recover their savings. A great many of those who spent part of the night in the line were women.

Shortly before ten o'clock today Acting Bank Superintendent Skinner posted a notice on the doors of the main office of the Knickerbocker on Fifth Avenue that the state banking department has taken possession of that institution.

The money panic spread all over New York today and extended to other cities.

Sensational rumors were begun at the opening of banking hours on the Trust Company of North America and its principal branch, the Colonial Trust Company in the St. Paul building.

Rumors were also begun on the Star Savings Bank in the Bronx, and the Dollar Savings Bank in Third Avenue.

There was a crash in the stock market, the slump ranging from one to eleven points throughout the list. In Pittsburg the stock exchange closed at the request of the Pittsburg clearing house.

Oakleigh Thorne, president of the Trust Company of America, just before the doors of the institution at No. 27 Wall street were thrown open for business today said: "We have been promised assistance in case we need it, but I don't expect any trouble."

Eleven million dollars in cash was piled up behind the paying teller's window in an attempt to prevent a threatened run on the institution.

At the opening hour over 500 excited men and women were in line in front of the bank waiting to withdraw their deposits. The line was headed by a man who said his name was Donohue, a wealthy coffee broker. He said he had $3,500 in the bank which he was going to withdraw.

The Run On Other Banks.

Early in the forenoon a run began on the Van Norden Trust Company, at 59th street and Fifth Avenue. It was reported also that the number of early morning withdrawals at the Morton Trust Company, in which Thomas F. Ryan is a director and at other institutions was exceptionally heavy.

Comptroller Ridgely is Optimistic.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, Oct. 23.—At 10:30 a. m. Comptroller of the Currency Ridgely, after being in telephonic communication with New York, said:

"I am advised that the situation in New York is well in hand and that from now on it will be better. The trouble is confined entirely to New York and there is no indication of trouble anywhere else in the country."

Trouble in Pittsburg Financial Circles

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 23.—Robert C. Hall, president of the Pittsburg Stock Exchange, made the following formal statement: "The Security Investment Company finds itself involved. This will necessitate a temporary suspension or receivership of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, the Westinghouse Machine Company, and the Nerast Lamp Company. The manufacturing companies are in an absolutely solvent condition. The condition of the Security Investment Company will in no way affect the Union Switch and Signal Company and the Westinghouse Air-Brake Company."

Statement by President Nash.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 23.—William A. Nash, president of the New York Clearing House and the Corn Exchange Bank, who is today the most important figure in the financial crisis, made the following most significant statement today: "Business has been carried on with too little regard for the safety of the depositors and with too great attention to the profits of the men at the head of these institutions. "We need a higher degree of honesty in the offices of many of our institutions. The time has come when the gambler and so-called 'high financier' must go. What I say applies just as much to one kind of banking institutions as another."

LOGAN TUCKER TO WED DIVORCED WOMAN

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 23.—A dispatch from Havana to the New York American says:

Lieutenant Logan Tucker, grandson of Mrs. Joan A. Logan, and son of Colonel and Mrs. W. F. Tucker, is reported to be engaged to Mrs. Broome, divorced wife of Captain Broome, U. S. A.

Lieutenant Tucker is stationed at Guantanamo with the marine corps forces. He went to Washington last summer and took the part of his mother in her trouble with Colonel W. F. Tucker, whose conduct Mrs. Tucker asked the war department to investigate, the investigation being still incomplete.

HONORS FOR SEC. TAFT IN RUSSIA

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) St. Petersburg, Oct. 23.—Secretary Taft is expected to arrive at Vladivostok on November 12 and a squadron of war vessels has been ordered to render the prescribed salutes for a secretary of war.

On account of the remoteness of Vladivostok from St. Petersburg it has been considered impracticable to send a deputation to meet him, but a special train will bring him to St. Petersburg.

The American embassy here is arranging for the presentation of Mr. and Mrs. Taft to the czar and a committee of Americans is being organized to arrange for his entertainment. Mr. Taft has expressed a desire that his reception be unofficial.

A number of government officials will welcome the president upon his return to the city.

Demands On Fifth Avenue Bank.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Oct. 23.—There was an unusual demand for deposits at the Fifth Avenue Trust Company. At times there were fifty to sixty persons in line and at noon there were about thirty waiting their turn to withdraw funds. Officials of the institution stated that it has plenty of funds on hand to meet all demands. The deposits of the concern are estimated at $18,000,000.

GOVERNOR GLENN AT COLORED FAIR.

Governor Glenn and Dr. Dixon went out to the fair grounds today, and the governor delivered an address to the colored folks at 12 o'clock. No man is better able to talk to the colored folks than the governor. He is in sympathy with their work and what he said was listened to eagerly by the crowd present.

The exhibits at the fair are unusually good and there are a number of splendid attractions.
