Last night Mr. Hudson addressed a large audience at the Tabernaele Baptist Church, his subject being LAST DAY OF INSTITUTE "The Power That Reaches and Holds." He is a clear, forceful speaker and one feels when listening speaker and one feels when listening to him that the words come from the heart. He had already created a favorable impression and last night he but strengthened the hold he had gained on the affections of the Raleigh Baracas and their friends.

Mr. Hudson did not remain idle while in Raleigh. Besides making an address at the Tabernacle Baptist Church last night, he spoke at Edenton Street Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, visited the various Baraca classes of the city yeaterday morning and was guest of honor at a banquet in Giersch's Cafe Saturday night.
