writes of habeas corpus, directing them to produce the girls in the supreme court at White Plains at 10 a. m. today.

There is nothing in the writs to show by whom they were secured. The Children's Society is prepared vigorously to oppose the removal of the children at this time. They believe that friends of Hitchcock are behind the scheme.

The Majestic is due in Plymouth and Cherbourg next Thursday, and in Southampton the day after. Scotland Yard has been cabled to have a detective meet the Majestic and hold Hitchcock if he is found until an American officer can be sent for him.

Assistant District Attorney Gansvan is authority for the statement that two of the crimes charged against Hitchcock are extrajudicial offenses.

Clue to Hitchcock's Movements.

(Special to The Evening Times.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian who disappeared in New York Wednesday, went to Wilmington or Philadelphia after leaving New York, according to information received today by the Washington police.

A former well known actor, whose name the police refuse to divulge, passed through Washington last night on his way to the Jamestown Exposition and informed the police that he had seen Hitchcock earlier in the day and could produce him if he was wanted.

The local authorities have received no request from the New York police to maintain a lookout for Hitchcock and consequently no formal action could be taken.

Wife Has Been Deceived.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Dr. M. M. Mangasarian, father-in-law of Raymond Hitchcock, made this statement today:

"Only last night I got a letter from Flora (Mrs. Hitchcock) asserting that Raymond had vowed to her the charges were false and that she believed in him implicitly. That was written before his disappearance, of course. How she feels now, I don't know. It is certain that if she discovers the accusations to have been true she will apply for divorce. "My daughter is welcome to come here at any time. We have always been on the best of terms with her and she with us. While Mr. Hitchcock has not been here often it was not because of any trouble."

RACE RIOT AT NORFOLK

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 1.—A riot last night in the "black belt" of Norfolk required the efforts of Police Captain Cuthrell and twenty reserves to quell. One negro, Leil Wilson, was killed and a half-dozen other negroes and two policemen, Godfrey and Martin, were injured.

While Godfrey and Martin were passing down Princess Anne avenue they heard cries of "murder" from a negro, who was being chased by Leil Wilson, who had a knife in his hand. Wilson was about to plunge the knife into the victim when the officers interferred. Wilson picked up a broken bottle with which he struck Martin.

He then ran toward Godfrey with the knife still in his hand. Godfrey called on him to halt and the negro, refusing, the policeman fired, the bullet passing through Wilson's heart. A great crowd of negroes, men and women, at once swarmed around the officers, threatening to kill them. The officers were struck with brickbats, spikes, and other missiles. They used their night sticks vigorously, and had succeeded in laying out a half dozen men when the reserves, in response to an alarm that had been turned in, arrived on

EDWARD WOULD MEET THEODORE

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 1.—Judge Livingston W. Cleveland, of this city, a Yale man, who was knocked out of the republican nomination for governor four years ago, got back from Europe yesterday with a story of an accidental handshaking with the King of England. He was the first New Englander to get a talk of any audience with the king without an introductory note from the American representative at the court of St. James.

Judge Cleveland saw the king at the New Market races a few weeks ago, walked up to him, put out his hand, and said he would like the honor of giving the king's hand a shake. They shook. Then the New Haven judge and Edward VII had a chat about President Roosevelt and ex-Ambassador Choate. The king said he would like to meet the president in England when the latter's term was ended.

Ramsey, Jr., G. J. Gould and William E. Guy. Justice Goff, a week ago, dismissed the action against the two last named defendants. The claim has been pending in these courts for four years.

THIEF DIFFERENT FROM THE CHARLOTTE CLERK

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 1.—Clifford Blanchard, a railroad clerk employed between South Bend and Notre Dame, was arrested yesterday on a charge of tampering with the mails, being caught in the act, it is said, by Postmaster Crabb, who, after laying a trap for another man, spent an entire night in the federal building waiting the theft of decoy letters.

Blanchard was arrested before he could leave the building and when searched $261 in cash and four bundles of letters, which he is alleged to have taken from the mail sacks, were found on his person.

Blanchard has been married less than a year and his wife collapsed when informed of his arrest.

The robbery of the mails has existed over a period of thirteen months.

THE BAD NEWS WAS TOO MUCH FOR HIM.

BOODLE ALDERMEN IN CITY OF ST. LOUIS

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

St. Louis, Nov. 1.—George C. Linde, a republican member of the city council, says he will submit his resignation from that body at a meeting tonight. Linde has been indicted for being directly interested in a city contract, a misdemeanor, the penalty for which, under the city charter, is expulsion. He can also be proceeded against under a criminal statute and this is being done. The councilman got in on a contract for renovating a municipal chamber, the cost of which was $1,685. It is said he gave the grand jury much valuable information relative to misdoings by councilmen and delegates.

The Linde indictment is returned by the grand jury now engaged in investigating the municipal assembly. Three of these indictments are against members of the assembly, two delegates, Fred Warner and Fred Priesmeyer, and Councilman Linde. The other is against William R. Coyne, alleged "legislative agent" of the house of delegates combine. Coyne is charged with perjury.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 1.—John Verka, an employe of the Westinghouse Company, shot and killed himself because his fiance, Mona Gojna, insisted on masquerading in boy's clothing. Verka called at the home of his sweetheart and she greeted him at the door clad in male attire. He was horror-stricken when Mona told him she intended to go on the streets wearing the costume. He pleaded with her not to do it, but she insisted and he left the house in anger, proceeded to his own home and shot himself through the head. Miss Gojna is prostrated. She insists she had no intention of going on the street in the costume.

COULDN'T GET INTO LUNATIC ASYLUM.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

New York, Nov. 1.—James Wardell, whose sensational confession that he had murdered his wife, made after he had fooled the jury and was about to be sentenced by the court for manslaughter, created a startling precedent in criminal annals, must serve not more than nineteen years and eleven months and not less than eighteen years and eleven months in Sing Sing.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

New York, Nov. 1.—Further testimony was heard in supreme court Justice Meara's court in Brooklyn in the $4,000 suit by Francis L. Minton, a lawyer of Brooklyn, in which he charges that the Rev. Walter Buchanan, pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian church, induced him to buy Nevada Mining stock worth 50 cents a share, at a dollar each. The preachers "missionary" work resulted in Minton taking 4,000 shares and now he wants to recover the money. He says he did not receive treasury stock as he had been told he would.

DRUMMERS TO "SAVE" FARMERS

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 1.—At a meeting of the T. P. A. and the U. C. T. held in the Caldwell Hotel last night Harry Calhoun, of Augusta, chairman, laid before the members present the scheme planned to rescue the farmers. Mr. Calhoun stated that this was no state affair, but covered the entire twelve southern cotton growing states. The scheme is that 15,000 traveling men of the southern states each are to put up $1,000 to $5,000, to be loaned for six months at six per cent., this loan to be made at once or on call, the funds to be placed at a bank with the capital of the state, or states, and a bonded officer selected and on receipt of bond or warehouse receipts of cotton insured the officer draw a check of $30 on each bale.

Mr. Calhoun stated that the traveling men are offering the farmers their money and 15,000 traveling men lending $1,000 each would mean that the farmers could hold one million bales of cotton.
