The committee appointed to invesligate the names on the petition calling for an election for prohibition today finished its work and will make its report tonight.

Following is the full text of the report which will be submitted tonight:

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 8, 1907. To the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, Gentlemen: We, your special committee appointed to investigate the petition for an election to determine whether intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in the City of Raleigh, would respectfully report that we have examined the petition and compared it with the registration books for the election of municipal officers held on May 6th, 1907, and also with the registration books for the bond election, held on September 26, 1907, and find the following facts:

The petition, as presented, contained 586 names, three of which were sign-ed by "mark" and one signed by proxy. Deducting these leaves the pe-
