ROBARDS-ROOT WEDDING A BEAUTIFUL CHURCH EVENT.

Christ Church was filled to overflowing last night with friends who had gathered to witness the marriage of Mr. William Watkins Robards and Miss Sadie Smedes Root. The church was effectively decorated with white chrysanthemums southern smilax and candles. The wedding music was rendered by Mr. Wade R. Brown. The bride entered with her father, Mr. Charles Root, who gave her away, and the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Milton A. Barber, assistant rector of the church, assisted by Dr. I. McK. Pittenger, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

There took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. LeMay, four miles north of Raleigh, the wedding of their daughter, Miss Eliza Sledge LeMay and Mr. Charles Beverly Williamson. The wedding was a pretty one and the decorations were lovely. A large number of friends were present and many went from Raleigh to attend the happy event. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Fisher, of the Methodist Church. The maid of honor was Miss Fidelia LeMay, sister of the bride, and the groom's best man was his brother, Mr. Bailey Williamson. Immediately after the wedding the bridal party and friends went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beverly Williamson, where a delightful reception was given.
