

SOCIAL

Miss Nettie Helms, of Millbrook, spent the day in the city. Miss Ruth Whitley, of Wakefield, passed through today enroute to Oxford. Miss Ethel Glenn returned today from Fayetteville, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. M. Johnson.

DANGER SIGNAL.

DON'T LET YOUR HEART PUMP IMPURE BLOOD. WHEN THERE IS A SURE WAY OF PURIFYING IT.

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY

Cures all Diseases caused by Impure Blood, whether they be inherited or acquired. Its reputation has been made by curing the worst cases of Scrofula, Female Trouble, Rheumatism and Indigestion on record.

A harmless vegetable compound, which can be given the most delicate child with safety. For sale by all good druggists at $1.00 per large bottle. Testimonials from people you know for the asking.

MRS. JOE PERSON. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

HILL-SKINNER WEDDING PRETTY CHURCH AFFAIR.

Before an audience that completely filled the Church of the Good Shepherd at noon today Miss Nannie Baker Skinner became the bride of Mr. Joshua B. Hill. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. I. McK. Pittenger, assisted by Rev. M. A. Barber.

The church was artistically decorated with ferns, holly and Christmas flowers and the scene was beautiful to behold. Mrs. Frank Ward presided at the organ and rendered selections sweetly from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Capt. B. S. Skinner, and was met at the chancel by the groom, attended by the best man, Capt. J. R. Ferrall. The bride wore a handsome going-away gown of Burgundy red, with hat, gloves and shoes to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The dame of honor, Mrs. J. W. Hunter, and the bridesmaids, Misses Rosa and Lilly Skinner, sisters of the bride, were gowned in white crepe de chene, trimmed with embroidered net, fringed with Irish point, and wore black Gainsborough hats. They carried bouquets of La France roses. The ushers were Messrs. Lee S. Skinner, Hubert Hill, Frank Ward and J. W. Hunter.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hill left for Richmond and New York. From New York they will go by boat to New Orleans. On their return to Raleigh they will reside at corner New Bern avenue and Blount street.

Mr. Hill is a member of the firm of J. R. Ferrall & Co., is a business man of ability and is popular with hosts of friends. The bride is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. B. S. Skinner, is pretty and accomplished, and by her lovable disposition has won hundreds of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner yesterday afternoon gave a reception in honor of their daughter. The residence was prettily decorated, all the rooms being festooned with Christmas flowers. As the guests arrived they were received in the hall by Mrs. Charlotte Williamson and Miss Penelope Davis, who ushered them into the charmingly decorated parlor to meet the receiving party, this consisting of Mrs. B. S. Skinner, Miss Nannie Skinner, Mrs. Annie Hill, Mrs. Charles Franklin Massey, of Alabama; Mrs. James William Hunter; Miss Lilly Skinner and Miss Rosa Skinner.

The guests were next escorted to the dining room by Misses Eleanor Yasa and Louise Pittenger, and in charge here were Mrs. A. B. Andrews, Mrs. I. McK. Pittenger, Mrs. George Polk, Miss Elizabeth Briggs, Miss Lilly Ferrall, Miss Pattie Carroll and Miss Mary Latta. Delicious refreshments were served.

Next the guests were ushered to the gift room, where the many lovely wedding gifts were to be seen, and where merrily was served. Ushering the guests to this room were Miss Elsie Riddick and Miss Ida Montgomery, and presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Blanche Blake and Miss Mary Burton.

There were present from out of the city to attend the wedding among others Mr. and Mrs. Marion Cobb, of Greensboro; Judge and Mrs. D. M. Purness, Misses Lella and Annie Corpening, of Statesville; Miss Margaret Heilig, of Salisbury.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR MONEY FOR ALL SOLDIERS. Mr. Robert L. Gray of this city this afternoon received the first check of the Spanish-American war money that the governor has for soldiers who were members of the three regiments. Mr. Gray's part was $3.58. All the money is now ready for distribution and may be obtained from the governor.

Death of An Infant. Richard Smith King, only son of Mr. Dave King, died this morning at 2 o'clock at the home of his parents. The child had been ill but a few days, and though only one year old, was a source of joy to the parents, who have the sympathy of numerous friends. The funeral service will be held tomorrow.

RILEY CANNOT GIVE BOND AND GOES TO JAIL. Bob Riley, the carpenter who was yesterday sentenced to six months on the roads for selling liquor on election day, and who appeared, was today unable to give bond in the sum of $200 and was sent to jail. Rachel Shepherd, a negro woman, was bound over to court for shoplifting. She gave a $50 bond.

THREE CHARTERS GRANTED TODAY

Pinerille Improved Cotton Ginning Company, at Charlotte, to gin and clean cotton and cotton-seed, to press and bale lint cotton, to buy, store, sell and deal in cotton seed and meal and hulls, etc. The capital stock of $4,500 is subscribed for by J. E. Wear, 25 shares; S. L. Smith, 10; W. H. Zimmerman, 10.

Dr. T. B. Twitty Drug Company, at Rutherfordton, to deal in drugs of every description. The company is capitalized at $5,000, but may begin business on $2,800. The incorporators are Dr. T. B. Twitty, 14 shares; J. C. Twitty, 7; Drayton Wolfe, 7.

Odum and Averera Company, at Rocky Mount to conduct in all its branches the business of general merchandising, to deal in horses and to buy and sell real estate, etc. Of the capital stock of $25,000, $10,000 has been subscribed for by J. D. Odum, 50 shares; W. W. Averera, 45; Annie M. Odum, 5.

Funeral of Mrs. Capehart. The funeral services of Mrs. L. C. Capehart will take place at the Christ church at 4 o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be in Oakwood cemetery.

Selling Groceries

is our business. We study the wants of our customers and examine carefully into the merits of every article we sell. If anything we send out is not perfectly satisfactory, or as good as you thing it ought to be, return it and get your money back.

J. R. FERRALL & CO.

TO MOTHERS. MRS. WINSOR'S SOOTHING SYRUP. has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething for over fifty years. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A BOTTLE.

NOTICE OF FORMATION OF COPARTNERSHIP.

The undersigned beg to announce that they have formed a co-partnership for the practice of Dentistry in all its branches. Offices, 2238 Fayetteville Street, formerly occupied by Dr. S. P. Norris.

S. P. NORRIS, D. D. S. S. E. BOUGLASS, D. D. S. This January 1st, 1908.

WAKE COUNTY SAVINGS BANK. INTEREST COMPOUNDED SEMI-ANNUALLY ON YOUR DEPOSIT. T. B. CROWDER, PRESIDENT. W. B. GRIMES, V. PRESIDENT. W. H. YASS, CASHIER.

Put Your Money. To work. If it is with you a question of investing your savings in a manner absolutely safe and to an excellent advantage, why not start a bank account here? Every dollar you deposit will earn 4 per cent. interest for you, compounded every six months. Besides your capital can be withdrawn at a moment's notice.

Mechanics' Saving Bank.

PROMPTNESS IN FILLING PRESCRIPTIONS. Is as important as accuracy. The prescription may call for medicine to save a life. Our force of Prescription Clerks is sufficiently large to meet all demands, and a prescription is never side-tracked, we jump on it at once, fill it instantly, and deliver it at your residence as fast as a bicycle will carry our messenger.

KING-CROWELL, Drug Co.

HICKS' CAPUDINE CURE. FOR ALL HEADACHES and Neuralgia, Rheumatic Pains, Grippe, Colds, Indigestion, Train Nausea, etc. IT'S LIQUID—EFFECTS IMMEDIATELY. THE HICKS' DRUG COMPANY. All phones except Interstate.

COUPON NOTICE.

The December Coupons from the Fall Paid Ten-Year $100 Certificates issued by the Mechanics and Investors Union will be paid on and after Monday, December 23, at the Commercial and Farmers Bank. These Certificates, with 20 semi-annual coupons, are being sold for $92, at which price they give a six per cent. investment, free of taxes.

Monthly Payment Certificates, $100, which mature in 45 months, pay six per cent. per annum profit, with taxes paid by the company. Our assets are invested in loans on real estate and used for building dwellings.

GEORGE ALLEN, Secretary.

CAPS OF ALL KINDS. Hair Goods and Fancy Ribbons for tying Xmas packages.

MRS. OWENS. MISS DENTON.

HOLIDAY BOOKS

We have this year a large and well-selected stock of Holiday Books for all. You will have to see the stock to appreciate the extent of the display. All are invited to call. Mail orders will have our careful attention. Our stock of Children's Books is unusually large and varied.

Alfred Williams & Co.

Raleigh's Best Barbers OTEY and Son. Yarrowborough House.

H. P. S. KELLER. ARCHITECT. RALEIGH, N. C.

Inventory Sale!

Only one week before we begin to take inventory. We have a lot of Cotton and Wool Blankets that we wish to dispose of—we don't want to carry them over—and in order to do so we are offering them at a sacrifice. Note these prices: $.75 Cotton Blankets for .85 $1.00 Cotton Blankets for 1.25 $1.50 Cotton Blankets for 1.50 $3.50 and $4.00 Blankets (Wool) for 3.10 $4.50, $5.00, $6.00, and $7.00 Blankets reduced in like proportion.

SHOES AND HOSIERY

We have a new supply of Godman Shoes and Iron Clad Hosiery. Hear what Mr. Charles Lawrence says in regard to them: "Positively the best I ever tried."

Hunter Bros. & Brewer Company

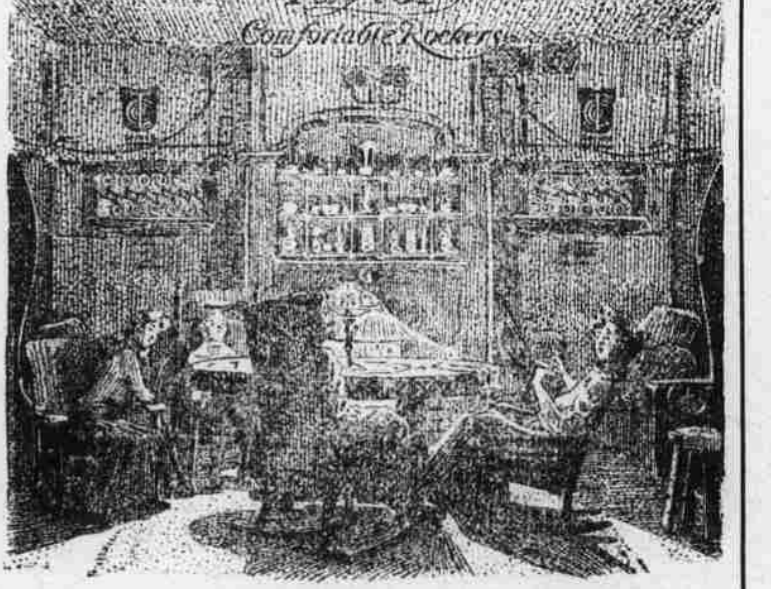

SYSTEMATIC BUYING. Is productive of good results—if you buy at haphazard you are likely to regret it. Buy Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, Watches, Clocks, etc., of dealers with a reputation for square dealing and reliability. Our years of experience have qualified us to be experts in judging these goods, and careful buying enables us to sell as reasonably as good values can be sold for. Look here if you need anything in these lines. H. MAHLERS' SOUS Jewelers - Raleigh, N. C.

Family Washing.

Is coming to be more and more relegated to the laundries as the saving in amonance, wear, and expense is learned. Coupled with the fine work done by special machinery and skilled employes, the result has been an enormous increase in this department. Why not send us your family linen this winter.

Oak City Steam Laundry

Begin the New Year right. Make Home Comfortable and Attractive with our Furniture.

Rockers for All, and All Comfortable because they are made by experts in rocker building—Rocker Specialists—made so by years of doing just one thing as well as it can be done. Rockers in the home have a look of comfort, and a comfortable feel—if they bear the trademark of, and are made by The Taylor Chair Company, the Rocker Specialists of Bedford, Ohio.

We sell them and many other good things. Drop in and see us.

Royall & Borden Furniture Co. 127 FAYETTEVILLE STREET. 128 WILMINGTON STREET.

Miss Mattie Morgan, of Glover, passed through the city today enroute to Greensboro to resume her studies in the State Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Durham and daughter, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Dixon, have returned to Charlotte.

Miss Margie Macon, of Louisburg, passed through the city today enroute to the Greensboro Normal College to resume her studies.

Dr. E. M. Battis, after spending the holidays in Raleigh with his family, returned to Shelby last night to resume his school work.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ellington, of Richmond, who have been visiting his mother, Mrs. J. C. Ellington on Newbern Avenue, returned home today.

Miss Annie Lee Harper, of Wakefield, passed through the city today enroute to Greensboro to resume her studies in the State Normal College.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Womble, who have been spending the holidays in Wilmington, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubert elvin, have returned to the city.

Miss Elizabeth Bass gave a New Year's social last evening at her home, 104 south Harrington street, in honor of her guest, Miss Eliza Lindsay. Miss Alice Willson won the prize after a splendid contest at games.

Wall-Harris. A license was issued today for the marriage of Mr. Jesse Wall and Miss Lela Harris, both of Raleigh.

St. Luke's Circle. St. Luke's Circle will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Luke's home. Election of officers. All members are urged to be present.

Entertainment Tonight. There will be a Christmas entertainment at the Hillsboro Street Christian Church tonight. Recitations will be made and offerings will be accepted for the Orphanage at Elon College. The public is invited.

COMPLIMENTARY DANCE NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT. Cards have been issued for a dance given by Miss Katherine Boylan, Tuesday night, December 23, at the Roney Library, complimentary to her cousin, Mr. Rufus S. Tucker, who is in the city from St. Luke's School, Wayne, Pa., spending the holidays with his aunt, Mrs. James Boylan.

Peebles-Harrison. The following invitations have been sent out: "Mrs. Rebecca Harrison requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ethel, to Mr. Charles Roy Peebles, on Thursday, the ninth of January, nineteen hundred and eight, at twelve o'clock, Tabernacle Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina."

Miss Harrison has a number of friends in the city and is a very popular young lady. Mr. Peebles is one of Raleigh's young and progressive business men. He is a member of the firm of Peebles Bros.

MR. CORPENING CLAIMS MISS LINTON AS BRIDE. No scene was ever more beautiful than that in the Church of the Good Shepherd last evening, when Miss Rachel Louise Linton became the bride of Mr. Arthur Glenn Corpening, of Greensboro. Rev. I. McK. Pittenger performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated for the event with ferns and Christmas flowers.

mas flowers and hundreds of candles threw soft lights on the bride party. There was a large congregation of friends of these popular young people present, and during the evening telegrams of congratulations were received from friends in this and other states. Mrs. Frank T. Ward most charmingly rendered the wedding music and as a processional gave the mairca from Lohengrin. As a recessional Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered. The maid of honor was Miss Mary V. Linton, sister of the bride, who was gowned in radium silk, trimmed in duchesse lace and wearing a bouquet of bride's roses. The groom's best man was Mr. Frank J. Long, of Atlanta, and the ushers were Messrs. A. B. Andrews, Jr., William T. Little, George Lyle Jones of Franklinton, and Q. V. D. Smith.

The bride, beautiful in an empire gown of liberty satin trimmed with real lace, entered with her father. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and she wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom, and carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. The groom entered from the vestry with his best man and received the bride at the chancel.

A handsome array of wedding gifts attested to the popularity of the young people. The bride, a daughter of Captain and Mrs. S. E. Linton, is one of Raleigh's most popular and beautiful young women. Mr. Corpening is a member of the firm of Cobb & Corpening, proprietors of the Benbow House and Hotel Guilford and is a young man of much ability and energy. Both are popular in North Carolina social circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Corpening left on the evening train for a wedding trip 50 points south. After January 15 they will be at home at the Benbow in Greensboro.

There were present from out of the city to attend the wedding among others Mr. and Mrs. Marion Cobb, of Greensboro; Judge and Mrs. D. M. Purness, Misses Lella and Annie Corpening, of Statesville; Miss Margaret Heilig, of Salisbury.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR MONEY FOR ALL SOLDIERS. Mr. Robert L. Gray of this city this afternoon received the first check of the Spanish-American war money that the governor has for soldiers who were members of the three regiments. Mr. Gray's part was $3.58. All the money is now ready for distribution and may be obtained from the governor.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Atchison.

A GOOD ENGRAVING HOUSE. It is just as easy to have the best engraving as the kind that's not so good. Then, there is a certain satisfaction in knowing that the forms used are perfectly correct—according to the latest mandates of fashion. Our business is not only to have the engraving mechanically perfect, but to see that the proper style, form, and stationery are used. Write for samples of Wedding Invitations. J. P. STEVENS ENGRAVING CO., Manufacturers of Fine Stationery, Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga.