WHEAT CLIMBS THE LADDER AGAIN

(Special to The Evening Times.) Chicago, Feb. 17-Wheat opened 1/4 to 1/4 c. higher and made further gains on short coverings and buying by commission houses. Finley Barrell sold on the upturn. Lighter northwest receipts and better cables (Reported by Chas. E. Johnson & Co.) offset the world's shipments.

Opening: Wheat, May, 93% to %; corn, 61 1/4 to %; oats, May. 53%; pork, May, 11.30; lard, May, 7.27; ribs, May, 6.42.

ADD GRAIN ... N 6., 5$ 40 39 28 17 The bears in grain were winners today, attacking prices late and fairly scuttling the ship of speculation. William Dean Howells III.

(By Cable to The Times.) Rome, Feb. 17—William Dean Howells, the novellst, is suffering from an attack of influenza. His physicians are not alarmed over his condition, but it will be several days before he will have recovered. An epidemic of grip is rapidly developing in Rome, the same as in London, Paris, and other European centres. Physicians have been unable to check the disease. Mr. Howells has been ill now for several days, and while at first it was thought there would be complications his physicians state with assurance that his recovery is but a matter of a week or so.

New Orleans Cotton Market,

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) * New Orleans, La., Feb. 17.-There was very little of interest to develop in the cotton market today. Trade showed the glaring lack of speculative support and as a consequence the market was narrow and extremely quiet, showing practically no effect of the encouraging cables received from Liverpool. There was moderate buying for the short account and the levels were advanced was by no means strong and trade suffered largely through the lack of support from the bull contingent. At noon the market ruled quiet 1
