RED SOX TAKE FIRST GAME WITH NEW BERN.

Young Pap Harris won his third straight game yesterday afternoon, when the Red Sox behind him defeated New Bern by the score of 7 to 2. Both teams erred profusely, C. Yerkes for the visitors particularly distinguishing Taken as a whole the game was not interesting, though sharp fielding and lively batting at times caused grandstand and bleachers to respond occasionally. The Red Sox clearly outplayed the visitors.

B. B. B. TEAM LAYS OUT

WASHINGTON NINE, 10 TO 7 The B. B. B. team, went down to Washington with the Tabernacie exursion yesterday and played the Washington team. The game resulted in a victory for the B. B. B. s by the score of 10 to 7. Stafford, for the B. B. B.'s, pitched a good game, striking out ten men. The game would have been closer but for the errors by both sides,

The game was interesting from start to finish and was witnessed by a large crowd. B. B. B.'s21300211*-10 9 5 Washington000400210-7 9 7 Batteries: Stafford and Harris; Short and Floyd, Time, 1:30. The B. B. B. team was given a trip down the river after the game and they had a great time. They were accompanied by a bunch of good-looking Washington girls, who made things very pleasant for the B. B. B.'s. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. J. H. Weathers. All the team agree that they had the best time of their lives in Washington, and some of them are going back down there on the Conductors' excursion next Tuesday.

LEAGUELETS.

The Greensboro News states that Bull Thompson will pitch for Charlotte today. Has "Bull" been released or has he been borrowed?

Pap pitched good, steady ball yesterday and was permitted to go to the iremen's tournament today. Hoffman hit a beauty, against the ight field fence yesterday, only to get thrown out at second. Umpire Van Arman is a good umpire but he should follow the ball more Had he done this yesterday a few close decisions would have been decided differently.

The attendance was very small yes terday. The people of Raleigh wish to see good ball. But if the crowds don't attend the games the team can't ge along. It takes money and not hot air to run a ball team.

Umpire Vic Dunlap has resigned and John Ivey Smith, one time captain of the Wake Forest baseball team, has been elected to fill the vacancy.

Brandon will pitch this afternoon and Rummy will do the backstop stunt These boys make a good pair and wil make New Bern go some. The game will be called at 4:30 p, m.

TRUSTEES HEAR SPLENDID REPORT

The board of trustees of the Methodist Orphanage, in session here ratified the purchase of fifty acres of land purchased by the executive committee of the board of trustees. heard the report of the superintendent of the orphanage and found that the institution was in most excellent condition.

The land cost $13,000 and a pro ision in the purchase is that ten acres be reserved for a Methodist college for women. The local members of the board and Rev. J. N. Cole, the superintendent, have the matter of raising funds to pay for the land in their charge. The orphanage now has 137 children and the special investment fund of be-quests now amounts to $20,000. events incident to the building of our During the year also a home costing offering to the public from the pen of $7,000 has been built for the super- William Lightfoot Visscher. intendent. > WHITE MAN CHARGED WITH FRAUD BROUGHT HERE TODAY.

On a warrant sworn out by G. W. Barham, of Wendell, alleging fraud, George Mims was brought to Raleigh today from Harnett county by Sheriff J. B. Lanier. It is claimed that Mims committed fraud in that he beat Mr. Barham, of Wendell, out of $4 in board. A warrant was sent to Harnett county for him, and he was brought to Raleigh today. Mims gave a $25 bond pending a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace F. M. Ferrall, of Wendell.

THOUSANDS OF VOTES

Raleigh Leads the Race, Rockingham Second, With Cary in Third Place.

The contest for the two weeks' trip o the seashore grows warm as it draws o a close and it is very evident that several will be in the race at the close Saturday at 12 o'clock. Two weeks at either the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City of two weeks at the Tarrymoore at Wrightsville Beach. That is enough to interest any one who would enjoy a good summer outing. The trip to Wrightsville Beach will have to be taken at once, beginning June 22, but the trip to Morehead can be taken any time desired by the winner.

All information regarding the trip or how to secure votes will be furnished the young ladies at The Times office. Remember the contest closes at 12 o'clock Saturday and all votes must be in The Times office by that time.

A Season of Successful Selling.

It is a flattering fact that prompt responses made to the calls in our "ads' have made the June Clearance Sale a succession of successes. Ninety-nine times out of a hundred the trade finds the same goods on sale here at lower prices than elsewhere and if sometimes a competitor in a moment of perplexity and desperation cuts under our prices, we invariably cut under as often as is necessary to maintain our fixed and permanent standard of "Best Goods at Lowest Prices." This is a season of contraction and economy, therefore it is no surprise to hear it said that this store is crowded at all times and hours of the
