Jupiter Pluvius Officiates at Kinston.

(Special to The Evening Times.) Kinston, N. C., June 25.—Today's game between Wilson and Kinston was declared off on account of rain. This is the second game deferred between the two teams, the other being a game in Wilson.

What a pity it rained! The Red Sox would have had another game to their credit.

RED SOXLETS.

"Wet grounds."

Rain! Rain! Rain!

The game was called yesterday after an inning and a half had been played.

Kelly will try out the three new men, Hill at first, Rush at second and Hartman in right field. Hill has been to the bat only three times since joining the Red Sox and he has secured three safe hits. The game will be started at 4 p. m., sharp.

McKnight has pitched every Thursday since the league opened. Thursday seems to be his Jonah. Better luck next time, Roy!

Hill seems to be the stuff. He has been at the bat three times since he has been with Kelly and he has secured three safe hits.

"Kid" Dawson received a hard crack on his cranium yesterday but his head was harder than the ball and only the ball suffered.

Fair weather, good ball, clean game, that's all. The fans are hungry for a game now. They haven't seen a game for over a week. A large crowd is expected out this afternoon.

It will be of interest to the fans and rooters of Raleigh to know that the Danville team of the Virginia League is also nicknamed "Red Sox."

It was a good thing for Goldsboro that Jupiter Pluvius called at the ball park yesterday afternoon. The Red Sox had started out to continue their batting streak of Wednesday. In the first inning Goldsboro went down in one, two, three order. Sullivan hit to Farmer and was out at first; Adams out, pitcher to first, and James fanned. In Raleigh's half, Hoffman flew out to short; Hartman, a new man, hit to first and out; Warren hit a high one in the infield and was safe. Farmer got an infield hit; Dawson was hit by a pitched ball; Hill hit safely to centre and scored Warren. Rush, another new man, was hit by pitcher and forced Farmer in; Thompson went out, second to first.

In the second, Bennett fanned; instead, the gentleman behind the spectators, received a free pass and stole second; Gibson flew out to Warren, and Nagle went out via short to first.

Rain set in at this juncture and Umpire Shepard was forced to call the game off, much to the sorrow of the 150 faithful fans who went out in spite of the threatening weather.

Today's Game Will Be Ginger.

The game today promises to be full of ginger. "Pap" Harris will twirl for the Red Sox and Caldwell, the south-paw, will deliver the goods for the boys from "the hottest place on earth."

Carnegie Helps Out College.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Greenville, Pa., June 25.—Rev. Isaac C. Kettler, president of Grove City college, has received a check for $20,000 for the institution. While in New York recently Dr. Kettler met Andrew Carnegie and appealed for aid. When he arrived home the check was awaiting him.

SERIES OF SERMONS ON THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

Rev. P. G. Elsom will on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock begin a series of sermons at Fayetteville Street Baptist church on the Ten Commandments as found in the 20th chapter of Exodus. Mr. Elsom will preach the first in this series next Sunday morning on "Thou shalt have no other gods before me."

Mrs. P. W. Young Ill.

It will be sad news to friends to know that the condition of Mrs. P. W. Young, mother of Hon. James R. Young, continues to grow worse. Mrs. Young had a fall at the home of her son here about ten days ago by which her thigh was fractured. She did well until Thursday night, but suddenly became decidedly worse. Commissioner Young arrived home this morning from the Charlotte convention, returning as soon as he was informed of his mother's condition.

Mrs. Reavis Improving.

Friends of Mrs. Annie M. Reavis, who had the misfortune of breaking her hip by falling on Fayetteville street some time ago, will be delighted to learn that she is improving. Mrs. Reavis is still unable to walk, but it is to be hoped that she will soon be able to do so.

BRYAN CLAIMS HE HAS 25 MORE THAN HE NEEDS

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Lincoln, Neb., June 25.—Mr. Bryan's total of instructed delegates has now reached 697, or 25 more than the necessary two-thirds of the 1,008 delegates in the Denver convention. Aside from these, there are 67 delegates, uninstructed, who have given pledges of support. At least, these are the figures compiled by C. W. Bryan, brother of the democratic candidate for nomination, who has had charge of and received the reports.

NO REFERENCE TO FEDERAL OWNERSHIP OF RAILROADS.

Will Appear in Denver Platform, Says Mack After Talking With Mr. Bryan.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Lincoln, Neb., June 25.—No reference to the government ownership of railroads will be made in the democratic national platform.

Positive confirmation of this decision was obtained from Norman E. Mack, New York member of the democratic national committee, after he had been in conference with William J. Bryan for more than three hours. "I found Mr. Bryan," said Mr. Mack, "in a perfectly pacific frame of mind. He will be named at Denver on the first ballot, and I should not be surprised if he received more than 800 votes of the 1,008 that will comprise the convention."

"In other words, our convention will be a more enthusiastic Bryan assemblage than the Chicago convention was a Roosevelt body."

"Will municipal ownership, federal ownership of railroads or cognate subjects be touched upon in the platform?"

"No, emphatically and finally no," exclaimed Mr. Mack.

"In my long conference with Mr. Bryan I ascertained, beyond the shadow of doubt, that nothing upon which the party nationally is not in substantial accord will go into the platform with his assent."

SON OF ICE KING MORSE TAKES A BRIDE

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Cambridge, Mass., June 25.—Miss Elvah May Pevey, of Cambridge, daughter of City Solicitor G. A. A. Pevey, and Benjamin W. Morse, son of Charles W. Morse, the New York ice magnate, were married last night by Dr. Frederick E. Marble of the North Avenue Baptist church.

Mr. Morse, who is a Harvard senior, received his diploma from the college yesterday. Miss Pevey is one of the most popular girls in the younger Cambridge society set.

More than 1,000 invitations were issued for a reception, which was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

MRS. FRANK GOULD WILL HAVE DIVORCE, AFTER ALL

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, June 25.—Frank J. Gould, it was learned today, has actually been served in an action instituted by his wife for an absolute divorce. She proceeds on statutory grounds, but the name of the correspondent is withheld from the public. The action of Mrs. Gould, who was Helen Margaret Kelly, caused some astonishment in social circles, for it was declared only recently that the young couple were near a reconciliation.

LOUISIANA RICE MILLS HAVE FORMED BIG MERGER.

New Orleans, La., June 25.—The big rice mills of Louisiana have formed a combine or merger under the title of the United Irrigation & Rice Milling Company. The La. Palana, Hechinger, Jumble, Lichtenstein and other rice interests throughout Louisiana; the Independent Rice Mill, at Crowley; Abbeville mill, at Abbeville; Donaldsonville mill, at Donaldsonville; Eureka mill, at Eatherwood, and Gueydan mill, at Gueydan, enter the consolidation, which will also control the Lichtenstein and Hechinger Irrigation plant at Crowley and the Abbeville plant in Vermilion parish. The new company is capitalized at $2,500,000.
