SOUTHWESTERN RAIN AND SNOW REPORT MAKES WHEAT DECLINE

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Chicago, Ill., July 1.—Wheat was up 3-5 to 1-3 on the rains southwest and the snow report. Snow makes the winter wheat decline during June 4-5 points. Kansas condition shows a heavy decline. Liverpool comes 1-4 to 2-4 higher.
The bears received a drubbing in the grain pits today, prices being higher and quite strong all around. Resting spots for the day showed advances of 3/4 to 1 1/2 for wheat, 1/2 to 3/4 for corn and 1/4 to 1/2 for oats. Provisions followed the upturn in grain for a time, but late in the day they broke away and closed 1/2 to 3/4 lower.

BUREAU DAY VERY DULL IN CONTRACT DEPARTMENT.

Immediate Gain of Seven to Ten Points Rather Disappointing.
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New Orleans, La., July 1.—There was only a limited interest displayed in spot cotton during the first half of the day, buyers generally reporting a waiting market. The offerings were fairly good so far as the better grades were concerned, but the intermediate qualities, which are in better demand just now, are not so readily obtainable, as the bulk of stocks remaining in factor's hands run to high grade staples, which have been carried for some time past under limitations. It is probable the effect of today's bureau report will be to create a better demand after the figures shall have been thoroughly analyzed by the mill interests, but at this writing the market is distinctly dull and uninteresting.
"Bureau day" in the contract department was singularly devoid of interest or effect. The trade had generally expected an advance on any condition short of 83, and when the flash came at 81.2 a sharp bulge should naturally have followed. But the market lacked outside interest and floor traders proved unequal to the occasion, to the end that the rather disappointing result. On second call the net gain from yesterday's figures showed at 56 1/2 points on the new crop positions.

LOOKING UP IMMIGRATION.

Louisiana Wants to Know What Kind of Stock She is Getting.
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New Orleans, La., July 1.—Clem F. Estopinal has sailed for Europe on the Austro-American steamship Atlanta with a commission from Gov. Sanders to work up the immigration movement from the crowded countries of Europe into Louisiana. Mr. Estopinal went under the direct authority of Col. Schuler, state commissioner of immigration, and as the representative of the state of Louisiana.

To Settle Dog Question.

Some of the citizens are knocking because they say it is unjust to make them pay a privilege tax to keep a dog and then be fined because the dog runs on the street. Now if all dog dogs found running on the street are taken up and those unclaimed after a certain time, were chloroformed, the dog question could be easily handled.—New Bern Journal.

JOSEPH LISTON HELD FOR ARSON

Attempt to Burn Berlin Department Store Most Daring In City's Firebug History

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
New York, July 1.—Joseph Liston, alias Joseph O'Brien, was held for the grand jury on the charge of arson in the Manhattan avenue police court, Williamsburg, today, after Fire Marshal Brophy had presented his evidence to show how O'Brien had tried to burn the Berlin department store at Broadway and Willoughby avenue yesterday.
The attempt at arson was the most daring in the history of the crime in New York. Last fall O'Brien was sent to the island for throwing a stone through the plate glass window of the Berlin store. Yesterday he got the idea of revenge which was strong in him. Going to the store, he asked to see some lace curtains. When the salesgirl got them down, O'Brien watched his chance and attempted a match to a big pile of the curtains.
Salesgirl Helped Capture Him.
In the excitement that followed the man tried to get away, but the girl followed him and pointed him out to the store superintendent. A dozen clerks captured Liston and he was turned over to the police.
The blaze was extinguished before any material damage was done. A panic among the women customers in the store was narrowly averted.

eration performed by Dr. Wilson. The names of the mysterious woman visitor and the man under suspicion are connected by the police.
The man is a member of a well known Philadelphia family, prosperous in business and until recently, a resident of the city, but who lately has made his home with his motherless children in a town not many miles from this city.
His wife, already the mother of three children, sought out Dr. Wilson several months ago. She had been directed to him by a woman friend living near Jenkintown, Pa. She concealed from her husband the fact that she had gone to the physician until she was near death from blood poisoning, the result of the operation. On her deathbed she confessed the truth to her husband. He had been devoted to her and the thought that he was to lose his wife under such circumstances drove him nearly insane.
Wished to Shield Wife's Memory.
He recalled from the idea of having Dr. Wilson arrested. He wished to shield his wife's memory and his children from the disgrace that exposure would bring upon them.
It is at this juncture that the mysterious young woman is believed to have entered on the scene of the tragic life drama. The results show that no crime was ever more carefully or more skillfully planned.

Sleuths Watch Every Steamer.

The silver service that will be presented to the cruiser North Carolina was today shipped by H. Mahler's Sons to Morehead City. Mr. Louis Mahler and Mr. Chas. J. Harris will leave Raleigh tomorrow. Lieutenant Governor Winston has already gone down.
The service will be presented fourteen miles off Morehead City Friday morning by Lieut.-Gov. Winston. Mr. Harris will introduce Gov. Winston and Commander Victor Blue will accept the service for the cruiser.
Three revenue cutters are at Morehead City to carry the visitors out to the cruiser. A dance will be given tomorrow night at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, in which the naval officers and others will participate.
A special train will be run by the Norfolk & Southern from Raleigh and intermediate points Friday to Morehead City.
Will the Warning Be Heeded?
There is a warning in this of the importance of seeing that competition in the iron and steel industry and trade is kept alive. There is but one way to make sure of this and that is by making competition worldwide. It is absurd to contend that the industry needs protection in this country, and the only use and effect of the tariff barrier against foreign competition is to enable the great concerns here to unite for the suppression of domestic competition.—New York Journal of Commerce.
