THIRTY TEACHERS ARE TAKING EXAMINATION

Thirty Wake county teachers are standing the examination in the office of Supt. Judd for teachers' certificates. The examination will continue through tomorrow. The institute at Cary, which closed last week, has been the most successful ever held in the county. The superintendent and teachers are gratified at the progress made.

Register Case For Laurinburg

was apparently the cat's paw of his father.

The wife and three daughters of Register appeared before the Governor to give their side of the story. It is claimed that Register, who is 70 years old, is in feeble health and is unable to work more than three days each week.

Many of the citizens of Columbus county, it is said, are opposed to a pardon being given the prisoner, though a large number has joined in the request for the pardon. Among those against the pardon are Mr. Lewis, who helped to prosecute; Judge Lyon, the solicitor, and Mr. N. A. McLean.

ZASTERA ON TRIAL FOR KILLING SHEPPARD FAMILY.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Freehold, N. J., July 27.—Claiming he was suffering from a strange form of insanity caused by the bite of a dog and was not mentally or morally responsible, Frank Zastera, who shot and killed Lieut. and Mrs. William B. Sheppard and their domestic, Jennie Bendy, was arraigned in court today.

The case is on trial before Judge Foster. Zastera is defended by former Judge William Foster. Prosecutor Nevins is conducting the case in person and asserts he is positive of a conviction.

American Car Reaches Berlin.

(By Cable to The Times.)
Berlin, July 27.—The American car in the New York-to-Paris automobile race arrived here this morning at 8 o'clock.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional. Both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, making the repair of all nerves, all lungs, and all blood elements.

HOLDER BILL IS BEFORE HOUSE

Taken Up in Sections and Blackburn Amendment Passes
By 98 to 17.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Atlanta, Ga., July 27.—At 11:30 o'clock this morning the house took up the consideration of the convict lease bill of Mr. Holder, of Jackson, which provides for the discontinuance of the present lease system on December 31, 1911, unless there shall be further legislation beforehand, and which has already been recommended by a committee of the whole of the house for passage.

Discretionary Power For Judges.
Mr. Blackburn, of Fulton, offered an amendment providing that trial judges be given discretionary power to send all misdemeanor convicts to the state farm instead of to the public works. A substitute gave this power to trial judges only in cases of female convicts. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 98 to 17.

On request of Mr. Holder, his bill was taken up in sections and perfected by the adoption or defeat of all the amendments to each section.

At 2 this afternoon the house was still engaged in the discussion of the Holder bill.
Convict Lessees' Books Produced.
The Felder legislative committee resumed its labors this afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Louis D. Yancey and the books of Hamby and Tooms and W. B. Hamby, convict lessees, as the first subjects for the official probe.

NAN PATTERSON WAS TRYING TO BREAK UP HAPPY HOME.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Pittsburg, Pa., July 27.—It developed today that Nan Patterson, who was tried in New York City three times for the murder of Frank T. (Caesar) Young, was arrested Saturday by detectives and ordered to leave the city.

The famous chorus girl left Pittsburg Saturday night. She was informed that if she came here again she would be sent to the workhouse. The wife of a well-known man complained that Nan Patterson was enticing her husband from her and her home. She said her husband was infatuated with the chorus girl.

MEXICAN OIL FIELD FIRE DAILY INCREASES IN FURY.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Tampico, Mex., July 27.—The oil field fire, near the San Geronimo river, 73 miles southwest of here, has increased in fury. Several subterranean explosions of gas have occurred during the last three days, causing new openings through which the burning oil is now flowing. According to the government engineer sent to the scene of the fire a few days ago, the flames maintained a height of 1,000 to 1,100 feet and the estimated flow of oil that is being destroyed is 90,000 barrels a day.

NORTH DAKOTA TO ERECT A MONUMENT TO ROOSEVELT.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Minneapolis, Minn., July 27.—North Dakota will erect a monument to Theodore Roosevelt. The work of collecting has been begun by the Roosevelt Monument Association.

The commission for designing the statue has been given to Gustav Vigeland, a Norwegian sculptor, who has already submitted several sketches.

The present intention of the association is to place the monument in the state park at Abercrombie, where was erected the first government fort in the state.

BATHER'S JOKE BRINGS DEATH TO ALABAMA LIEUTENANT.

Manila, July 27.—Lieut. Bernard Oswolt, 25th United States infantry at Fort McKinley, originally from Alabama, was electrocuted while bathing in a fellow soldier, who had hoped to play a joke on him by attaching a live electric wire to the tub.

Royal Censor New For Reporters' Apparel.

Two newspaper reporters, one for the Times, the other for the Standard, nearly caused a social convulsion at the Prince of Wales' garden party at Marlboro House this week for the Pan-Anglican congress by appearing in every-day stiff straw hats. Stern etiquette prescribes for such occasions a silk hat surmounting a costume outwardly composed of dark frock coat and gray trousers.

Luckily the Comptroller of the Prince's household, Sir William Carrington, spied the reporters before Wales did and led them out of sight. Their newspapers were formally notified afterward of the reporters' grave offense. Hereafter all reporters assigned to give publicity to royal functions will have to pass inspection before a censor of clothes. London Correspondent New York World.

Another Parallel With Our Exposition.

The authorities seem to have decided that the Franco-British exhibition is not to be opened at all on Sundays, which will prevent thousands of French people from crossing the channel to visit it. The king favored its being opened on Sundays. "It would have been allowed at once," he said, "if the exhibition had not been the Franco-British. The English have such fear of a continental Sunday, and they erroneously associate this with France."—London Letter to New York Sun.

The Woes of the Newspaper Man.

Generally, the more the newspaper man tries to be fair and just in his reports the more bitterly he is criticized for malice and injustice and intentional misrepresentation. This is not an easy world to live in if your lines of life cross nearly every other man's in your vicinity, as a newspaper man's must necessarily.—Florence (S. C.) Times.

Harmless Armament.

Two French duelists fought the other day for an hour and a half, and then had to break off because of the approaching darkness. One of them was scratched on the arm. Duelling in the Paris suburbs is becoming about as harmless a summer evening's diversion as sprinkling the grass and running the lawn mower.—New York Tribune.

The Democratic Chance.

The democrats have their chance this year and should take advantage of it. Let's strike together and win the fight. The man who claims to be a democrat and who fails to support the nominee (even if personally the candidate does not measure up to this particular voter's standard) is not a democrat, but a mugwump—a disgrace to the party.—Franklin Chronicle.

Between Two Fires.

If it is persisted in, this policy of showing that unwise or wicked underlings in the war department did the many things that ought not to have been done, and without the knowledge or consent of Secretary Taft, we shall be forced to believe that Mr. Taft was but a figurehead of the department. That will not do, of
