TOOK TEN INNINGS.
 For the Sailors to Win From the Red Sox Yesterday.

The error column only shows three errors, but all of these were costly, and several dumb plays were also made.

Raleigh took the lead in the second by bunching, coupled with two bases on balls, which netted three runs. This did not phase the Sailors and they came back in the fourth and piled up three runs, tying the score. Wilmington went ahead in the sixth, and the Red Sox tied up in the eighth. The tenth inning decided the score, the Sailors winning by 6 to 4.

How Scores Were Made.
 In Raleigh's half of the second Walle Warren knocked a long foul over the little fence in the left field. The umpire threw out a new ball and the first ball that Levy delivered. Walle smacked to left for a beautiful single. Reid was hit by pitched ball. Farmer bunted and beat it out. Wrenn hit to left, scoring Warren. Reid and Farmer scored on Edmundson's cracking single to centre, Wrenn going to third. Wrenn and Hoffman tried to work squeeze play and Hoffman failed to hit ball. Wrenn ran out of the line was out. Hoffman received a free pass. Burke and Hoover skied out to right-field and short stop respectively.

Business was anything but brief in Wilmington's half of the fourth. Sharpe led off with a hit to centre. Smith flew out to Farmer and Ross fanned. Doak hit a high fly between left and centre. Farmer and Hoffman both started after it, each stopping when in a few feet of it. When Hoffman saw that Farmer had stopped he made a lunge at it, but only touched it with his finger-tips. Smith went to second on this play, scoring later on Wagner's hit to centre. Wagner took second on the throw in to catch Smith. Flynn hit to right, Doak and Wagner scoring. Webster hit three line drives to Wrenn.

Ross started the ball rolling in the sixth with a hit to left. Doak sacrificed. Wagner flew out to left and Flynn hit to centre, scoring Ross. Webster fanned.

Warren made his third hit in the eighth, went to second on Reid's sacrifice and scored on Farmer's hit to right. Wrenn hit to Smith, who doubled to second to first, retiring Farmer and Wrenn.

In Raleigh's ninth Edmundson hit a hard drive to left, which got away from Flynn. Hoffman out, hit by batted ball. Burke hit a fly to Rath at short and did not run to first. Rath saw this, purposely dropped the ball and made a double play on Edmundson at second and Burke at first. Had Burke gone to first they would have made only one out. It was poor headwork.

The dirigible took an ascension in the tenth. Hoey started off with a hit to right. Sharpe bunts, Hoover runs in, scoops ball up and throws Sharpe out at first. Where is Burke? Instead of covering third, as he should have done, he is standing on top of second base when the play is made. Hoey, ever alert for such chances, saw the vacancy and trotted over to third sack. Smith hit to left, scoring Hoey. Ross hit to Burke and is safe on bad fumble, Smith, who had stolen second, going to third. Doak hit to right and Ross was thrown out at third. Wagner hit by short and Flynn flew out to centre.

Hoover reached first on a muffed fly by Doak. Porter hit to Rath, who touched second and doubled Porter out at first. Warren was hit by pitched ball and Reid skied out to Doak.

 Smith's one-hand stop of Hoover's hard grounder and Warren's hit were the most notable features.

MISPLAYS.

Good luck cannot last when misplays are in abundance. And misplays will continue as long as there is a man on the team that makes dumb ones himself, and when anybody else errs he has a long address to deliver about how to play this and that place, what you ought to do and how rotten you did do. C. Fox was a good example of what a man like this can do to demoralize a team. It makes no difference how good an individual player is, if he causes dissatisfaction among his teammates, he does a team more harm than good.

Perhaps some few readers will wonder who I am driving at in the above paragraph. The gentleman that, in the writer's opinion, has and will cause disgruntledness among the players is no other than the short-stop, Burke. On Monday, when a bad play was made and Wilmington was allowed to score, he came up in the reporter's box and remarked, that "some players on the Raleigh team should have gold medals," that "they made me sick," and other such belittling remarks. Yesterday, when Hoffman and Farmer did the Alphonso and Gaston stunt, he came in and repeated to Hoffman what he should have done, etc. Hoffman grew tired of this call down from a player other than the captain or manager and in so many words told Burke so. A fluster was only averted by the hasty interference of gentlemen sitting in the reporter's box and the players.

Hill was playing good ball before C. Fox joined the Red Sox. Hoffman has always played gilt edge ball up to now. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Walle Warren was there with the swatting pole yesterday. Three hits, a base on balls and hit by pitched ball was his record.

Hold your foot on the bag, Reid, and you will be the best first baseman in the league.

Mr. Smith, of Wilmington, is the best third baseman in the league, with Hoover a close second.
 Levy was replaced by Webster in the third yesterday and he won out. Webster has pitched five games against the Red Sox and won all of them. He seems to be a big Jonah.
 The Sailor's outfield was a little off yesterday. Three flies were dropped. The infielders were there with the bells on, each one doing good work.

 Rummy Wrenn's hit was great yesterday. A clean hit by a Red Sox with men on bases is seldom seen here.

With a game to the credit of each team, today's game promises to be full of ginger and snap. Brandon will probably whirl for Raleigh. Go out and urge the Sox on to victory. Let's get above the 200 mark and our hodoo will disappear.

Catcher Stevens, of Sumter, S. C., who had accepted terms to play in Raleigh, wired to President Pearce that he had been sold to Spartanburg and could not come to Raleigh.

Pitcher Hauser, of Sumter, will arrive this afternoon. He has a good reputation. Will Wynne says he won the pennant for Sumter. He pitched for Wadesboro yesterday.

B. B. B.'s vs. Wake Forest.
 The strong amateur teams of Wake Forest and the B. B. B.'s will contest for honors at the new athletic park tomorrow. Both teams are strong and a good game may be assured. Game called at 4 p. m. Go out.

Dunn Spitfires Too Fast.
 Dunn, N. C., Aug. 5.—The Dunn "Spitfires" were too fast for the Selma "Blue Sox" here yesterday and defeated them 8 to 5 in a slugging match. It was the heaviest hitting game of the season, the Spitfires banging Davis and Harding for two home runs, one three-bagger and four two-base hits. Taylor caught a beautiful game.

The features were the home run drives by core, Shell and Davis, and the kicking of the Selma team.

Excellent Health Advice.
 Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness and torpor of the liver and bowels is no pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c.
