

SOCIETY.

THE STRESS.
(With Apologies, Etc.)
The dictionary, the encyclopedia and the almanac,
Considerable, ponderable and eternal Voice of the past, the present and the future.
The lightning, the lightning-bug and the street car.
Work of God, of nature and of man.
Wherefore comes the sooth-sayer to the seer.
The springtime, the time to spring
and the main spring;
The hope well, the dope well and the
well sweep;
The greeting, the meeting and the method.
Round, around and the rounder
Turning, revolving the world roll over.
The hoppergrass, the grasshopper
and the Katydid.
The fiddle, the fiddlesticks and the fiddler.
The bug, the bug-house and the bed-
bug.
The run, the running and the runner Consequential, considerableness of the microbe.
The dense, impenetrable numbskull, Wherefore this infinite knowledge of ignorance.
Oh, incomprehensible mystery of mundane spheres.
Nothing is shut up in a vacuum.

Death of Mrs. J. L. Lee.
Kernersville, N. C., Aug. 8.—A bride of only a few months, Mrs.
Joseph Love Lee died yesterday at 7:15 p. m., at her home in Laurinburg. As Miss Edythe Kerner, she was universally loved here. She was a beautiful girl, sweet, lovable and gracious to high and low. There was not one of her wide circle of acquaintances, from the humblest of the mill hands, to the social leaders of her native town, who did not love
the girl.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Kerner, of Kernersville, and a sister of O. W., Jho. G., and Frank Kerner. She leaves three sisters, Mrs. Holloman, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. W. M. Partin, of Burlington, and Mrs. E. M. Whittington, of Montgomery, Ala.
She will be buried here today.

Want! A Son-in-Law.
"A Press Gang" or a romance in the time of King George, the third, is a title of one of the pictures on at the Gaiety. The subject is a thrilling love scene. Another picture on at the Gaiety, and a very amusing
subject, is "A Policeman's Dream."
The subject deals with many heroic acts on the copper's part, while he is asleep.
Many people do not care for son-in-laws, or at least that is what they pretend, but one of the pictures on as a change here is entitled, "Wanted, A Son-in-Law." The other subject is "Picturesque Naples."
