BOTH GAMES IN NINTH.

Giants Win in Last Spasm of Both Games of Double-Header.

Rube Howard in the first and Sullivan in the second did the work for the Red Sox batters yesterday.

The first game was fast and furious, not a man crossing the registering point until the ninth.

Bertrand pitched a good game, and had Burke tried to touch Bennett, who was running for Walsh, the Giants wouldn't have scored.

Hamilton fouled out to Wrenn; Walsh hit to left. Bennett was put on to run for Walsh, and he tried to steal second.

Each side scored once in the fourth inning of the second game, and again the Giants won out in the ninth.

NO SECOND PRIMARY.

Williamson Withdraws and Will Support Pogram.

Capt. B. P. Williamson has withdrawn from the race and in a spirit which promises much toward bringing peace and harmony into the democratic camp, he pledges whole-hearted support to his party.

His card is as follows: To the Public:—I want to thank my friends who voted for me in the last primary, and I have nothing but kind words for those who did not, for they voted for me, and elected me five times and they thought that was enough.

The Wake county democratic executive committee will meet at noon today in the court-house, for the official canvass of the returns.

Murphy Appointed to Position Made Vacant by Judge Moore's Death.

From a list of three applicants, all with the highest endorsement, Governor Glenn yesterday appointed J. D. Murphy, of Asheville, judge of the 15th judicial district, to succeed Judge Moore, who died last week.

The following sketch of Mr. Murphy's life and achievements is clipped from the morning paper: "James Dixon Murphy was born July 24, 1858. He was educated at the high school of Wallace, and the University of North Carolina.

Exciting Finishes. Two exciting finishes. Both games lost in the ninth. Oh, Sandlapper! how rough.

Umstead's catch of Reid's long fly in centre galled the Red Sox's hopes in the first game.

But for Reddy Walsh Rube Howard would have gone far enough up in the air to make a balloon look like a toy.

Only a heady catcher like Reddy Walsh could have held him down.

Hill showed up in good form. He is fast and a fairly good hitter.

Jimmie Bertrand pitched a swell game and should have won.

A two-bagger and two singles did the work in the first game.

Reid was there with the rubber goods yesterday. Stretching is his long suit.

Cogswell continues to show up as a great hitter.

Payne pitched a good game, but the "hoodoo" ninth spoiled the effect of his efforts.

Rummy Wrenn was behind the plate as strong as a brick wall. Rummy is one of the surest catchers in the league.

The last game of the season this afternoon. Brandon will break up the league by blanking Goldsboro.
