BUSY DAY FOR SAILORS OF THE AMERICAN FLEET

Great Program Prepared for the Entertainment of the American Visitors

OFFICERS AND MEN HAVING A BIG TIME

The Days Program included a Railroad Trip, a Garden Party by the Governor General, Sports Through the Afternoon, the Admiral's Dinner and a Magnificent Display of Fireworks at Night—Baseball Game Brings Back Memories of Home to the Jackies.

(By Cable to The Times.) Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 22. (8:30 p. m.)—This was a busy day for the sailors and officers of the American battleship fleet. The program prepared by the Australians included a railroad trip this morning, a garden party by the governor general, sports through the afternoon, the admiral's dinner late in the day, and a magnificent display of fireworks this evening from various points in the harbor.

The entertainment today was mainly for the enlisted men save the two state occasions presided over by the state officials. Bright and early this morning innumerable boats put off from the sides of the big battleships in the harbor, bringing upwards of 500 bluejackets into the city. As soon as they landed they were hurried away upon a pleasure jaunt to New Castle and the blue mountains in special trains secured for the purpose. The trip was a most delightful one and the men enjoyed it beyond measure. To express their great pleasure they cheered the Australians and evidenced every feeling of regard for their hosts. Those who did not feel inclined to take advantage of the excursion remained in the city, strolling through the streets, looking upon the sights and scenes there to be found.

The demonstrations of the fire brigade this afternoon was interesting, but it could not compare in interest with the baseball match which was played. Laying aside everything else the jackies surged towards the athletic field and absolutely lost themselves in the game for an hour and a half. It brought back all the memories of home, where baseball is the national game. They cheered and rooted and otherwise displayed evidence that they were all ardent fans.

The fireworks displays this evening was one of the finest yet tendered the men. The harbor was lighted up with bursting booms and mortars. Tomorrow will be spent in sight-seeing.

MRS. BRADLEY MARRIES.

Fifty Years Old, She Marries Her Husband's Nephew, Age 24.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Newport News, Va., Aug. 22.—Mattie Bradley, widow of Robert Bradley, who was known throughout the country in the racing world as "Virginia Bradley," was married in Salem, N. C., yesterday to Archie Bradley, a nephew of her first husband. Mrs. Bradley is fifty years old and her husband only twenty-four.

Young Bradley had lived in the home at Greenway for the last four years and since the death of his uncle has managed the stock farm and the racing stable left by Bradley.

GOULD DIVORCE SUIT.

Will Be Heard in Open Court if Frank Has His Way.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Aug. 22.—Frank J. Gould, it was asserted today on good authority, has decided that the details of the suit for divorce brought against him by his wife shall be heard in open court. Mr. Gould will oppose the appointment of a referee and will contest every step in the litigation.

It is learned that the young woman referred to as "Rose" in the amended complaint filed by Mrs. Gould is Rose Winter, an actress.

NEW YORK TICKET SOURCE OF TALK

Renomination of Governor Hughes Conceded But Doubt as to Balance of Ticket

HIGHLY PRIZED HONORS

No Longer Any Doubt But That the Governor Will be Nominated to Succeed Himself—Much Speculation As to Balance of Ticket, Horace White Mentioned For Lieutenant Governor, Also Seth Heacock—Others Mentioned For Various State Offices.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Aug. 22.—There being no longer any doubt about the renomination of Governor Hughes, the question arises, who will be the governor's companions on the republican state ticket?

Several highly prized honors are to be awarded at the state convention and there will be keen rivalry to capture them. For lieutenant governor Senator Horace White, of Syracuse, is mentioned. Senator White is Onondaga county's candidate for governor. He has been in the senate since 1906.

He is one of the most eloquent speakers in the party in this state. A boom has been started for Senator Seth G. Heacock, of Iliac, for lieutenant-governor. It is said he would be willing to run on the ticket with Governor Hughes.

Assemblyman Merriam K. Hart, of Utica, also has a boom for secretary of state.

For comptroller Senator William W. Armstrong, of Rochester, is mentioned, notwithstanding the fact that the senator has announced his intention of retiring from politics.

Ex-Judge Charles S. Whitman, of this city, is frequently spoken of as the probable nominee for attorney-general. He is regarded as one of the best vote-getters in the party.

State treasurer and state engineer and surveyor are the other important places on the state ticket that will be filled by the convention.

Fleeing Turkish Officials in London.

(By Cable to The Times.) London, Aug. 22.—Izzet Pasha, the former Turkish official and adviser of the sultan who fled for his life after the constitution was proclaimed, arrived here last Saturday.

FRANK CARDOVA IS PENNILESS

Unfroked Minister Recently Freed From Penitentiary Has No Money Nor Work

MIND IS GIVING AWAY

Preacher Who Was Recently Freed From the Penitentiary, Where He Served a Four-Year Term For Deserting His Wife, in Philadelphia Today—Said to be in Pitiable Condition—Father of Miss Bowne Threatens to Shoot Him if He Tries to See Her.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Aug. 22.—J. Frank Cordova, the unfroked minister of South River, N. J., recently freed from the penitentiary at Trenton, where he served a commuted four-year term for deserting his wife and running away with Julia Bowne, a beautiful choir singer in his church, was seen in Philadelphia today. The former friend who saw him declared that Cordova is penniless and without work, and that his mind is giving away.

It was also learned today that immediately after Cordova reached Philadelphia from Trenton he wrote Miss Bowne, who is living with her father at North Asbury Park, rearing the three-year-old boy of whom Cordova is the father. In his letter he said he was coming for her, but he received a reply from her father, threatening to kill him if he ever appeared at North Asbury Park.

The man who saw Cordova in Philadelphia wrote to some of the members of his old flock at South River, declaring that the ex-minister ought to be examined to determine his mental condition.

TILLMAN THINKS BRYAN WILL WIN

Has Good Chance of Beating the Other Crowd This Time

HIS INNATE STRENGTH

Nominated in Spite of Organized Newspaper Fight Against Him and Stands Splendid Chance of Winning the Election—Taft a Mighty Good Fellow But Nominated at Dictation of President and Against the Wishes of the Republican Masses—His Subserviency to Oyster Bay.

(By Cable to The Times.) London, Aug. 28.—Senator Ben. Tillman, of South Carolina, who has been travelling in Europe for some time, sees democratic success in Bryan's nomination.

"It may be that the wish is father to the thought," said Senator Tillman, when encountered at the office of the American Express Company, "but it looks to me as if Bryan has a powerful good chance of cleaning up the other crowd this time. In the first place, he has been nominated in spite of the best organized newspaper fight against him ever known, this demonstrating his innate strength with the rank and file of the democratic party.

"Taft, on the contrary, has been nominated solely at the dictation of Roosevelt and against the wishes of the masses in the republican party. White Taft is a lovable character in every way, and I don't wish to be construed as saying anything against him as a man, his self obligation and what I should call the element of subserviency shown in his visit to Oyster Bay to get his speech revised, are not in his favor."

OVERTHROW OF ALEXIS

Haytien Exile Predicts the Fall of Alexis Government

Says Revolution Will Not be so Easily Quelled This Time and Expects to See Nord Alexis Annihilated.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Aug. 22.—Asserting that this time the revolution will not be so easily quelled as the one before and that the end will be the overthrow of President Nord Alexis and his followers, General Frederique, a Haytien exile, left this city today for St. Thomas, where M. Firmin, leader of the last expedition against the Haytien government is waiting him.

General Frederique declared before he left that there was absolutely no truth in the interview given out by M. Charment as to the reported meeting between Secretary Root and M. Firmin. The general says that Charment has never been true to any party, and deserts it just as soon as it appears to him to be losing ground. He further stated that the next expedition to Hayti would result in the complete overthrow of Nord Alexis.

Former Governor Convicted of Gambling.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 22.—It took a jury only five minutes to convict Cassius M. Barnes, former governor of Oklahoma and now mayor of Guthrie, of gambling. The mayor was arrested several weeks ago with other prominent men. His companions pleaded guilty. Judge Strong, who will sentence Barnes, was appointed by the defendant as attorney general during his administration as governor.

Clean It Up.

"I wish you would take a look at that fountain over there," said a gentleman this morning, pointing at the beautiful fountain given the city of Raleigh by the National Human Alliance, of which Hermon Lee Ensign was founder. "It is positively filthy. Call somebody's attention to it."

The reporter took a look at it and found it as reported. It does seem that the city could afford to keep this beautiful gift in order.

MAYOR FREED 551 JAIL PRISONERS TODAY

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Boston, Mass., Aug. 22.—A record for releasing prisoners was made in Boston today, when the mayor freed 551 prisoners at once. Because of the wholesale arrests of crooks, including men and tramps in the crime wave that has been sweeping over Massachusetts, the police stations and city jails have been packed to suffocation. Deer Island, with room for one thousand at a maximum, had 1,551 prisoners. The released men nearly swamped the city ferry in their exuberation.

Tomorrow the mayor says he will take up the other city penal institutions. The men released were charged with minor misdemeanors.

DOCTOR INNOCULATED.

While Experimenting With Hydrophobia Germs He Wounds His Finger.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Chicago, Aug. 22.—Dr. A. Lagorriere, who is at the head of the Pasteur Institute, 228 Dearborn avenue, has been inoculated with hydrophobia germs and is taking his own treatment to ward off an attack of the disease.

Two days ago, while the doctor was experimenting with a guinea pig that he was dissecting, after having inoculated it with the germs of rabies, he had a sharp silver of bone under his finger nail. It penetrated some distance and made a painful wound.

It was in experimenting with an eight days' rabies culture that the accidental inoculation occurred.

—Maj. Chas. H. Gattis did not leave for Charlotte last night, as he intended, but will leave tomorrow afternoon. While there he will discuss with President Hearn the possibility of Raleigh entering the Carolina Association. If the schedule can be arranged properly, Raleigh will in all probability be admitted.

ROBBED BANK TO BEAT THE RACES

Man, Then Lost His Head, Then His Money, Now in Jail

HE WAS EAGER TO TRY IT

Bank Clerk Evolves System to Beat the Races, Took Bank's Money to Try it and Won—Didn't Pay Bank Back, But Tried Again and Lost, After Sporting Heavily on His First Earnings—Bank Discovered Shortage and Clerk Went to Jail.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Aug. 22.—Because he believed he had evolved a system to beat the races, Harold B. Kohler, bookkeeper in the National Park Bank, who lives at No. 390 Seventeenth street, South Brooklyn, is a prisoner in the Tombs, awaiting the action of the grand jury, on a charge of embezzlement.

Kohler devised a system of playing favorites for place which looked so well on paper that he could not wait to save up capital for the gamble. Instead he took $380 from the bank and went to the track. He played, won, lost his head and became a Broadway sport. He plunged recklessly, lost all he had won and the bank's money besides and faced ruin.

The bank discovered his defalcation and he confessed. The cashier, Maurice H. Ewer, turned him over to the police and made a charge of embezzlement against him on which he was held.

CAREY STILL MISSING WIFE DISTRACTED

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, Aug. 22.—In a pathetic appeal to Chief Inspector Cortwright, Mrs. Edith Carey, the wife of James Carey, proprietor of the Princeton Hotel at New Orleans, who disappeared several weeks ago, asks that a general alarm be sent out for him. Since Carey's mysterious disappearance, Willie, their nine-year-old son, was drowned and the distracted wife begs that her husband, if alive, return home.

The chief inspector immediately had a description of the missing man sent to every precinct in the city and the machinery of the entire department is at work in an effort to locate the man.

GOVERNOR MAGOON VISITS WASHINGTON

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, Aug. 22.—Charles E. Magoon, provisional governor of Cuba, arrived here yesterday. He called on the secretary of war and had an extended conference with him. Governor Magoon will go to Oyster Bay Tuesday. He expects to be back in Cuba by September 1.

Governor Magoon said he saw no likelihood of difficulty in turning over the island to the Cuban government. He spoke in the highest terms concerning the general conduct of the people of the island.

Bishop Fund $500,000.

(By Cable to The Times.) Berlin, Aug. 22.—The fund which was started when Count Zeppelin's airship No. 4 was destroyed near Stuttgart, on August 4, to enable him to build another airship and continue his experiments in aerial navigation, has now reached $500,000.
