

PRIMARIES FOR TODAY

Durham County Selecting Candidates for Office

Many Complications in the Race. Nine Candidates For the Legislature—Case Against Junior Order. Mr. Everett High and Dry.

(Special to The Times)
Durham, Aug. 22—The democratic primaries are being held throughout the county today, and every county officer, with the exception of superior court clerk, is standing for re-election or nomination. Clerk Green is not chosen again until two years hence.

There has seldom been a primary in which there are such complications. There are nine candidates for the legislature, though but three are being seriously considered. Arley M. Moore, S. C. Chambers, and Y. E. Smith will so disintegrate the vote that no nomination on first ballot can possibly take effect Saturday, August 29. Benjamin Lovenstein is making the most aggressive campaign, though he is not being considered nearer than fourth in the race. The legalized primary with the Mecklenburg feature, is the law under which the election is being held. The polls opened in the city precincts at 12, and in the rural districts at 2 p. m. The country precincts will close at 6 and the city at 8. It is believed that every candidate's strength will be known and there is the greatest interest in the outcome.

Through attorneys Winston & Bryant, Mr. W. G. Page, administrator of his son, Connie Page, yesterday brought suit against the National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics for the collection of a claim of $500 against the order due in the payment of a policy carried by the young man. Mr. Page died early in the year and the claim has been resisted. The company insists that his standing was bad and that the dues were in such shape that he could not be properly called a beneficiary. But the father says everything had been properly paid up and that he was entitled to the disability clause from the moment of his illness. The fight will be made before the September term of civil court.

Edward F. Royster, who went gunning for R. O. Everett last week because the city attorney pressed a claim of $53.91 against him, alleging fraud, and who was afterwards put under a peace warrant, seems to have no end to his troubles. Everett was good to him and allowed him to go free, though the magistrate in giving judgment when he was sued by the Southern Pure Food Company, coupled that judgment with a charge of fraud. Everett allowed him to give a note and waited for signatures. Finally that of Fred C. Greer, a rich bachelor, appeared on the paper, but when it was presented to the bank it was at once disdained and Mr. Greer denied ever having affixed his signature. Royster is high and dry, but with the sympathy of the man whom he made a trifle miserable with threats, he may be allowed to go free and end the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Page Pickett, whose boy was lost during the circus performance, were more than joyed Thursday night several hours after the performance, when the little fellow came walking in more than half a mile from the place of the trouble. The boy of five was lost and every effort to locate him failed. He finally tired of waiting for his father and mother and wended his way home. The city police station was absolutely empty this morning, not an arrest being made. The work of the officers is daily growing smaller. The town has been on lady-like behavior more than two months.

S.S.S. FOR BAD BLOOD

When bad blood is caused from an infection of the circulation by the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, it usually shows in the form of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots on the body, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. These general symptoms, affecting all parts of the body, show how deeply poisoned the blood becomes, and emphasizes the dangerous character of the trouble. If allowed to remain in the system the disease will finally wreck the health and break down the strongest constitution. No medicine can cure Contagious Blood Poison which does not rid the circulation of every particle of the virus. S. S. S. is the one real and certain cure; it goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, and by removing every trace of the poison, and adding rich, healthful qualities to the blood, forever cures this powerful disorder. S. S. S. is the most reliable of all blood purifiers, and its concentrated ingredients of healthful vegetable extracts and juices especially adapt it to curing this insidious trouble. Write for our home treatment book, which is a valuable aid in the treatment of the different stages of the disease, and ask for any special medical advice you wish. No charge for either.

Bowling Parties, Bridge Parties, Family Parties, Pretty Girls, Quizzes, Etc.—Many Visitors There Now.

(Correspondence to The Times)
The Mecklenburg, Chase City, Va., Aug. 21—Each day the popularity of the Mecklenburg as a health and pleasure resort ever grows; true it is that every day is full to the brim with pleasure, impromptu and other affairs, entertaining very satisfactorily all who come here in search of amusement and the cool refreshing breezes soon give everyone "the happy smile that won't come off." The hotel has been enlivened by the presence of many young people, and horse back riding has been unusually popular, enthusiastic riders going each day.

The children enjoyed a most delightful bowling party on Friday, when Mrs. C. B. Law, of Cincinnati, who never forgets the little ones, gave all the children of the hotel the time of their lives with the fascinating box ball game. Miss Sara Starke captured the girl's prize, a dainty kodak album; Master Buel Cook won the boy's prize, a burnt leather pen and pencil case, and presented it to Master Mirabeau Hughes, while Will Hughes, Jr., received the consolation, a box of candy.

A morning bridge party on Saturday was one of the week's pleasant events. This was given in honor of Miss Kate Roy, of Washington, D. C. The prize, a lovely bridge set, was won by Mrs. Hostetter, North Carolina, and the honor-guest was presented with a dainty silver ribbon necklace.

A very delightful family party from Lynchburg includes Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Watts, James Watts and Ashby Watts.

Such a pretty girl is Miss Bessie Dey, one of Norfolk's most attractive debutantes, who is spending some time here.

A charming quartette from North Carolina, who have been very popular here for the past months, are Misses Helen Crenshaw, Evelyn Ayldett, Ida Flora and Ettie Ayldett.

Miss Eva Treadway, one of Chatham's most attractive girls, was here last week.

Bright and vivacious Miss Lucie Morton, of Qeesville, Va., has charmed all the guests with her beautiful voice, and everyone has enjoyed her singing.

Mr. M. P. Williams, of Danville, came during the week, bringing a party of young men, Messrs. Wylie, Schoolfield, and Pritchett, and all added to the social life during their stay, and will return the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lowmsberry exceedingly pleasant people of Norfolk, who have been spending the past month here most beneficially, will remain during September.

Mr. P. M. Carney, of Rome, N. Y., arrived this week in his touring car with a party of friends.

Returning friends are Mrs. J. J. Hall and Miss Edith M. Hall, of Fayetteville.
