

RAILWAY SCHEDULES

Table with railway schedules for Seaboard Air Line, Raleigh and Southport, Norfolk and Southern, and Southern Railway, listing departure and arrival times.

THE WEATHER

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, D. C., Aug. 28. Forecast for North Carolina for tonight and Saturday: Fair tonight, warmer in the interior. Saturday, fair, warmer; fresh northeast to east winds.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at all drug stores, 25 cents.

BEAUFORT-MOREHEAD BRIDGE

Will Not Be Abandoned, and Suspension of Trains is Only Temporary.

Mr. N. E. Swan, secretary of the Beaufort chamber of commerce, writes The Times as follows:

On account of the general impression that the bridge from Beaufort to Morehead is not safe and will be abandoned by the road, we will be glad to have you state through your paper that a letter has been received from Mr. Fitzgerald, receiver and general manager of the road, in which he says that the temporary abandonment of the bridge is to make a few repairs. During the very severe storm of a few weeks ago the bridge was slightly damaged, and while making the repairs it was thought best to discontinue running trains across for a few days in order that the repairs may be completed as soon as possible. A large number of creosoted piles have arrived and the pile-drivers are constantly at work on the repairs. Mr. Fitzgerald says that the managers are not entertaining any idea of abandoning the bridge permanently, but expect to make it a permanent structure.

Trains will be running as usual in a few days.

Final Clearance of All Spring and Summer Goods.

Buy for present use, or buy for next season. No other investment will pay so large a percentage of interest.

STRAW HATS—We have about five dozen Men's Straw Hats left. They range in price from $1 to $4—final clearance price, 50c. Boys' Straw Hats up to $1.50; now 25c.

FELT HATS—All the $3 ones left from this Spring go now at $2.

MEN'S AND YOUTHS' SUITS—All patterned suits in all styles go this week. Yet, at 33 1-3 per cent. off regular price. You can select from complete lots right now—but the assortment of 1, 2, or 3 of a kind is large enough to make a good selection.

HIGH GRADE UNDERWEAR—American Silk, etc., values $1 to $1.50 per garment; this week's final clearance at 75c. Very near all sizes in both Shirts and Drawers. This is the very underwear you will want for fall wear.

FANCY HOSIERY—Mostly imported numbers, that were 50c. to $1; go this week, yet at 35c. or 3 pairs for $1.

This week's sales, according to the excessive cut in prices, should be the largest of the year—the gain is yours and the loss is ours—but it's final clearance.

S. BERWANGER THE ONE PRICE CLOTHIER.

TOMORROW LAST DAY OF CONTEST

Votes Been Coming in Steadily For the Last Day Or Two

GET VOTES TO OFFICE

As Early As Possible—You Are Invited to Be Present at the Final Count, Which Will Take Place at Noon.

The great Mecklenburg contest, which has been running for the last few days, will draw to a close tomorrow at noon.

In The Evening Times office an alarm clock will be set to go off at the appointed hour, and at the sound of the clock the contest will immediately be declared closed.

This has been one of the most interesting contests ever conducted by this paper. There has never been a contest of similar nature undertaken in Raleigh before, and it has been of interest, not only to the aspirants, but to outsiders, ever since the opening.

The winners of this great trip are going to get a free trip to one of the south's favorite resorts, The Mecklenburg Hotel, at Chase City, Va., a resort that is well known for its beautiful location and surroundings. Here is one of the leading social resorts of this section.

The Mecklenburg Springs Hotel, although only four years old, is one of the most extensively advertised resorts in the south. The water coming from the springs is known to be of the best, the service at the hotel has always proven to be among the leaders—everything being done for the convenience and pleasure of the guest.

If you have any votes see that they reach this office the first thing in the morning. Don't hold them until the last moment, as for some reason they may be miscounted. If you or any of your friends are in the race, come to The Times office at the appointed hour and see the votes counted.
