

FAREWELL DAY ITALIANS PASS AT OYSTER BAY LOT OF BAD MONEY

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 17.—This is farewell day at Oyster Bay and every man, woman and child who lives in the village and can in any way manage to get away for a couple of hours is going to Sagamore Hill to shake hands with President and Mrs. Roosevelt and wish them goodbye before they leave for Washington. Save for the brief time the chief executive will remain in Oyster Bay on election day, when he comes here to vote, this is the last chance the natives of the Long Island village will have to see the president until after he returns from his hunting trip in Africa, on which he expects to start as soon as his successor takes the oath of office.

Refreshments will be served on the lawn and then all present will shake hands with Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of their family who are still at Oyster Bay. Whether Mr. Roosevelt will make any address has not been announced.

Tickling or dry coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stem of a lung healing mountain shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by Henry T. Hicks & Co.

FUNERAL OF ROBIN KING.
Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. King, Jr., Laid to Rest Yesterday Afternoon.
Yesterday afternoon at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. King, on South Salisbury street, funeral services were held over the body of little Robin King. Many friends of the family were present and many little playmates of the departed child. Rev. I. McK. Pittenger, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, conducted the services. Mrs. Chas. McKimmon sang "Jesus, Tender Shepherd, Hear Me," and Mrs. Horace Dowell sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Jas. A. Parham, LeRoy Thiem, William Heller and Val Perkins, the honorary pall-bearers being Messrs. Henry E. Litchford, Maurice Grausman, and Charles Boone. The flowers were borne by the sorrowing playmates of the little boy: Genevieve Holleman, Louise Holleman, Miriam and Margaret Holloway, Katherine Smith and Lilly Jones.

WANTS COUNT BONI ON VAUDEVILLE STAGE
Every person should know that good health is impossible if the kidneys are deranged. Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure kidney and bladder disease in every form, and will build up and strengthen these organs so that they will perform their functions properly. No danger of Bright's disease or diabetes if Foley's Kidney Remedy is taken in time. O. G. King.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) New York, Sept. 17.—If Count Boni De Castellane will accept an offer of $5,000 a week for ten weeks to appear in vaudeville, the former husband of Anna Gould will be seen on the stage in this city during the winter. Percy Williams, manager of the Colonial and Alhambra theatres in New York and several others in Brooklyn is said to have made the offer to Count De Castellane. It is reported that negotiations practically have been completed with the Frenchman.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

(By Leased Wire to The Times) Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Loaded down with spurious silver dollars, two Italians and possibly a third, made the corner of 64th and Virginia avenue the center of their operations last night.
One of them, a 17-year-old boy, who gave his name of Paomudi Divicento, in trying to evade arrest, was shot in the right thigh and taken to the University hospital. The other was successful in escaping, and a third, by leaping a passing trolley car, made good his escape.

The boy threw handfuls of counterfeit silver dollars into the street as he tried to escape by running away. Policemen Dillmore, who was at his heels, ordered him to stop, but he ran down a steep incline and darted along the railroad tracks. Dillmore shot him in the leg and captured him after a lively struggle.
It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the heart and kidneys. That is all wrong! A weak stomach means weak stomach nerves, always. And this is also true of the heart and kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping stomach, heart and kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the falling "inside nerves." Anyway, test the Restorative for 48 hours. It won't cure so soon as that, but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by Henry T. Hicks & Co.

OPERATION NECESSARY.
J. H. Cooper, Hurt on Football Field, Taken to Baltimore.
(Special to The Times)
Chapel Hill, Sept. 16.—Mr. John Henry Cooper, of Clinton, who Saturday evening seriously wrenched his spine in tackling the football dummy, was this morning taken to Baltimore, where an operation is to be performed on him. Mr. Cooper is in a very serious condition, and it is feared death may result from the injury. He has become paralyzed in his lower limbs and continues to grow worse. Mr. Cooper is a smart, deserving young man, and his many friends joined in and made a purse to help defray his expenses and show their sympathy for his misfortune.

When Trifles Become Troubles.
If any persons suspect that their kidneys are deranged they should take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and not risk having Bright's disease or diabetes. Delay gives the disease a stronger foothold and you should not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. O. G. King.

Swindled Rich Woman
(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Toronto, Can., Sept. 17.—J. M. McFarland, wanted in Chicago on the charge of having swindled Mrs. Jas. A. Patton, of Evanston, Ill., wife of the Chicago corn king, out of $28,000, and other rich women out of large sums of money in a book deal, has been arrested here and admits his identity. McFarland, who was taken into custody at 1 a. m. today by Detective W. H. Welsh, at one of the down-town hotels under the name of Bellamy, will be arraigned today, but whether or not he will waive extradition he would not say.

Passed Examination Successfully.
James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney trouble. O. G. King.

THE BLACK ART.
Exhibitions of This Puzzling Art Will be One of Features at Masonic Carnival—Many Booths.
One of the big feature shows which will be seen at the Masonic Free Indoor Carnival, and one that will mystify and bewilder the great crowds in attendance, is known as the Black Art exhibitions.

Probably no other amusement attracts like the black art. The more you see it, the more you are puzzled, and the harder one tries to solve the wonderful power of the "man in white", the less you know how he really accomplishes such amazing realities.
This is one of the many attractions that will be given free at the Indoor Carnival.
The many booths that will adorn the lower gallery of the big auditorium will include a floral booth, knife rack, orangeade, bric-a-brac, fishing pond, voting booth, a doll's house, cigar and tobacco stand, auction, candy, pop-corn crisps, souvenir, fruit, bon-bon, merry widow hat, ice cream cone, confetti, serpentine, lunch and novelty stands, grocery and an old curiosity shop, a fortune-teller, and many other similar booths.
There will be a number of candy wheels operated by some of the principal society ladies of North Carolina and also a wheel of fortune.
The many booths are being built and decorated will be at work next week making the auditorium beautiful. Probably never before in any similar undertaking has such interest been manifested and at tomorrow's meeting of the representative ladies of the city committees will be formed, and the work will continue with increased enthusiasm.
Let every lady interested attend the meeting tomorrow at the new Masonic Temple, 4:30 o'clock, and unite in making this carnival a grand success.
